TRIED TO KILL HER

MRS. GEORGE FOWLER MADE CHARGE AGAINST HUSBAND.

Ran Out of Her Home, Scantily Clothed to Escape His Brutality—AG tempted to Choke Her.

"I thought sure he would kill me, and it is indeed a great wonder that I escaped."

This is what Mrs. George E. Fowler said in police court, on Thursday morning, when giving evidence against her husband, who was arrested, on Wednesday afternoon, on a charge of assaulting her. The couple live on Upper Princess street. Mrs. Fowler gave every evidence of being ill-used. Both her eyes were in deep mourning, and she blamed her husband for this.

In her story to the magistrate, Mrs. Fowler said that on Tuesday night she was out with her husband, and that there was no trouble until two o'clock the next morning. The two were locked at the time when she claimed she grabbed hold of her, and tried to choke her.

"I got away from him once, and tried to get out," said Mrs. Fowler, "but I could not get away, as he caught me and pulled me back. He tried to punch me in the face, and I refused. I thought sure he would kill me. After a time, I got away, and ran out of the house in my bare feet, attired only in my dressing gown and skirt. I sat on the front steps for a time, and then went into the house next door and stayed there."

Mrs. Fowler claimed that her husband had refused to support her, ever since they came out from the old country, and that she was forced to work all the time.

"I don't want to live with him any longer," she said. "I was laid up sick for four months, and he left me to paddle my own canoe. Everyone thinks he is a gentleman, but he is not. I have to live with him, and I know it."

Fowler, who wanted to get witnesses for the case, strongly denied the charge. He said he did not strike his wife, but that she had received the black eyes as a result of falling against the bed.

"Yes, that's what you always say," remarked Mrs. Fowler.

The magistrate enlarged the case for a day.

GRAND JURY REPORT.

Condemned Keeping an Idiot in the Jail.

The grand jury of the court of assizes for the county of Frontenac reported that they visited the several public institutions in the city and found them all in a satisfactory condition.

The county jail was first visited and a thorough inspection made of the whole premises. Everything was in a very best of order and cleanliness. The jury found ten men and one female in confinement. The jury regretted to find an idiot in jail, and on enquiry found that the man was received on May 27th, 1911, and he had been medically examined as required by law, and had been pronounced an idiot. This jury is very strongly of the opinion that the jail is not the proper place for the unfortunate man and wish to strongly recommend to the proper authorities his removal to the idiot asylum at Orillia.

The hospitals and other charitable institutions were all found in a very creditable condition. These institutions are deserving of all praise for the noble work they are doing, and are deserving of all the financial aid the different municipalities can bestow upon them.

The penitentiary appeared so far as cursory observation permitted, a well conducted institution and its conditions are quite satisfactory.

Dandruff Germs Are Responsible

Baldness and Most Hair Troubles Due to This Parasite Which Destroys Hair Roots.

Nobody wants to be bald! But a neglected scalp means, first, falling hair, then BALDNESS. If you are troubled with itching scalp or falling hair, be on guard against dandruff. Get rid of it without delay; check its advance, for dandruff is a germ which feeds upon itself and "feeding grows," destroying the hair roots, so that no new hair growth is possible.

Begin now using HAY'S HAIR HEALTH, the surest, sweetest dandruff cure. It destroys the dandruff germs, eradicates them (cleans out the pores of the scalp), and encourages a quick growth of youthful-looking hair. No unsightly dandruff scales on your coat collar. No bald spots on your scalp, if you use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. W. W. White, writer Vienna (Md.), I. M. E. church, writes us: "I have used half a dozen different hair tonics, but I find HAY'S HAIR HEALTH the very best preparation I have ever used for dandruff." You can get it at any drugstore for 50c., or $1 per bottle, or from the Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N.J.

To Build an Armoury.

The engineering corps of Queen's university purpose funding its drill pay. This year it will amount to some $1,600. It is hoped that when the accumulation of five or six years occurs that a fine armoury will be erected on Queen's university grounds.

Hope Plans Will be Carried Out.

Professor Hutt, of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, was in the city Tuesday. He remarked that the board of education had not taken up the subject of improving the school grounds. A year or more ago he gave a comprehensive report of how the work could be carried on, and he hoped that the board would take the matter up and become an example for other places. The improvement of the grounds meant a great deal to the outlook of the little folks attending the schools.

Minstrel Show at Portsmouth.

The Coon Town minstrels, of Kingston, under the direction of Sidney Salisbury, gave a performance at Portsmouth on Wednesday. The audience was small on account of the hockey match and other counter attractions, but those present enjoyed the show immensely, and the songs and local hits were heartily encored.

Sentimental songs were rendered by John Johnston, John Inglis, George Allen and William McCullough; comic songs were sung and jokes were given by comedians T. J. Turner, Sidney Turner, C. Smitth, James Garrigan and William Salisbury. The show came off without a hitch and the audience were highly pleased.

IN SPORTING CIRCLES

THE FRONTENAC HOCKEY TEAM TO VISIT SYRACUSE, N.Y.

Will Play There Next Thursday—Results of the Curling Matches Last Evening—Other News of Sport.

The Frontenac hockey team this morning received an invitation to visit Syracuse, N.Y., next Thursday and play an exhibition game there with the Syracuse team. James T. Sutherland says that the invitation will be accepted and he hopes to take across the border a strong team.

The Frontenacs had a practice last evening with the Royal Military College cadet intermediate team, which plays Varsity II in Toronto on Friday evening. Both teams had a good work-out. The Frontenacs are in good shape for their game next Monday evening with the Toronto All-Stars here.

Curling Games.

Six club games were played at the local curling rink on Wednesday afternoon and evening. Two games were played in two of the series and one in each of the other series. Skip Macdonald won from Skip Gill by 15 to 13. Skip Asselstine won from Skip Watson by 17 to 7. Skip McLean won from Skip Birkett by 15 to 5. Skip Givens won from Skip Dalton by 15 to 13. Skip McFarland won from Skip McKelvey by 12 to 10. Skip McConchie won from Skip Goodwin by 16 to 10.

The winners of the different series are as follows: Prof. Macdonald, A series; E. H. Brown, in B series; W. H. Montgomery or W. L. Sills in C series, and A. Macnaughton in D series. The draw was taken and the winners of A and B series play off and also the winners of C and D.

Challenge Accepted.

The R.A.D.'s (Royal Ancient Dragoons) claim to junior city hockey supremacy was not long proclaimed before it was questioned. The husky N.S.H., captained by V. Nicholson, and managed by Kehoe Kennedy, have disputed the claim and requested a game, so on Saturday night, at Queen's open air rink, the struggle will take place. As each team has a host of supporters a lively time is expected. The winners will play with the Outlaws for the Pastime trophy.

"Chaucer" is Suggested.

REMAINS OF A VETERAN

BORNE ON GUN CARRIAGE TO THE GRAVE.

Funeral of the Late Lieut. W. A. Stroud—Service in St. George's Cathedral by Major the Rev. Canon Starr.

The funeral of the late Lieut. W. A. Stroud, late master-gunner of the R.C.H.A., who died in Guelph Tuesday morning, took place from the residence of his son, Ald. Allan Stroud, Rideau street, Thursday afternoon. The remains were taken to St. George's cathedral, where Major the Rev. Canon Starr, chaplain of the Kingston garrison, read the burial office. The choir was present and the hymns sung were "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Abide with Me." The remains were taken to their last resting place in Catarqui cemetery.

The solemnity and largeness of the deceased's funeral was a grand tribute to his life and work of nearly forty years in the Royal Canadian Artillery. The impressive effect of the "Dead March," played by the R.C.H.A. band, and the measured tread of the officers and men was very obvious. Large crowds of citizens lined the route of march.

The firing party leading the procession, was composed of forty men of the R.C.H.A., under Lieut. F. M. Benson, and was followed by the band and undertaker's sleigh. The gun carriage came next, drawn by handsome horses. On top of the easket was the deceased's helmet and sword. The charger closely followed the remains, with the empty saddle and the boots reversed. The pall-bearers, who marched at the side of the gun carriage, were some of deceased's comrades—Q.M.S. Inst. Clifford, Q.M.S. Cr-Mr. Turner, Q.M.S. Slater, Staff-Sergt. Fr. Stephenson, Q.M.S. Whr. Ryder, Sergt.-Fr. Lallamme, Sergt. Lowrie and Sergt. Rousseau.

The mourners were the deceased's four sons, James T., St. Paul, Minna, Victor G., of Toronto; Major Allan and Lieut. Albert M., of this city, and F. Jackson, also of this city, brother-in-law of the late soldier.

The honorary bearers, following the mourners were six officers of the R.C.H.A. brigade, Major J. Hamilton, Capt. H. E. Cook and W. H. P. Hink, and Lieuts. H. P. Lafferty, L. S. Vien and H. W. McPherson.

The remainder of the cortege was composed of the officers, N.C.O.'s and men of the R.C.H.A. brigade and departmental corps.

A goodly number of citizens and old friends were also in the procession. The floral tributes which were many and beautiful, were banked in a cab driven in the procession. The route was along Rideau street, down Barrack and down to Wellington to Johnson, and down to the cathedral. After service at the cathedral the procession signalled its way along King street to Brock, up Brock to Alfred, to Princess, and thence to Catarqui cemetery.

The floral tributes were: Wranths, officers of the R.C.H.A. brigade, warrant officers and sergeants of the R.C.H.A. brigade, and men R.C.H.A. brigade, "Old Comrades," "A" battery, Col. Petrie and officers 1st Brigade, C.F.A., Guelph; Master Gunner James Mahar, Ottawa; Sergt.-Major Gimblett, W.O. and wife; Mr. and Mrs. F. Jackson, Standard staff; sheats, Col.
