AVOID DECEPTION

Use Newbro's Herpicide Instead.

Wearing artificial hair is a harmless deceit of which many ladies are guilty. These women are all objects for sympathy rather than criticism.

Early neglect in the care of the scalp has caused the loss of so much hair that their personal appearance is sadly marred. To correct this defect they resort to artificial hair.

Most ladies would resent any imputation of personal carelessness and neglect. And yet very many women permit their natural hair to become so dull, brittle and lustless that it looks no better than the artificial.

All this is an unfortunate as it is unnecessary. Hair that is untidy, thin may usually be attributed to the malevolent activity of the dandruff germ. This vicious germ burrows down into the hair follicle, shortly destroying its life. The hair becomes dead, loose and finally drops out.

There is a remedy sold by all druggists, the intelligent use of which will kill the dandruff germ. It also cleans the scalp of all accumulations and makes the hair shine with the luster of life and beauty.

That remedy is Newbro's Herpicide, the Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer. This preparation in one dollar size bottles is sold and guaranteed everywhere. Applications may be obtained at the best barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich. Will send a nice sample and booklet to any address upon receipt of 10c. in postage or silver. James B. McLeod and L. T. Best, special agents.

KINGSTON OLD BOY'S DREAM

As Recorded by S. G. Brown, of Chicago.

Last evening I was talking, to a Kingston boy aged and grey. Who told me of a dream he had, I think it was Christmas Day.

While snoozing in his arm chair, The vision came to view, For he saw an angel enter, Dressed in garments white and new.

Said the angel: 'I'm from heaven, The Lord just sent me down To bring you up to glory, And put on your golden crown.

You've been a long time in Chicago, His streets wandered up and down, Looking for some familiar face, You know back in the old town.

You've been faithful to your family, Toiled hard night and day, And been a friend to all the boys, Helping them along their pathway.

So we want you up in glory, For you have labored hard, And the good Lord is preparing Your eternal just reward.

Then the angel and the old boy Started up towards glory's gate, When passing along Michigan avenue The angel whispered: 'Wait!

I have a place to show you, 'Tis in the Auditorium hotel, Where the Kingston boys and girls Used to meet, And stories of their young days tell.

To-night is their first annual dinner, And as you can plainly see, They are one and all so happy, Their hearts are filled with glee.

He sat just down to watch them, His heart with joy did burn, Like eyes fell on familiar happy faces, Which ever way they'd turn.

It brought back old memories to him, His face beamed with joy, He thought of dear old Kingston, And happy days when once a boy.

Said the angel, come on, old boy, There is the party gets to see, But the old boy only muttered, This is heaven enough for me.

Not Too Absorbed.

An instance is related of the late Prof. Chrystal's readiness in applied mathematics. One day when he was producing on the blackboard those "spiders webs in chalk" which were the despair of the unlearned, a student near the top of the room dropped a marble, which bumped down, step by step, to the level of the rostrum. Chrystal, not heeding the giggles of the class, went on with his work. When the marble came to rest he observed, "Will the student at the end of bench 41 kindly stand up?" He had counted the bumps made by the marble in its descent.

The Resignation of Johnny.

New York Success.

"Mamma," said Johnny, "if you will let me go just this one time I won't ask for anything to eat."

"All right," said his mother, "it's a bargain."

Johnny, perched on the edge of a high chair, became restless as savory odors came from the region of the kitchen. At last he blurted out: "There's lots of pie and cake in this house."

The astonishing face of his mother recalled his promise, and he added: "But what's that to me?"

Rev. F. G. Kirkpatrick had a double wedding in St. James' church, Tuesday, when C. A. Collins, of Russell, Man., and Miss Mary I. Speck, of Elavir, were married; and C. G. Davery, of Tweed, married Miss Bernice Speck. The brides were sisters. The home of John Durkin and his aged mother, in Tweed, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday. There was no insurance and much sympathy is expressed for the aged occupant.

John Brown, Edward Brown, and George Brown, all of Tweed, each sold a team of horses, within two weeks, for $500.

Lorne Brown, of Tweed, and Miss Matilda Post, of West Huntington, were married on Wednesday.

LOST HIS HAIR, BEARD AND MUSTACHE

Terrible Plight of a Pennsylvania Man Reported by a Prominent Citizen:

"About two years ago my hair, beard and mustache started to come out in spots. These spots were entirely bare of hair.

Seeing PARISIEN SAGE advertised, I purchased four bottles and after using two of the bottles, the hair came in until now I have as good a head of hair as I had before this trouble started.

I can truthfully recommend this preparation to any one for what it is recommended for. Sam Galder, Jamison City, Col. Co. Pa., Oct. 11, 1911.

Please bear in mind that PARISIEN SAGE is not guaranteed to grow hair on bald heads.

In Mr. Galder's case the hair root was not dead and there is no good reason why PARISIEN SAGE should not do just what he writes it did.

The next time Mr. Galder came into my store after purchasing the PARISIEN SAGE," writes the druggist who sold him, "his appearance was so changed I did not know him."

PARISIEN SAGE is without doubt the most efficient hair grower, beautifier and dandruff cure in the world, and people who are wasting time with ordinary commercial tonics should wake up.

PARISIEN SAGE will banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp; will put life, lustre and beauty into faded hair, or money back. It is a most delightful and refreshing tonic for men, women and children. Large bottle 50 cents at J. B. McLeod's and druggists the country over.
