DOOR ALWAYS OPEN AT THE POLICE STATION FOR THE UNFORTUNATE. Record shows That Close to Five Hundred Given Shelter at Police Station During Year—Means of Saving Many a Man Freezing to Death.

Kingston has no "shelter," but the police station serves as one, according to the report of the police department, for the past year, as it is shown by the report, that during the year, four hundred and seventy-six people were given shelter in the station.

It may be safely said that the door of the police station, is always open for the stranger, within our gates, the unfortunate in hard luck, and the lost, besides taking care of those who have violated the law and are taken to the station, not of their own accord, but by the stiff arm of the law.

So Kingston has those who are forced to go to the police station, and those who go, in order to have a place to stay. It is remarkable that out of the large number who were given shelter, there was only one woman. The rest were all men, and each had his own story of hard luck.

One night, no less than fifteen men were given shelter in the police station. Some men have come two, three and four nights for lodging. For the most part, they are seeking shelter at the police station, are men "on the tramp"—that is, men who are on their way to Toronto, Montreal, or intermediate points. They are very seldom men who have come to Kingston to get work, although, at times, an odd man who has come to the city to get work drifts into the police station.

True, the police station does not provide a great deal of comfort. There are no leather beds and a grate fire, but instead, there is a hard bench, and if one is fortunate, he can make up a pillow and cover. But as the saying goes, "beggars must not choose," and the poor unfortunate are very glad to get this much. One thing sure, the police station, where the men are allowed to stay, is kept warm, and this is some comfort, on a night like many this winter, when the thermometer has been all the way from eight to twenty-eight below zero.

Many have been saved from freezing to death through the fact that the police station is always open for their benefit. These men who knock around the world, know that they can always get into the stations, and they take advantage of it.

STADIUM RINK CARIVAL. Those Who Won Prizes at Wednesday Evening's Event. The carnival at the Stadium rink on Wednesday evening was fairly well attended. The ice was in perfect condition and the band furnished excellent music. A large number were in costume. After those present had skated for some time the prizes were awarded for the best skater went to Joseph Cullen, the prize being a pair of gold cuff links. The first prize for the best lady skater went to Miss Irene Atwood who received a set of silver collar pins.

How Zam-Buk Delivered Him. At 215 Fraser avenue, Edmonton, Alta., lives W. P. Many, a former member of the local fire department, who has wonderful cause to be thankful for the curative powers of Zam-Buk. He says: "A serious skin disease broke out on my face, and spread until I was in a terrible state. The spots and little ulcers were frightfully irritating, and yet when scratched or rubbed they bled and smarted. Shaving caused me some pain, and sometimes I would have to go two weeks without a shave. I tried home-made remedies, herb salves and various other preparations, but the sores got no better. When Zam-Buk was mentioned I had little faith that it would be able to do me any good. My case seemed such an obstinate one. I gave it a fair trial, however, and the first box made such a wonderful change for the better that it gave me encouragement to continue. I did so, and to cut a long story short, Zam-Buk, in the end, quite cured me. My face is now clear of all traces of the terrible disease, which troubled me for so long."

That first gray hair. Oh how disappointed you are to see it.—Gray hairs take away that youthful appearance that you are so anxious to, and should keep,—for beauty and good looks depend so much upon natural color, thick, glossy and healthy hair. Every one is attracted to the woman with beautiful hair. Why not have it—get rid of the gray hairs—keep them out altogether by using HAY'S HAIR HEALTH. You'll be surprised how quickly it will restore those gray hairs to their natural color and how well it will keep them so. It is not a dye but the most satisfactory and reliable restorer.
