BADLY BURNED IN FACE.

Accident to William Smith at Shipbuilding Shops.

A painful accident occurred about 8.30 o'clock Tuesday morning, in the shops of the Kingston Shipbuilding company. William Smith, about thirty years of age, boarding at 70 William street, sustained some very painful burns about the head, face and right hand. He was heating a steel plate in one of the furnaces, and in some way the gasoline which was running it, suddenly exploded, with the above result. He was taken to Dr. Robert Hanley's office in a cab, and afterwards removed to the Hotel Dieu, where his injuries were attended to. Though the burns are severe, and his face may be disfigured, with careful attention, he will be around again in a few weeks.

THE MOTION TO QUASH

It is likely that the motion to quash the liquor license reduction by-law will be heard at Osgoode hall, Toronto, next Monday. The date originally fixed was for March 4th, but the hearing was postponed. Some evidence may be taken this week before the local master, J. B. Walkem, K.C., concerning the alleged duplicate voting. TO PRESENT A SHIELD.

It is Now on Exhibition at Gilbert's Store.

There will be on show for a few days at Gilbert's, Barris street store, one of the Nelson shields, similar to those brought to Kingston on Convocation day in April, 1910 (by the Rev. Alfred Hall of Toronto), and presented to Queen's university and the Royal Military college. The copper from H.M.S. Victory, which still lies the admiral's flag at Portsmouth dockyard, was taken from her in consequence of a recent accident. When the lords' commissioners of the admiralty gave all of the removed oak and the immense copper bolts to the oldest sailors' society in the world with his majesty's consent, who approved of the letters "E.R. VII." being stamped upon the trophies and souvenirs into which the metal is made up. It is to be utilized entirely for the benefit of sailors. In future the Victory is to be more carefully preserved than ever as a priceless possession of the Empire. The metal from H.M.S. Foudroyant, the flagship which Nelson had before the Victory, was purchased by the British and Foreign Sailors' society, at great price, as the whole remainder from the vessel.

These trophies and souvenirs of the historic Nelson metal from these two famous ships, can only be obtained through the society. The quantity is limited and Canada has been given precedence in the organized distribution of them in various forms. The society guarantees that there is no alloy or admixture of any other copper, in all its productions.

THE SHIELD, ON VIEW, WILL BE PRESENTED

by W. H. Hall to the Sydenham street Methodist Bible school on Sunday next, March 17th, on the occasion of the church celebrating its diamond jubilee.

PRESBYTERIANS NOT STRONG

For Church Union—The Vote Stands 435 to 305.

The three leading Presbyterian churches of Kingston are not overly strong for church union. The total vote of St. Andrew's, Chalmers and Cooke's shows 435 for and 305 against, a majority of only 130 of Chalmers and Cooke's favor the union by good majorities, but St. Andrew's is strongly opposed, as the following vote shows: St. Andrew's—For, 75; against, 204. Chalmers—For, 207; against, 48. Cooke's—For, 153; against, 53. The total vote of all churches, with Zion still to be heard from, is 740. When the full vote is in, not one-third of the Presbyterians in Kingston will have cast their ballots on the union question.

The Cooke's church vote was announced on Monday evening, as follows: Elders, for, 5; against, 4. Communicants, for, 131; against, 42. Adherents, for, 17; against, 7. Total, for, 153; against, 53.

RUNAWAY AT PORTSMOUTH.

An Old Gentleman and His Wife Thrown From Cutler.

A lively runaway occurred on the penitentiary hill on Monday evening, at 5.30 o'clock. An old gentleman and his wife were driving up the hill in a cutter and the horse took fright and dashed off, throwing both occupants out of the sleigh on to the road and the animal went on up the road. It got just to the top of the hill as the street car was coming along. Conductor Billings ran in front of the horse and brought it to a standstill. It is very fortunate that the two in the sleigh were not killed. The old gentleman when he was picked up, merely complained of a sore arm.

The Late George W. Davis.

The death of George Willard Davis occurred Monday morning, March 11th, at the residence of his sister, Mrs. John Irwin, 256 Sydenham street. The deceased was seventy-five years of age. He was born on Wolfe Island, and was the last male descendant of John Davis, one of the old United Empire loyalist families, who settled on Wolfe Island. Mr. Davis answered the call of the west and left his birth place thirty years ago to settle in Shell Brook, Sask. Three years ago he retired and had been living with his sister, Mrs. John Irwin, since. The funeral will take place Wednesday, March 13th, at 10.30 a.m., to Trinity church, Wolfe Island.

A Party at Barriefield.

There was a driving party from the lower station to Mr. and Mrs. Stanton's residence, Barriefield, Monday evening, and a most enjoyable time was spent. Cards and music were the features of the evening. A fine solo was rendered by Mr. Donovan, a reading by P. Dubois and a recitation by Miss Irene Stanton. The party broke up in the early hours in the morning when the party wished the host and hostess long life.

WORK OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Kingston Presbytery Urged to Stir Up Work in Different Sections.

That drastic means should be taken to stir up the work of the Sunday school in different sections, was in brief the summing up of a report submitted to the Kingston presbytery, at its meeting in Cooke's church, Tuesday morning, by the moderator, Rev. A. H. Drumm, of Belleville.

Rev. Mr. Drumm made the startling statement that seven Sunday schools had been closed. The main reasons for the closing of the schools had been for lack of teachers, and in some cases lack of pupils.

The moderator recommended that pastors, ordained ministers and students do all in their power, to promote the work, to have schools reopened, and to have new ones opened; that a pastor at large be appointed to superintend and foster the Sunday school work, and to have an insight into the missionary work; that the general assembly and Sunday school committee be urged for new methods of instructions to teachers.

Potatoes for Editor Daley.

Canadian Freeman.

The Freeman seems to have a "corner" on Irish potatoes during the past week. We have received samples from several kind friends, including James Reiden, J. Crawford, and Thomas Ronan, the latter receiving a bag from a relative in Toronto. As the tubers are spring high in price this winter, the above donations are indeed quite acceptable, especially when they come from Irish soil. They will find a prominent place on the dinner table of the editor of the Freeman, especially on St. Patrick's day.
