Notes From Wilton.
Wilton, March 27.—Mr. and Mrs. William Babcock lost their baby boy, one year and ten months of age, last week. The little one had been ailing for some time. The funeral service was conducted in the Methodist church Sunday morning by Rev. W. Wilson. Mr. Finlayson, a Queen's student, preached in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening. Mrs. J. W. Babcock is quite ill again. Harvey Mills is quite recovered from his recent illness. William Walker is still suffering from a slight paralytic stroke. Frederick Cole is moving into Mrs. Lucas' house. Miss Smith, Kingston, is visiting her cousin, Miss Greeta Asselstine. Miss Clara Hamilton, Oshawa, spent a few days at Stuart Simmons'.

Deadlock between government and G.T.R. as to re-instating strikers; railway will not, as yet, grant ministerial demands. G.T.R. bill may go over till next session.

Buy "Liquid Veneer" at Sargent's drug store.

The covered rink will likely have to close unless cold weather intervenes. On Wednesday morning there was skating but the ice was damp. On Tuesday evening the ice was about the best it has been this year.

Engraved visiting cards. Best to be had at the British Whig office.

A meeting was held in St. Paul's Sunday school hall on Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the buying of a new church organ. Nothing definite was done. The subject will be decided upon at a future meeting.

Buy "Liquid Veneer" at Sargent's drug store.

Mrs. Susan Cadotte, Simcoe Island, died at her home, on Monday night. The deceased was in her eighty-fourth year and was a member of the English church. The funeral will take place on Thursday. She is survived by her husband.
