R. WALDRON

THE KINGSTON CRECHE

RECEIVES SUM OF $1,550 FROM TRENHAILE ESTATE.

This Amount Was Awarded This
Charity on the Advice of the Local Master J. B. Walkem.

The creche for the city, for whose benefit a subscription list was opened in the press, since the first of the year, will become realized sooner than most citizens expected, owing to the sum of $1,550 being awarded by the courts from the Trenhaile estate, for the scheme. The creche committee has an option on a property in the city, and will close the transaction. This sum, coming in at this opportune time, will have the effect of giving $250 on the working expenses yearly. This house, it is well known, is to be opened to care for children of the many women around the city, who are forced to go out daily to earn their livelihood. The children may be left at the creche during the day, and older boys and girls will not be kept home from school to take care of them.

It will be remembered that the late Miss Emma Trenhaile willed her estate to be used for the erection of an old ladies' home in the city. Miss Trenhaile took sick and was taken to the hospital, and the authorities found it necessary to sell the estate to cover expenses of her keep.

After the deceased died, the chancery at Toronto decided to give the residue of the estate to one of this city's charities, and referred the selection of such to J. B. Walkem, K.C., the local master of high court. The creche committee became interested, and with the consent of the chief executor of the estate, James Hales, Toronto, the judge changed the order, and gave the money to the creche fund.

CROOKSTON WOMAN SWALLOWS PARIS GREEN

Suicide of Mrs. Hannah McGuire,
Who Had Been in Poor Health.

Belleisle, April 3.—Mrs. Hannah McGuire, of Crookston, committed suicide by taking Paris green. She had been in failing health for some time, and while in a demented state swallowed the fatal dose at about four o'clock in the morning. Her husband, Adam, who teaches at Farnsworth's corners, eight miles away, got home early in the morning without disturbing her and did not know of the deplorable occurrence until later. About nine o'clock Mrs. Fisher, a neighbor called at the residence and found the unfortunate woman lying on the floor unconscious. Dr. Harrison was summoned from Madoc, but the woman was beyond mortal aid. She acknowledged, just previous to her death, having taken poison. Mrs. McGuire has always been held in high esteem. A family of three sons and three daughters survive.

LETTER FROM MRS. SPURR

Read at the Revell Inquest in Toronto.

Toronto, April 3.—Evidence relating to James Revell's financial dealings with Dr. Walter J. Harvey and Dr. James G. Evans, of the Empire College of Ophthalmology, at 358 Queen street west, was tendered the coroner's jury last night in the form of a letter to Charles Bachelor, bartender, at the Falconer hotel, King street and Spadina avenue. The letter was from Mrs. James Spurr, who came to this country with Revell, and stated that Revell left her £200 invested in the college. After Revell's death she entered into an agreement with Dr. Evans by which fifty pounds were to be taken off for medical and funeral expenses. She was told the balance would be sent her, but the money never reached her, although she wrote many lines. Her husband, whom she left in England, died just the day before Revell, and she is now in destitute circumstances.

Charles Bachelor stated that he had visited both Dr. Evans and Dr. Harvey, and had informed them of Mrs. Spurr's plight, and asked them why they did not answer her letter and pay her what they owed her. They agreed to call a meeting of the shareholders of the college to settle the matter. Shortly after this interview, Evans and Harvey were placed under arrest. More evidence will be taken in two weeks.

SHORTAGES ACCOUNTED FOR.

Report of Auditors to Chosen Friends' Council No. 20.

The regular meeting of Council No. 20 of the Chosen Friends was held on Tuesday evening. Besides the routine business, O. V. Bartells, who was working on a special audit of the books, brought in his report. He reports a discovery of $618.37 of the $906, which had been unaccounted for. Of this all but about $52 had been sent to grand lodge by mistake. The balance of the $906 can be accounted for through loss on suspended members. The $52 is owing the lodge from a couple of members on account of mistakes in their dues. The treasury will now be richly replenished through the discovery of these errors as all the money will be returned to the lodge. Dr. J. H. Bell delivered an address to the lodge on how such mistakes occur.
