Husband's Hair

How About It, Madam, is it Falling Out or Growing Thin?

Don't Lose It.

Most husbands are careless regarding their hair—many are skeptical regarding hair tonics, restorers and the like.

It is only when their hair comes out in combs, full, that they really sit up and take notice.

If your husband's hair is falling; if he makes a baldhead of him, get a 50 cent bottle of PARISIAN SAGE to rub it on his hair every night until dandruff goes, hairs stops falling and the new growth appears.

Then use it every other night until the hair is thick and abundant. PARISIAN SAGE is a delightful, refreshing hair dressing for men and children. It will do as advertised, or your money back. Get with Auburn hair on every carton and bottle. Sold by J. B. McLeod and dealers everywhere.

working on the C.P.R. Miss Hattie Bell is somewhat better. Mrs. E. D. Grant spent Monday last in Kingston. James Kennedy, son of Michael Kennedy, is home for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Irvine Loucks and Miss Libbie Wagar spent Easter Sunday with Evelyn Wagar. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson spent a few days with Mrs. John Wagar, Fenelon Falls. Mr. and Mrs. E. Card, Marlbank, spent Easter here visiting their parents. Hamilton Wagar has returned home after an extended tour through Uncle Sam's domains.

Farewells to Rev. Mr. Wright.

Concecon, April 8.—A successful bazaar and concert was given in the Masonic hall last night by the ladies of Trinity church guild. At the conclusion of the play the retiring rector and Mrs. Wright were presented by the congregation with a very handsome mahogany server strapped with sterling silver trimmings. The congregation will banquet Rev. Mr. Wright on Wednesday in the village hall. The congregation of St. John's, Carrying Place, are serving a large dinner at twelve o'clock noon in their hall as a farewell to their clergyman on Friday. The secretary of the A.F. & A.M. has issued invitations to the brethren to meet in the lodge room on the evening of the 12th to bid farewell to their late chaplain. Rev. Mr. Wright expects to move about the middle of the month to his new parish of Lyn.

Budget From Bongard.

Bongard's, April 8.—The Waupoos cheese factory will begin work Monday, April 13th. Mrs. D. T. McCormick, entertained a number of her friends, Tuesday evening. A. Pierce has been visiting at South Bay and Milford. Mrs. S. C. Tobey spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Hobson at Seaman. R. Harrison is building an addition to his home, which will add much to its appearance. James Braden is improving his home with a fresh coat of paint. D. Miller, wife and daughter spent a day at D. P. McCormick's. Several from here attended a surprise party at A. Kerr's Waupoos Wednesday evening. All report a pleasant time. Mr. and Mrs. C. Storms, Glenora, spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Pringle. Miss Edna Pierce, of the high school staff, Gravenhurst, is spending the holidays at her home here. Little Vince Eaton, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is somewhat better. Mrs. Robert Bongard and daughter, Rosie, spent a week in town recently. Mrs. P. Thurston and two children, who spent the winter in Toronto, have returned home. Arthur Hart is spending the holidays at his home at Oates. Mrs. O. N. Hicks entertained a number of her friends to tea on Monday evening. Miss L. Rose, teacher, is spending the holidays at her home at Waupoos. Master Walter Handley is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bradley. Ernest Hawker has returned, after spending the winter at Lindsdale. C. Jamieson and sister, of Marlbank, were at D. McCormick's Easter Sunday. Owing to the storm on Sunday there was no service at Bongard's church. A very interesting debate was held at the Epworth League, Friday evening last, the subject being, "Resolved, that city life has more advantages than country life." Some very strong points were brought out on both sides, but the negative won by seventeen per cent. T. D. Bongard is making maple syrup.

Tidings From Parham.

Parham, April 9.—Special services were held in the M. E. church on Easter Sunday. The choir rendered appropriate music, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Stewart, of Wolfe Island, who was renewing old acquaintances here. Much excitement prevails concerning the construction work on the new branch of the C.P.R. W. D. Black, M.P.P., who spent Easter at home, returned to Toronto on Monday.

The members of the Ladies' Aid held a most successful meeting at the home of Mrs. (Dr.) Hopping, on Easter Monday to bid farewell to their worthy secretary, Miss Lillian Killins, a prominent young lady of the village, who has accepted a position as teacher in Saskatchewan. She leaves on Wednesday.

Several ladies of the village entertained, during the week in honor of Easter visitors. Mrs. A. C. Wagar, who has been ill, is slowly recovering. Mr. and Mrs. L. Latemer, of Belleville, have rented the home lately occupied by Mr. and Mrs. John Wagar. Mr. and Mrs. Howard, Montreal, have taken up their abode in the house once vacated by the late George Lake. Several engineers of the proposed railway are residing in the village.

John Wagar has improved his residence by the addition of a veranda. Visitors: George H. Goodfellow, of Temagami, is spending the holidays at home; Miss Mildred Godfrey at W. D. Black's; Mrs. A. W. Stewart and Master Ferguson at G. W. Killins; Miss Cannon and Miss McVeety, of Peterborough; Miss Florence Allison, Wolfe Island, at Dr. Topping's; Dr. and Mrs. George, Miss Edna and Earle Beutrum spent Sunday at W. D. Black's; Miss Mabel Killins at home; Messrs. Stanley Ball and Gordon Smith, of Queensboro, have returned; Miss Lena Lowery at her home; Mrs. F. A. Goodfellow, visiting her parents at Godfrey; Mrs. W. D. Black, Miss Lillian and Master Keith at Mrs. C. D. Godfrey's; Misses Myrtle Smith and Lena Lowery, spending a few days in Kingston; Messrs. Reginald Adair and Herbert Hamilton, visiting George Howes, Sr.; M. Vanjuven is spending the holidays at Battersby. The sale of the Lake property, which took place on Saturday last, was a decided success.

A SUICIDE'S GRAVE.

Murderer of Mrs. H. Marshall De nied Burial in Consecrated Ground.

Baltimore, April 10.—Denied the full rights of the Roman Catholic church because of his crime, the body of Joseph Rosasco, murderer and suicide, was interred in unconsecrated ground in Mount Olivet cemetery. Although the funeral was held at an early hour, a large crowd gathered before the undertaker's chapel to witness the final act in the tragedy which cost two lives. Rosasco shot and killed Mrs. Helen Marshall, a young Brantford woman, on the street here last Thursday night, afterwards blowing out his own brains.

CIGARETTES

The tobacco used in MOGUL Egyptian Cigarettes gets as much attention as is given to a delicate infant.

Every leaf, no matter how slightly injured, has to be removed.

Then the leaves are carefully watched until they acquire a yellowish tint and begin to droop.

When this takes place they are gathered.

These precautions are absolutely necessary, otherwise the tobacco would not be acceptable for MOGUL Cigarettes.

MOGULS are put up with cork tips in boxes of 10, for 15c.

Try a box to-day.

Quality and Price

D &amp; A Corsets

are popular simply because you can buy for a given price a better fitting and wearing D & A than if you bought any other kind.

A perfectly equipped store in Canada, thus saving all customs charges, and an immense output, are real reasons why.

D & A No. $40, shown in cut, is known as a "Marmola Belt," specially designed for the rather stout. It has a reinforced spoon front, duplex steel bones, stopped top and bottom, six extra wide suspenders, etc., etc., and is sold at first-class stores at only $2.00. Imported corsets of even quality would cost about $3.00.

Every D & A is guaranteed.
