BORDEN AXE AGAIN

J. F. KNAPP, IMMIGRATION AGENT, RELIEVED OF DUTIES.

Has Received Notice That His Services Will no Longer be Required—County Magistrate George Hunter Appointed in His Place.

Again the Borden axe has fallen. James F. Knapp, Johnson street, government immigration agent, for several years, has been given notice that his services will no longer be required. And all because Mr. Knapp is a liberal.

County Magistrate George Hunter has been appointed to take Mr. Knapp's position, and will take over the work in a very short time.

Since taking over the position, Mr. Knapp has dealt with a large number of immigrants, and succeeded in placing many men on farms.

Last week, and the week before, several men arrived in the city, and were placed in positions. There is plenty of work for men these days, and no man need be idle. If you see a man idle it is because he is not very fond of work, or because he does not have to work.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

What Happened a Quarter of a Century Ago.

Fire at the general hospital; considerable damage done. Police dilatory in answering telephone; when they did gave wrong number of fire box. Fire horses out on corporation work. Many complaints. Telephones ordered to be put in the fire stations.

Annual meeting of St. Andrew's congregation. J. Minnes, W. Irving, A. Ross and W. G. Craig re-elected managers. Membership 338. Receipts for the year $3,600. Expenditure $4,000. The building of a new church under consideration.

Members of the Glee Club of Queen's organized a voca-phone band.

MINISTERS IN COURT.

One Pleaded to Have Men Go on the "Prohibited List."

Two city ministers, found their way ty the police court, Saturday morning. They had interested themselves in a couple of cases, before the magistrate.

A man, well up in years, was arrested for drunkenness, and after he was fined, one of the ministers made an appeal for the poor unfortunate to go on the "prohibited list."

"He is a hard working man, and a good workman, too," added the ministers, "and it is too bad to see him go on this way."

The accused would not consent to put himself on the list, simply saying that he would think the matter over, and as this was the way he felt about it, the magistrate did not press the matter, stating there would be no use in putting a man on the list if he did not show any inclination to go on, and make an effort to do what was right. Previous to this case, a man up for drunkenness, had asked for a chance to go on the list, and was given the chance.

Queen's Examination Results.

Complete results of the examinations will be published in the Whig as soon as they are posted. Students who leave name and address at this office can have the paper mailed them without delay. Price, including postage, three cents a copy.
