Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores, and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis, where the eczema germs are lodged.

Other remedies for skin troubles have been sold, but none that can be recommended as highly as this. D.D.D. stops the itch at once.

Ask your druggist, who is posted, and he will tell you that D.D.D. Prescription is just a mild, harmless compound, externally not internally used, and safe even for the tenderest skin. So if it can't harm you and may cure at once, why any sufferer fail to try the remedy today?

Ask your druggist or send for a free trial bottle to the D.D.D. laboratories, Dept. K.W.W., 49 Colburn street, Toronto.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well-known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

AT THE GRAND.

"The New Boy" Will be the Pleasing Feature.

C. James Bancroft will be the attraction at the Grand to-night, in Arthur Law's famous farce, "The New Boy." Mr. Bancroft has just made a successful trip to the Pacific coast with "The Private Secretary," and his return to the theatregoers that love good clean comedy, in Archibald Bennick in the New Boy, Mr. Bancroft has one of the best parts that he has ever played and the press in the cities where he has produced "The New Boy," claim it an equal to "The Private Secretary." Mr. Bancroft writes himself on always having a clean show and those that have seen him will vouch for that and whenever you see the name of C. James Bancroft on the bill boards or in the newspapers you can always depend on getting a first-class performance and a good, clean attraction.

"Mutt and Jeff." "One good laugh deserves another." You just simply can't laugh "Mutt & Jeff" over in one night. See it again and catch what you missed the other time. Those two funny fellows never do the same thing twice the same way. Galas of laughter are sweeping over capacity audiences everywhere. An avalanche of delight has caught the town, be in the swim and see "Mutt & Jeff" on Saturday, April 27th, matinee and night.

MR. SPALDING COMING.

What a Boston Paper Says of His Work.

ALBERT SPALDING, Boston Globe.

The Theodore Thomas Orchestra gave a concert at Symphony hall last night. Albert Spalding, soloist, played the Elgar concerto. Mr. Spalding gave significance to many a page of the work which inherently it does not possess. He passed unscathed through the technical difficulties. The young soloist played with an admirable breadth and beauty of tone in cantabile, with fine authority and fire and bravura, and with brilliance in the many florid passages. His style was thoughtful, yet spontaneous, his bearing one of simplicity and dignity of manner.

Mr. Spalding will give a concert in the City Hall, Kingston, on Friday, May 3rd.
