Housework Will Not Spoil Your Hands

if you "Vaseline" them regularly. That is a simple little secret thousands of women who do their own housework have been glad to learn.

A little "Vaseline" rubbed into the hands night and morning prevents redness and roughness and keeps the skin smooth and soft and delicate.

Vaseline

Find the best thing you can find for cracked lips, windburn and all the other irritations of the skin that come with cold weather is VASELINE CAMPHOR ICE.

—Here is another little "tip" for the busy housewife.

When your feet ache at the end of a long day, rub in "Vaseline." You hardly will believe the feeling of comfort it brings.

The "Vaseline" specialties are the purest toilet preparations, the simplest and safest home remedies, to be found anywhere. They should be in the medicine chest of every home.

Ask your druggist to show you his line. Put up in bottles, or in handy, aseptic tin tubes. Be sure and accept no substitute for "Vaseline."

You will find one free "Vaseline" booklet full of interesting facts that will be of interest and value to you. For free booklet request. Send a postpaid your reply today.

The Vogue of the
BUTTONED BOOT

Whether or not a revolution in dress is imminent and narrow classical draperies are about to be replaced by crinolines and looped up Holly Varden effects—as some maintain—the revolution in footwear styles is unmistakable.

High footed boots are now the correct thing for street wear, and even with dancing and dinner frocks women who make a point of dressing according to the most advanced fashion ideas are wearing high buttoned boots of satin and suede in preference to low-cut slippers. This vogue of the buttoned boot is so pronounced that even some spring bridal costumes have been accompanied by boots of white satin dainty boots pair, but the ordinary black and white satin boot is carried in stock by most high-grade dealers at from ten to twelve dollars. Some of these black satin boots have crystal buttons which give a diamante effect as the foot is moved, and there are even boots with rhinestones set in the heels.

In life with this gaiter of foot-wear is the fact for wearing stockings of fresh-colored silk which give the somewhat startling effect of no stocking at all above the top of the buttoned boot. This effect is especially striking when dainty boots of tan kid with pale tan kid tops accompany the fresh-colored hosiery.

With black boots many women prefer to wear white silk stockings, or those in a pale champagne tint, but the flesh-colored hose are really the favorites. Black stockings are rarely worn by the fashionably dressed woman now except with black satin slippers accompanying all-black costumes.

White lingerie and tailored serge or mohair costumes this summer will be accompanied by high buttoned boots of snowy buckskin with welled soles and moderately high heels in the straight Cuban style. These boots are much smarter than the canvas styles which are rather out of fashion this season. The buckskin boot can be cleaned as easily as the canvas one and has a much more distinguished look on the foot.

With street costumes of dark material the buttoned boot reigns as a having thin soles and tall French heels and the touch of head embroidery on a pointed toe which has a special bridal suggestion.

For dancing frocks there are delicate satin boots as dainty as the daintiest slippers and having, of course, the high French heel and very thin soles. These are "pique" weight sole," as these very thin, soft soles used to be called, though of course leather and not paper is the material used for shoeing my lady's foot. The buttoned tops of these boots are exquisitely fitted to instep and ankle, and the buttons are set close

WONDERFUL WATCH.

Tells All One May Care to Know About Subjects.

How would you like to carry around a watch like this?

It can do everything but carry on a conversation. It took four years to put it together. Here are some of the things it can do:

It strikes the hour and the quarters and the minutes.

You can wake up at midnight and find when you are going to be able to hold over your left shoulder at the new moon.

It shows the equation of time, the sunrise and the moonrise, as well as moonset and sundown.

It shows the phases and the age of the moon at any time in the month. You can wake up at midnight and find when you are going to be able to hold over your left shoulder at the new moon.

By looking at this remarkable watch you can see just how high and when the tides are rising at Malagordon Bay.

You can look at it and see just what the day of the week happens to be. The same will hold good for the day of the month.

If you are an astronomer and are crazy about the stars, this same wonderful watch can tell you where to look for them. It has the various constellations on one of its numerous dials, so that in case you want to get out and take a peep at the Pleiades, Auriga, Cygnus, Orion or any of the rest of the star clusters you will find their positions all set down upon your watch face.

This watch has four dials. The little one gives you the everyday time, the kind you get up and breakfast and go to work by. The others are the wonderful ones. To the smallest dial is attached a frame through which is shown, on the big dial, the constellations passing over an imaginary meridian.

Right under this one there is still another that manages to turn all the way round once in every twenty-four hours, fifty minutes and twenty-eight seconds. By looking at this one you can tell whether the water would be high or low in your neighborhood if there is an ocean there. It is the dial, too, that keeps you posted on the doings of the moon.

There is a third dial that turns once in every twenty-four hours. It is divided into twenty-one and a half equal parts, and every one of these parts is supposed to represent a moon day.

The fourth dial, on the reverse side of the watch, is the real astronomical authority. It turns all the way round 1,160 times in 1,160 days. This is keeping step with the exact rotation of the earth. This dial carries all the astronomical signs, the zodiac, the constellations and the declination of the sun north and south.

The watch was built by an English watchmaker. It is looked upon as the latest and greatest piece of horological craftsmanship that has ever been put together.—St. Louis Republic.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

An Ideal Mother and Has Many Accomplishments.

The Queen of Spain, who has made herself very popular with the Spanish people by influencing King Alfonso to grant clemency to the revolutionist Chato, is only twenty-four years old. She has four living children and has lost one.

She herself was born in 1887, the first jubilee year of the late Queen Victoria. She was the first royal child born in Scotland since the birth of King Charles I. in 1600. Like all members of the English royal family, the young Princess Ena received a broad education and has many accomplishments.

From her mother she inherited a love of music. She herself sings and plays well. She is fond of the drama; and as a child, says a writer in the London Queen, she became a clever and competent little actress. With happy recollections of her own childhood, Queen Victoria is an ideal mother and intensely fond of children. She also takes a keen interest in the children of the poor, and not long ago presented a handsome sum to a crèche that had been opened at Seville.

Queen Victoria has kept up her love of outdoor life. Her stable is one of her chief delights. She owns many fine English horses, and often has a favorite mount brought out to her in

Unightly Skin Diseases

Disfiguring skin diseases always seem to appear on the face and hands, so that they cause a feeling of shame, as well as pain and suffering.

Internal treatments have never proven very satisfactory in the treatment of eczema and similar skin troubles, but when Dr. Chase's Ointment is applied you can see for yourself and feel for yourself the benefits which are being obtained. It soothes the inflamed, irritated skin so that itching ceases, and by its extraordinary healing power causes a new, smooth skin to form where the sores have been.

In every home there are many cases of Dr. Chase's Ointment, as for pimples and blackheads, barber's itch, chafing, erysipelas, chilblains and wherever there is itching skin or a sore or ulcer that refuses to heal. This ointment is pure, clean and pleasant to use and may be applied to the most delicate skin.

If bugs, beetles or roaches get in your cupboards you can quickly get rid of them by placing food on an old plate with a little Comfort Lye spread all around it. Going through the Comfort Lye to get the food kills them. To drive away rats or mice just sprinkle some Comfort Lye around the holes or wherever they come, and they won't bother you any more. Comfort Lye is perfectly pure, powdered, perfumed—prepared especially for many household uses. Be sure you get the genuine.

$3.50 Recipe Free For Weak Men

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, falling memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the filth of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope, to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the most-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow men to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop dragging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the greatest-acting restorative, and so cure himself at home quickly and cheaply. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 1322 L. St. Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $2.00 to $5.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it postage free.
