

A CALL FOR SERVICE DIED FROM OPERATION

STANLEY CADENHEAD SU-CUMBERD AT ROCHESTER, MINN.

Who Preached Baccalaureate Sermon at Queen's University—Many Opportunities Presented to Students on Leaving College.

Rev. Dr. Herridge, of Ottawa, preached the baccalaureate sermon at Queen's university, on Sunday afternoon.

Bishop Wherry, of Toronto, and Bishop Mills, of Kingston, occupied seats on the platform.

Rev. Dr. Herridge preached a forceful sermon, having his remarks upon the text, Mark vi. 47.

The speaker referred to the work of Christ, and His challenge to the people to be like Him.

The many opportunities for service, for the students going out from the university, were pointed out.

The student was in an excellent position to be of service in the world, having devoted much time in preparation.

Use your gifts for service, added the speaker.

Your knowledge in arts, science and religion, should be used for the world's progress.

There are opportunities as fine as ever given to any nation.

Then, we have our own resources. The best goes to the east, and the east to the west.

Canada should not give up her lessons. We need men honest in business and rich in intellect.

Miss Agnes Kelly, who has been spending the Easter holidays with her aunt, Mrs. Fournie, of Elliot, and her cousins at Perth, returned to Westport on Monday.

West Here for a Critical Operation

Stanley, Cadenhead, aged twenty-four years, who left on Friday, April 12, to undergo an operation at St. Mary's hospital, Rochester, Minnesota, died on Saturday, at 6 p.m., as a result of the shock to his system.

The deceased has suffered for four years with an internal abscess. He had borne his trouble patiently and cheerfully, and when he left for Rochester he fully realized the chances he was taking.

The deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. A. D. Cadenhead, of this city, and one brother, G. Cadenhead, of Newmarket.

The late John Saunders, whose death occurred at his residence, 730 Front Street, on Friday morning, was one of Kingston's old and respected citizens.

For a number of years he was engaged in the retail meat trade, and will be remembered by many in that capacity.

The four-teen years previous to his death were spent as assistant steward at the penitentiary, where his devotion to duty and genial disposition won for him a large circle of friends.

He was a member of lodge 59, I.O.O.F., No. 91, A.O.U.W., for some time.

In religion he was a Presbyterian, a member of Chalmers church. A wife, as many friends are left to mourn one daughter and two sons, as well.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at Catawara cemetery, and the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Macmillan and the Kingston lodge, I.O.O.F.

All women are more or less credulous, and some have faith in their husbands.

It is easier to lead some men to drink than it is to drive them away from it.

Many a woman lets her neighbors affairs worry her more than her own. Don't be a quitter. There is still plenty of room in the hall of fame.

MEETING OF INTERCOLLEGIATE RUGBY UNION

Application of Regiopolis College, Kingston, for Admission to the Junior Series, Was Refused—The Schedule Drawn.

No important changes were effected in the playing rules of the intercollegiate rugby football union at the annual spring meeting held at Ottawa, Saturday afternoon.

The application of Regiopolis college, Kingston, for admission to the junior series, was refused, because of insufficient information as to its football status.

The intermediate series was divided into two sections, eastern and western, instead of three as formerly.

An important amendment to championship rules was made regarding the manner of declaring winners in the eastern intermediate section.

The winners will, in future, be declared in virtue of the games won, and not on points scored as has previously been done.

The suggestion of Queen's university delegate regarding changes in the opening games of the senior schedule in October, was not considered practically, and the following schedule was adopted:

October 5—Queen's at Ottawa; McGill at Toronto.

October 12—Queen's at McGill; Toronto at Ottawa.

October 19—Ottawa at Queen's; Toronto at McGill.

October 26—Queen's at Toronto; McGill at Ottawa.

November 2—McGill at Queen's; Ottawa at Toronto.

November 9—Toronto at Queen's; Ottawa at McGill.

Besides J. Q. Coughlan, of Ottawa College, who presided, the following delegates were in attendance: R. Delagoras and J. Maynard, Toronto; G. Ross and J. Lee, McGill; G. A. Platt, Queen's.

Played Baseball on Saturday. The cricket field was covered all day Saturday with baseballers, from kids just learning to throw and catch, up to the seniors in the city league.

The Ponies, last year's junior athletics, had their first workout. Two teams of the senior league made their appearance.

Nearby all of last year's team of the former are together, Dice and Brooks being "on the job" with a number of likely looking men.

Manager Palmer, of the Athletics, also has some new material.

The Napanee Golf Club has elected these officers—President, Herbert Daly; vice-president, William C. Smith; secretary, G. M. Warner.

Board of governors—R. G. Cartwright, T. B. German, R. A. Leonard, G. P. Reiffenstein, J. W. Robinson, R. G. H. Travers.

AT THE GRAND. "The Spring Maid." The newest of Viennese operettas, with a success of two seasons in New York is the romantic struggle between the princess and her rival.

"The Spring Maid" is considered to be the nearest to a musicalized version of the fascinating old play "The Stoops to Conquer" that the world has known.

"Mutt and Jeff." A. Mutt says that I'm entirely unappreciated, superfluous and irrelevant; he even has the audacity to say that I'm nonchalantly optimistic relative to his social importance.

"The New Boy." The presentation of Arthur Lewis' farce, "The New Boy," at the Grand, on Saturday, matinee and evening, was much appreciated.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY. Newsy Paragraphs Picked Up By Our Reporters.

Fresh Columbia batteries, $1.49 per set of six, J. N. Scott, electrical contractor, 116 Brock street, Phone 1215.

Miss Carrie Waldron sang in Chalmers church, Sunday evening, with marked effect, Arthur Sullivan's composition, "God shall wipe away all tears."

G. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at Mc-Auley's book store.

Mrs. Margaret Dickson and her son, Sidney, left Monday for the west. Mrs. Dickson intends going as far as Chicago, while Sidney will go on to Rouleau, Sask.

Mrs. William Scartton, Markland street, was removed to the general hospital, on Sunday afternoon, in James Reid's ambulance, suffering from appendicitis.

C. H. Cahoon, K.C., Montreal, will speak at a luncheon of the Canadian Club in the city hall to-morrow at noon.

Left With Five Children. A sad sight was witnessed at the police station, Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Thomas Storms and her five children called to hear the sad news about the sentence imposed upon husband and father, for theft.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills also did me a lot of good. You may publish this if you wish, for many people already know what great good Dr. Chase's medicine have done me.

BARGE DAVIE IN PORT

WAS SUNK NEAR ALEXANDRIA BAY LAST SUMMER. Will be Placed in Dry Dock in About Three Weeks Time—Towed Here Sunday Night by Steamer Hinchley—Marine Notes of Interest.

The barge George T. Davie, of the Montreal Transportation company, which went aground and was sunk near Alexandria Bay last summer, was towed to Kingston on Sunday night, by the steamer Hinchley, and will go on the drydock for repairs in three weeks' time.

The Davie was raised late in the fall, but had to be left until the opening of navigation.

The Davie was raised late in the fall, but had to be left until the opening of navigation. She will have to undergo extensive repairs, but it is the opinion of marine men that she stood the winter remarkably well.

The steamer Hinchley also brought into port the barge Jessie, and the schooner Bertha Kalkins, which were taken down the river to assist in releasing the vessel.

It is expected that the steamer Advance will leave Kingston on Tuesday night, for Toronto and Hamilton.

The steamer Ida E., formerly owned by Capt. Grant Home, and which has been purchased by a company, to be used in the coal-carrying trade, arrived in port from Collins Bay, where the vessel was laid up during the winter.

Capt. Israel Dove, of Montreal, has arrived in port to take charge of the barge Dumore.

Capt. Peter Lalonde, of Valleyfield, Que., has taken over the barge Augusta for the season.

Capt. James Beach has arrived from Nottawa, and is in command of the tug Bartlett.

WEDDING AT CAMPELLFORD. Miss Catherine Murphy the Bride of P. J. Fallon, Kingston.

St. Mary's Roman Catholic church Campbelloff, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday morning, April 17th, when Miss Catherine Murphy was quietly married to P. J. Fallon, of Kingston.

The church was nicely decorated with carnations and primroses. At the appointed hour the bride, who looked charming in a travelling suit of Copenhagen blue, with rose trimmings and hat to match, entered the church with her brother, Frank E. Murphy, of Edmonton, Alta., to the strains of the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

Miss Louise Murphy was her only attendant, and wore a suit of russet cloth with Panama hat. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Whibbs, who said the nuptial mass.

The music for the occasion was rendered by the entire choir, under the direction of Miss Helen Murphy, sister of the bride. During the mass the "Ave Marie" and the "Angels' Serenade" were beautifully sung by individual members of the choir.

Most of the bride and groom's friends filled the church, testifying to her popularity. Among the many who sent their heartiest congratulations were Bishop Fallon, of London, and Rev. James Fallon, of Ottawa University.

A reception was held at the ceremony, and the happy couple left for the east with the sincere wishes of their many friends. After the honeymoon they will reside in Kingston.

W. H. Scott, of the Prudential Insurance company, leaves in a few days for Petrobor, where he has accepted a position with the Metropolitan Co.

In Fear of Consumption To be entirely cured of a cold which threatened to become consumption naturally makes one think well of the treatment which helped to effect the cure. In a letter just received from Mrs. Edson Brock, Tremholm, Que., she writes: "I wish to tell you that I have used Dr. Chase's medicine with great success. I took a very bad cold and could not get rid of the cough. I felt so bad that I really thought I was going into consumption. I got well by using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills also did me a lot of good. You may publish this if you wish, for many people already know what great good Dr. Chase's medicine have done me."
