Penitentiary.

Old Rule of Keeping Guard at Cor- arms during their flight. Had they graph cally shown on a slowly mov- station, and only relatives of the surridor Door Would Have Prevented been armed, they would surely have ing chart. Escape-Guard Rutherford Had a not hesitated to use the deadly weathe world to keep desperadoes was ed at Guard Ruther, of his hand, he evidenced on Monday by the escape of his head, instead of his hand, he major Butt had NO of the four westerners that the prison here would not hold them long would be fulfilled so soon. However, the court of general sessions in June. have done a service to the penitentiary for they have shown those in charge that there must be something wrong with the system when five men can pass through the prison gates broad daylight and, poorly disguised as guards, make their way to a short-lived liberty. mer system of guard-posting was car- told them that she had no revolver or ried out the convicts could not have rifle in the house, and they seemed got away. It would have been impos- very much disappointed. A neighbor sible for them to have made their way across the street, noticed the men, and for his death?" out of the isolation building at all, rushing out of her home she asked for the reason that the door leading who had made an escape. from the entrance corridor to the cell, "Four desperate men." said one of corridor would have been locked and the desperadoes. "We are alraid to guarded by an officer on the outside, | tackle them unless we have have while the other guard went into the gun, and would like to get one as soon had been sent as a special envoy to esteemed. Some time ago failing eye and his body dragged to the woods. One hundred and ninety bodies were cell corridor to attend to duties. The as possible. The women said that the Pope of Rome, conveying an ex- sight prevented him from going about Porter, it is alleged, was very un on board the cable ship Mackay-Benlatter might be knocked down if con- they were sorry, but they could not pression of appreciation on the ap- much, and this was gradually followed popular in the district, reports having nett when she made port, to-day. Of er carried out, whether through care defend themselves. Had they been rules is not known. This will come out at the investigation.

The officers of the prison have not yet gotten over the daring deed of the five desperadoes. It simply astounded them. Guard Rutherford was the first to give the alarm. He was found reel- prison as possible, while in their man ing against the north gate. His head chase, they found time for a little huwas bloody, and his hand was fright | mot. fully bruised. He said that when the A couple of young men, who were the warden's grounds. Guard Ruther- joyed in my life." ford's assistant, George Doyle, was It is wonderful what interest is taken Aust be Arranged in New Territor- condition is quite normal.

Attack on the Guards.

isolation building must have occurred they had the most exciting time to about ten o'clock. Evidently as soon | their life. One little chap, perhaps as McNeil was let out of his cell to six years of gge, rushed into the warclean the corridor, he rushed at Guard dens office, in the midst of the excite-Davis, and felled him with an iron ment, and told of seeing a man hiding bar. The same treatment was accord- behind some bushes. He was so excited Keeper Madden, who was in the ed he could hardly speak. In a secbuilding. When these two officers had ond, four guards with rifles, were sent been disposed of by being disrobed, out, and guided to the spot by the officer, whom he supposed was Guard | It was a guard in one of the towers Davis, he bade him good morning. The who sounded the first warning of the next moment he found the door clos-ed, and McNeil informed him what had occurred, and threatened him with gate, and never thought that they were once give up his clothes. The doctor when the leader slugged Guard McCarvict's request, seeing that it would be thy, he saw at once that a clever I May Not useless to attempt to battle with them ruse has been played and that prisonand as he is not a disciplinary officer ers were escaping. Fearing to fire lest Dr. Phelan was locked in the cell he should hit the wrong parties with Guard Davis, and it is thought the man in the tower fired two shots be was placed there so he could give into the air which brought the officers the guard attention, as the prisoners upon the scene. An old "trusty" at realized that he was pretty badly in the gate informed the guards of the

the convicts had got past him, officers and into the warden's grounds was at once rushed to the isolation build- cleverly performed. No one passing the wreck, It will probably be ing to see what had occurred there, would have thought that they were Thursday or Friday before this ves-They found the three officers locked in other than guards and prisoners going |sel gets to Halifax. two cells. Dr. Phelan called for them to perform some duty. to get him some clothing and to as Ross Davis, the guard who received less saving that owing to bad weath national boundary, is now an accom- and fity feet below. Death was in- The gloomy work of transferring the T.

The Recapture.

Then the prison bell was rung, and a search instituted for the fleeing convie's. The man whose foresight was and others on Cataraqui Creek bridge wil s was an accusation brought a the Minia. creek. Guard Hennessy fired two shots visitor to the cemetery saw her pluck- thirteen.

himself up. warden's grounds, they proceeded into men had an armint of flowers and any more than about 200 of the bodies Boston, 1. Washington, 2; New York, Portsmouth. They ran into Assistant shrubs. On the way to the station out of the 1,600, odd who perished. Farm Instructor McCarthy, who tried she said that she could have made will be recovered and handed over to to stop them, but he received a craci, 10s. out of the flowers. on the head for his pains. When the Mr. Roes, and drove into a blind road, for they had to double back to Ports- vail d throughout the humbler or in Southampton, England. Five Prisoners From mouth. Two of them, Brown and one ders of creation at the obscuration After a conference at the Union where he was captured after one o'- ing an edipse.

DAILY MEMORANDA. Francis F. Power's pupils' concert.

clock, while Williams (Bonner) and Mc- Among the researches made by the was named to act as treasurer. where they had to give in. The man world the mast remarkable was the THAT PERMITS CONVICTS TO overcoat and trousers. In one of the next for measuring and recording crowds assembled at the dock to pockets of the latter was a jack knife. the strength and frequeocy of heart greet the returning members of the were unable to secure fire mitting apparates the teats are police guarded the dock and railway And Curtains Must be Drawn After

It is a wonder that a couple of the ! That the provincial penitentiary at guards were not killed by the blows of the heart showed the subjects to were witnessed. Enthusiastic cheers decision was reached by the needs of the heart showed the subjects to were witnessed. Enthusiastic cheers decision was reached by the needs of the heart showed the subjects to were witnessed. Enthusiastic cheers decision was reached by the needs of the city tolling. The week of the city tolling, the Portsmouth is not the safest place in they received. If the second blow aim-the world to keep desperadoes was ed at Guard Rutherford had landed on time of the phenomenon.

murderous assault which the western

Tried to Procure Firearms. That the prisoners made every effort possible to secure firearms, after they got out of the penitentiary, is known. for a fact. A couple of the men called at the home of Mrs. Marks, and posing as guards, asked if she had Old-time guards say that if the for revolver, or a rifle in the house. She ing as guards, and were refused: The On Monday, the prisoners, got away men lost a great deal of time, in an because this rule evidently is no long- effort to secure firearms, in order to able to get their hands upon a revol ver or a rifle, there certainly would have been a desperate fight between the guards and the escaping convicts Although the gang put forth every effort to get as far away from the men approached him he was sure there few yards from the fleeing convicts at were two guards with three prisoners ter they got out heard one of the numand not till they came right up to ber ask the question: "Is this the big holiday, the president gave him a him did he discover his mistake, but prison they talk to much about and number of brief notes of introduction too late. An iron bar descended upon claim to be so hard to get out of?" his head. Blindly he tried to grapple | Then again, when Frank Jones, the with the convicts, and again the bar last man to be caught was being take tained anything more than a formal was raised for a stroke. This time he en back in a rig, driven by one of the introduction. Sincerely yours. put up his hand to ward off the blow, guards, made this remark when land and received a terrible crack. The ed inside the big walls, to the driver: lary to the president." convicts walked through the gate and "Well, . old man, that was a short across the King street roadway into drive, but it was the best I ever en

absent from the gate at the time with by the people in the village of Ports a teamster in the yard. | mouth, when the bell is rung for cs

Yesterday men, women, and children The attack on the guards in the turned out to join in the chase, and jured. Keeper Madden was locked in direction in which the escaped convicts has not been appearance in London at the Hicks learns of thousands of people on the For two hours the work of removhad gone. The march of the despera- transferred to the Mackay-Bennett, theatre (now the Globe) in 1909, in bosy corner of King and Yonge ing the bodies went on with the re-When Guard Rutherford told how does across the King street roadway but is on the steamship Minin, which "The Dashing Little Duke."

All the others are on duty.

Despoiling Graves.

London, April 30.-Collecting flowafter him, and he came back and gave ing flowers and plants from the graves | The Mackay-Bennett has 184 bodies and called the attention of the su- on board, and buried some at sea. When the five convicts reached the perintendent. By that time the wo There seems little hope, therefore, that

> "Ah! I Have Sighed to Rest Me," cupine Lake, convenient to South Pr- "Rustle of Spring," "Murmuring Zeph- her son-in-law, Lieut. Col. A. A. Ben- 2.18 and 2.15 o'clock, ers," "Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody," nington, of the township of Augusta. and many others. Dutton's. J. Villeume, a prisoner in the Hull jail escaped on Monday.

FRIGHTENED BY ECLIPSE.

Scientific Theories.

Paris, April 30 .- A report has been New York, April 30 .- American of the Mecum brothers were then re- of the sun's disc, and led scientists to League Club it is announced that a There Were Terrible Scenes as Vessel Church Bells of Halifax Tolled

Neil went on to Cataraqui Creek, Ins Lute's members throughtout the found in the barn had Dr. Phelan's use of the sphygmograph, an instru-It was fortunate that the deperadoes | tests. By means of a detcate trans | Titanie's crew. Strong cordons of e'ras, tagirs and other animals, and men.

MISSION TO THE POPE

President Taft Clears Up a Rumor Concerning His Late Military Aide

Baltimore, Md., April 30 .- A letter rom President Taft was read to a arge congregation Sunday night by the Rev. Dr. Henry A. Griesemer, a distinguished local minister, in connection with his sermon on "Major Archibald Butt, who was responsible ubject, Dr. Griesemer said : .. American Catholic vote. The persis- kind and indulgent father. The fun- his residence on Thursday night. Por- his pocket, according to members of "My Dear Dr. Grisemer,-The presi was largely attended. dent directs me to acknowledge receipt A. E. Meggs, who for a number of of your letter of the 22nd inst., and years held the position of landing to personages whom he knew. None of Condition. Reported Normal. But the letters given to Major Butt con-

INDIANS COMPENSATION.

Ottawn, April 30 .- As a preliminary e paid $5 a head, and reserves

ON STEAMER MINIA

Reach Halifax Friday---Number of Bodies finite information has been received it the United States. She has also Toronto, April 30 .- With an awful be buried in Halifax, at the expense sist him in getting Guard Davis to the worst beating in the affair is now er he had been unable to do any plished fact, and warehouses all along it intamous. The man's neck and bodies to a temporary morgue was Jas. Redden & Co. the hospital at once, as he feared he at his home, resting easily, and his sizing for many hours in the way of the Red river are infested. Last night many bones were broken. Employees completed at noon, and the majority attending physicians says he will be searching for bodies. He further in twenty minutes employees of Nich- had been prohibited from using the of relatives claimed bodies and attend- sent the Titanic to the bottom of the all right in the course of a short time, said that : there were no groups of olson & Belin. Bannantyne avenue hoist. tered. He confirmed the finding of to tip. Mr. Hays body, which lends to the responsible for placing Guard Wilson ers from graves to sell on the side I eli f that he sittl has it on board

Songs, 10c.: "Angels' Serenade," A hospital is to be erected on Por-

A FUND FOR WIDOW.

Experiments Made in France Prove Testimonial Committee, Including J. P. Morgan, Jr., Gets Busy.

ssued of a series of extraordinary friends of Capt. Edward J. Smith, experiments made during the recent late commander of the Titanic, prosoler eclirse by the Institute of Ani pose to arrange for some testimonial mal Psychology. This shows that a to his bravery, and to create a fund they lost their chance of getting away, state of profound consternation pre for his widow and daughter, who live captured. The other three deserted telieve that animals are able to dis committee of arrangements, including the horse and rig, and took to the singuish the ultra-violet rays of the J. P. Morgan, Jr., Charles Lanier, Constantinople, April 30.-Turkish bush around the Straubenzee place, spectrum, which are invisible to the and a number of other well-known mail steamer. Texas was sunk, to-

-Survivors Thanksgiving.

Southampton, April 30,-Great sel went down. vivors were admitted to the platform, seen. Most of them were too excited in a bar has been evidence of a sale. to give any connected account of their experiences.

Heart-rending scenes occurred when women, whose husbands were drowned to whether they had seen their loved ones at the final moment. As a contrast there were joyous meetings of | 1221 husbands and wives,

An open air service in celebration of the home-coming was attended by a large military and naval contingent and 50,000 civilians.

JOHN MCNINCH DEAD.

ral Break-Up.

Gananoque, April 30 .- At his resi dence in Leeds township, a short dis-As a reason for preaching upon this tance west of the town, John Me-Ninch, one of the pioneers of this sec-"There has been a persistent re- tion, passed peacefully away on Sunlow Bank cemetery, and was conduct | An inquest will be beld. The president's reply, which was ed by his brethren of Leeds lodge, No. read from the pulpit last night, fol | 201, A.F. & A.M., of which he was for many years a member. The funeral

THE POPE'S HEALTH.

Strength Conserved

Rome, April 30.-The pope, yesterhis strength. This method probably will continue throughout the hot season. It is announced that the pope's France's Navy Under New Law.

Paris, April 30 .- The new navy law to full title in the extended territory just promulgated fixes the strength of of Manitoba, Ontario and Quebec, it the French navy at twenty-eight ships will be necessary to extinguish the of the line, ten "scout" cruisers, fifty Indian rights to the land. In the two destroyers, ten foreign service case of Manitoba this has stready ships, ninety-four submarines, four been largely done but the Indians of mine vessels and various auxiliary Onterio and Quebec have yet to be ships. Battleships laid down before treated with, It will be necessary to 1906 are to be struck off the list after compensate them. The Inclans will twenty-five years' service, and ships set laid down later than that date after apart equal to one square mile for twenty years' service. In the case of least three-fifths of the gunnery and reacifitie, at St. Michael's hospital. engineering staffs.

Famous Jockey and Wife. London, April 30 .- The wife of Tod Sloan, the famous jockey, who introduced the American style of rid-Until ing into Great Britain, and to whom Off the English Jockey Club eventually refused a fleense, has thed a petition for divorce. Mrs. Sloan was, before her marriage, Miss Julia Sanderson, Halifax, April 30.-Although no de jone of the most popular actresses in now seems certain that the body of been seen in England, making her first shife's, which struck terror into the of the sailors.

Rats Infest Winnipeg.

bottes, but that such as had al- cast, killed twelve with sticks, the bigready been recovered were widely scat- gest measuring fifteen inches from tip

Have Filed Suit.

should receive a medal, whoever he is, gainst a flower selfer at the Lambeth This morning he wired that he had ral government, to-day, filed a suit in Washington to commemorate the for that act resulted in the capture of rolice court, I ondon. Lizzie Smith, resumed searching operations, but in the United States district court, men who went down with the ship McNeil and Williams (Bonner). The forty-five, was fined 40s., or one that there appeared to be little hope charging the International Harvester A committee of 100 women from all bridge, but the latter jumped into the shrubs from Nunhead cemetery. A had been able to pick up so far was lowing a report of a special committee of month, for steading the states has been named, and no had been able to pick up so far was lowing a report of a special committee of month.

Baseball on Monday.

ed owing to rain.

COLLIDED WITH MINE,

The other Mecum hid in the barn, human eye and which are cut off dur- men, had been appointed. William A day; with one hundred and eighty Nash, of the Corn Exchange bank, persons aboard, after a collision with a mine set by the Turkish military e-gineers in the Gulf of Smyrnn There were terrible scenes as the ves-

BARS MUST BE LIGHTED.

Business Hears.

Sphymographs were applied to where the mayor of Southampton and the bars of St. Catharine's hotels Close Call When He Was so pour if shooting would gain their lib horses, dogs, monkeys, badgers, tions, White Star officials welcomed the most not only have curtains open after in e ery case the agitated condition Many affecting scenes of rennion lights must be burning therein. This popular in Lutterworth

Lindsay, Ont., April 20 .- A trapper L. D. Porter, Pho resides in Lutterworth township, near Minden, left his are fortunately rare. He Passed Away on Sunday-Gene- home on Thursday to go to his traps. As he did not return to his home, his wife became alarmed and a party was organized to search for him. On Satarday, at noon his lifeless body was tency of this story led me to write eral took place, this afternoon, to Wil- ter leaves a widow and five children. the crew.

REPORTED AGAINST.

kind. The sole purpose of his trip to that the lighthouses of this section them self-government before they are was still in doubt. Capt. Lardner the Mediterranean was to benefit his will be divided among three this sea- fitted for it," says the minority report could not say positively whether it from the house insular committee on was that of Mr. Widener or his valet. the Philippine independence resolution, Members of the crew, talking over reported from the committee last week. the side, said that everybody picked i Representative Olmstead of Pennsylva- was no bullet holes in any. nia and signed by seven republican | Many uncoffined dead on the for-(Signed)—Charles D. Hillis, secre day, conducted his audiences seated in that wild tribes of the islands, As the undertakers came aboard, it many of whom are of different religion was decided to take these bodies first. and origin from the Filipinos, would instantly return to a state of war rather than acknowledge the supremacy | The White Star line officials had

of the Filipinos. Walked Dry Shod Over Niagara.

cause of the two, falls going dry. Resting Easier.

Toronto, April 30 .- At two o'clock swiftly. bound and gagged, Dr. Phelan entered Iad. When they arrived, the convict about 3,000 Indians in Ontario and are to be kept at full complement, and way commission, was reported restthe reduced crews are to include at ing easily, after an operation for ap-

WITH AWFUL SHRIEK

Toronto, and Was Instantly

str.ets, at 8.20 o'clock this morn gularity of clock work. The waggons ing, John Cockle, a carpenter, aged gave out, and the hearses of all the forty, fell from the materials hotal undertakers were pressed into ser-Winnipeg, April 30 .- The invasion from the tenth storzy of the Cana- vice, of Winnipeg by rats, which have come cin Pacific cloud scraper, being built Monument to Litanic Heroes.

Washington, Apr. 1 30 .- Mrs. Wil fram H. Tatt has given the first, doi: ler to a woman's Titanic memorial, St. Paul, Minn., April 30,-The fede- which it is proposed shall be esected ant of new particulars gathered by rents were visible from quie a dismen. Mrs. John Hay, Mrs. John the bodies of a number of women and ocean to flood her compartments. The Hays Hammond and others are in- a few sailors. It was evalent that the berg bore every indication of having

Beath of Mrs. Heck:

Classical piano music, 10c. copy : in America, died at the residence of ets of passengers all stopped between three acre farm adjoining the B. of Q. cupine and Golden City.

A strike is one at the Temiskaming "Chopin's Nocturnes," "Besthoven's aged eighty-seven years. There are two mine, Cobalt, owing to the dismissal Sonatas," and 10,000 others. Dut- surviving daughters: Mrs. (Dr.) Cow- The Mackay-Bennett eighted the furnishing fixtures. H. W. Newman

MET THE CABLE SHIP BENNETT-MACKAY.

There Were 306 Bodies Recovered, of Which 116 Were Buried at Sea -The Mackay-Bennett Brought 190 Bodies-Remainder are on church hells of the city tolling, the cable ship Mackay-Bennett steamed into the harbor, to-day, carrying the remains of the dead found floating on the seas, following the Titanic disaster, two weeks ago Sunday. The city is entirely in mourning, and the presence of relatives and friends of the dead made everybody feel sympathetic kinship in the disaster. None but mourners were allowed on the government gun dock' where the bodies were landed, and seldom was !! such a sombre, black-robed crowd ever gathered together in a Canadian port, where such scenes as the present

Number of Bodies:

Capt. Lardner reported on landing that the bodies of 306 victims of the | Kugs Titanic disaster were picked up at found in the woods about three miles sea. One hundred and sixteen bodies south-cast of Minden with two bullet were buried at sea. These bodies were port throughout the city and also the day, in the seventy seventh year of his boles in it. Rumor has it that found to be in such condition as to country to the effect that Major Butt age. He was well known and highly be was shot while walking on the road preclude their being brought to port. pointment of the American cardinals. by a break-up of what had been a it that he had made several threats, these two were women. The body of would not have the key of the outer | The men made off. At another The real meaning of this report was strong and vigorous constitution. He which had aroused the enmity of the John Jacob Astor, millionaire, was that the president was handing out a leaves a family of grown up sons and people. It is said that a resident name identified by the jewelry he were and sop to the pope in order to secure the daughters to mourn the loss of a ed Ellis heard a shot fired in front of a few cards found in a card case in

Col. Astor's Body.

Richard Roberts, seeking Col. Astor's body, reported after a conference Filipinos Are Ready For Self-Govern- with Commander Lardner of the Mackay Bennett, that he was sure the to say that there is absolutely no waiter here, has been appointed to the be a cowardly shirking of our dity, a that the body identified as that of truth in the report that Major Buth charge of the Spectacle Shoat and Red disgrace to the American people; and George B. Widener, of Philadelphia, went to Rome on a mission of any Horse lighthouses. It is understood an injury to the Filipinos to give was so mutilated that identification

The committee report was filed by up had been in life-belts, and there

Viewing the Dead.

boarded the ship down the harbor, and they superintended the arrangements attendant upon docking. The Niagara Dalls, N.Y., April 30 .- For first body removed was that of a seathe scend time in the memory of man. When the tarpaulin was thrown men realle crossed the American back, more than fifty bodies were dischannel, just above the falls, on the closed. They all lay on their backs, dry river bed. - An ece jams between the simlight beating down into their the inninland and Goat Island, a sightless eyes. Some were in a state mile above the cataract, was the of apparent repose, while the contorted features of others were too horrible to describe. Stretchers came on board and the work of removal was begun

Crew to Bury Baby.

A coffin pulled from a pile on the after deck of the Mackay-Bennett was opened, and Capt. Richard Roberts of the Astor Yacht looked at body it contained. After gazing at it for a moment he turned away, say ing : "It is he." Among the unidentified dead was a tiny figure of a baby girl, apparently about two years old. It was floating on a bit of wreckage. By no means could the little body be identified. The rough crew of the Mackay-Bennett took charge of the body, and it will interred in a local cemetery. sailors of the steamer was the fact tance. From the side of the berg was discovered half submerged, with a which was probably responsible for woman's red sitk underskirt tied to tearing open the side of the giant the end of an oar. Near this boat were liner, and allowing the waters of the sistance which never came; before the

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

Toronto, Ont. April 30th, 10 a.m. --

Wednesday, slightly higher tempera-

A yearly event that now swing into line with Offerings to fit the occasion.

Curtains

AT SPECIALLY LOW PRICES.

See our Specials at 25c and 50c, full 2 1-2 yards long.

See our Leader, $1.08 quality for 75c, 3 yards long.

Conista Curtains

The last word in curtain style for Spring. 1912, at $1.50. $1,75, $2.25, $2.50, $2.75, $3.00 and $3.50, in White, Ecru and Arabian.

Wiltone, Brussels, Tapestry Wool and Union Rugs and Mats, all sizes and at prices that are bound to please.

MATS, $1.25 to $4.50.

ART SQUARES, $4.50 to $43.00.

See our showing and save money while you spend it.

"The Store of Satisfaction."

BORN. NELSON-At Chapleau, Ont. on April 27th, 1912, to Mr. and Mrs W. J. Neison, formerly of Kingston, a

DIED.

THOMPSON-At Pine Grove, Brewer's Mills, on April 26th, 1912. Archibald Thompson, aged 61 years.

Funeral took place Sunday afternoon from his late residence to Ganan-Hill Cemerery. Interment at Sand

ROBERT J. REID, The Leading Undertaker, Phone 577. 280 Princess Street.

JAMES REID The Old Firm of Undertakers, 256 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

GO-CARTS.

A couple dozen of them. Will sell them at a reasonable price. Must be cash. Turk's. 'Phone 795.

Pure and Good

The kind that is made from the sap of the Maple Tree and has the real flavor, ed to their disposition there. For fif ocean, and near it were found the ty or more of the Titanic dead, recov- deck chairs and fittings, and also severed by the Mackay-Bennett, there are eral bodies. Those on board feel posino claimants here, and they will be live that it was the berg that was responsible for the disaster. It-was Probably one of the most import- cracked in several places, and huge that one of the collapsible lifeboats there projected a wedge-shaped blade, skirt had been used to signal for as been shattered by some great impact.

flimsy boat turned them all out strug- The slight trouble of looking for Prockville. Ont., April 30 .- Mrs. gling in the water. How this boat the name "Saluda" on a package of All games in other leagues postpon Katherine Hillyard Heek, widow of was launched and drifted away from ten is well repaid by the satisfaction George Heek, who was a son of Rarits companions unnoticed, will never you have in drinking it.
bara Heck, the founder of Methodism be known. The watches in the pock F. Lawrence has sold his little forty-an, of Napanee, and Mrs. Bennington, giant berg that is supposed to have Fleetric Co., 79 Princess street.