It is alleged that Foster was in partnership with another Chinaman, in a restaurant on Wellington street, who recently left the city hurriedly, when the restaurant was closed and opened again under new management. He was served with a summons to attend division court, and neglected to do so. It was stated, to-day, that all such offenders would be sent to jail.

FRENCH PARTY CAME HERE

And Boarded the Steamer Quinte Queen for Ottawa.

The Quinte Queen, formerly owned by S. J. Collier and company, and which has recently been purchased by a French firm from Ottawa, left Kingston Wednesday morning for Ottawa, where the new owners expect to use her as an excursion boat. The stockholders and their families came from Ottawa to Kingston on Tuesday, to meet the boat and made a very merry party as they left for the trip up the Rideau. The young people of the party had the decks and rigging decorated with flags, and gave the boat quite a gala appearance. Some of those who made the trip on Wednesday morning were A. M. Laframboise, Mr. and Mrs. George Gravelle, B. Archambault, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Marissette, Mr. and Mrs. C. Perron, F. O. Bonneville, and D. G. Granville, all of Ottawa; A. Vaillancour, of Montreal, and Dr. and Mrs. N. Des Rosiers, of Rockland. The company has leased half of Keble Island, near Ottawa, and expect to make an amusement park and summer resort there and run excursions to it from Ottawa and neighboring places.

NO SETTLEMENT REACHED.

In Conference the Striking Plumbers held.
The striking plumbers had a conference, Tuesday afternoon, with some of the bosses, but no agreement was reached, and as a result, the men are still on strike.

It is understood that the bosses made an offer of $2.80 for eight hours, but this was refused by the men. They want $3 per day for eight hours. All the contractors were not represented at the meeting.

Thus, negotiations are practically at a standstill. The plumbing shops have quite a lot of work on hand, and the strike continues much longer, it will be quite a drawback to the trade.

At the inquiry, held in Toronto, into the alleged overpayment of wages and other alleged irregularities, in connection with the repairs to the intake pipe, when the Lesslie Contracting company had control of the work, Capt. William Lesslie, of Kingston, denied that a cook named Parks had told him that he had been overpaid. He told Judge Winchester that no extra time had been charged. They had been doing extra work, and had not been paid for it. Some $1,400 had been spent on equipment, ordered by Mr. Fellows.

CONCERT FOR SPORTS

HELD IN BETHEL HALL ON TUESDAY EVENING.

Proceeds for Recreation Fund—Rev. Mr. Mershon Says City Not Doing its Duty in Providing Playgrounds for Young.

A concert was given, Tuesday evening in the Sunday school room of Bethel church, arranged by thirty young men who are interested in baseball and summer recreations. The profits of the entertainment will be expended in this sport promotion, as well as the money contributed in private subscriptions. The room was filled with an appreciative audience. The following contributed to the programme: Vocalists—Misses Winnie Woolgar, Daisy McNamee, Timmerman, King, Singleton, Hbag and Gertrude Holland; Messrs. Mack, Jones, F. Haffner and Master Len Clark. Accompanists—Misses Wilder, Moxley, Louise, Rogers, Singleton, Bartells and Mrs. Mershon. Recitations by Dr. C. C. Nash and J. Smeaton. The Salvation Army string quartette contributed two selections.

The pastor stated Kingston citizens were not yet doing as well as many cities in providing public play grounds for children, or in donating the use of vacant lots to the poor for gardens, or in providing well graded baseball diamonds for volunteer and organized teams. He held all these things to be worth while in life's play and kindness.

STRANGE CASE

Of Portland Woman—Could Not Even Eat Toast.

Portland, Me.—The remarkable case of Mrs. J. Richard White has attracted much attention as she was in bad health for a long while.

Her husband says: "My wife suffered intense agony from this dreadful sickness, indigestion, and could not even eat a piece of toast without suffering. Five doctors, here, failed to help her.

"While in Fall River, I met a gentleman who spoke highly of Vinol, so I got her a bottle and before it was one-third gone she was a vast changed. "She has just finished the first bottle and is feeling and looking better than ever before. It is certainly making her eat. Instead of eating one meal every three or four days she eats three or four times a day. "She has gained nine pounds already, and has improved 100 per cent."

"We guarantee that Vinol will build you up, sharpen your appetite and give you new strength if you are weak and rundown. If it does not we pay back your money. Mahood's Drug Store, Kingston, Ont.

A PIONEER OF FRONTENAC.

Late Jacob B. Snider, Verona, Aged Eighty-eight.

Verona, May 7.—A very sudden death occurred on Monday, April 29th, at 9.30 p.m., when Jacob B. Snider quietly passed away at his home, a mile west of Verona, having lived to the ripe old age of eighty-eight years. His death came as a severe shock to everyone. His daughter and family were away, leaving grandpa, as well as usual, with his son, Kyle. When on their way home they were met by Frederick Snider, who told them that the old gentleman was ill. When the family arrived home he had passed away.

He leaves two sons, namely, Kyle, of Verona, and Harvey J., of Harrowsmith, and one daughter, Anne Emma, of Verona, all of whom will sadly miss their kind and affectionate father. The funeral was well attended, being held on Thursday, May 2nd, at 2 p.m., in the Methodist church at Verona. Relatives were present from Lowville, N.Y., Watertown, N.Y., Kingston, Oswego, N.Y., and Bancroft.

It was thought appropriate that his grand sons to carry the body to its last resting place on earth. They were: U. S. Ludbrook, Charles and Henry Ludbrook, Allen and Frederick Snider and James Snider. Jacob B. Snider was one of the first settlers of Portland. He came here when all was forest, some sixty-four years ago. He it was who wielded the woodsman's axe and bowed the logs to build a humble dwelling for he and his wife, Amarilla. His home was indeed a humble one, but shared willingly with many a homeless one. In the early days, before parsonages were thought of and before teachers were paid, both teachers and preachers were welcomed.

About sixty-six years ago Mr. Snider married Amarilla Hogaborn. The first break in the family occurred when their son, Allen, died. In 1902 their son, Douglas, was laid to rest, after having spent a most useful life here. The worse sorrow of his life was the death of his dearly beloved wife in 1909. Hers was a life lived for others. All the family were Methodists, and always took an active part in the advancement of the cause of Christ. In the early days, Mr. Snider acted in the capacity of local preacher. He and his wife were true Christian lives. They scattered seeds of kindness all along the way.

John A. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stewart, Brockville, an undergraduate in medicine, will be attached to the staff of the Eastern hospital during the vacation.

The man that money makes go is always driven with loose lines. Regrets do not amount to much if you fail to remedy the wrong.

Often times we may show God-like mercy by truth suppression. Determination is the direct enemy of ease and procrastination. Sarcasm rightfully comes under the head of enemy producers. Eldon creamery butter, J. Crawford.
