MALIGNING THE OFFICIALS.

The charge has been publicly made that contracts, at Ottawa, and in connection with the federal government, have been manipulated in the interest of the liberals, that responsible officials under the ministers have been guilty of thimble-rigging in the interest of their liberal friends.

It is safe to say that there is no ground for this charge, and that a very grave injustice has been done to the officials. The departments at Ottawa have been largely cleared out of liberal officials in order to make room for the hungry office-seekers of the conservative party, and those that remain are not disposed, and not in a position, to do injury to any one.

WELSH DISESTABLISHMENT.

An issue of great importance, and ranking next to home rule for Ireland, is the bill "to terminate the Establishment of the Church of England in Wales, and to make provision for its temporalities."

the churchmen, and Mr. Gore's language in the National Review is a sample of the whole. But there is another side and it is presented by the London Chronicle, which, in a recent edition, remarked: "The real outcry is simply over money. You would never guess from their language that the bill gave them money endowments 400 per cent. over what were offered by the bill of 1909."

EDITORIAL NOTES

Here's to your good health, Sir Lomer, and your family's good health, and may you live long and prosper. Rip Van Winkle's toast revived and purified.

the best the province has ever had, because the Lorden government desired its defeat. Now let the federal government, under Monk, carry out its threat that the constituencies that went liberal in the provincial election will not get any public works—if it dare. The threat never should have been made, and it was.
