VERY DIFFICULT TASK

IN THE RELEASING OF THE STEAMER TOILER.

Will Either Have to Build Pier or Sink Barge to Carry on Work—Current at Fraser's Shoal is Very Dangerous.

That the oil steamer Toiler is in a very bad spot, and that great difficulty will be met with in releasing her from Fraser's shoal, near Cardinal, where she ran aground, on Tuesday night, is the opinion expressed by all the marine men who have visited the scene.

It is stated that it will be necessary to either build a pier or sink a barge close to the Toiler, in order that the work of releasing her can be proceeded with. It is pointed out that this will be necessary, owing to the swift current at that point. The current is so bad that just as soon as the work of lightening the cargo is commenced, the boat will drift on, and perhaps get in a more dangerous place, and a check is needed, which would be provided by a sunken barge or a pier.

The Donnelly Towing company is at work on the job.

The steamer Mapleton passed up on Wednesday.

The steamer Rosemount, grain laden, from Fort William, is discharging grain at the Montreal Transportation company's elevator. The tug Thomson arrived from Montreal, with two light barges.

Last night's gale on the lake was a very rough one. All the vessels in the harbor were given a great shaking up. The Montreal Transportation company's barge Cornwall is in the dry dock for repairs.

Swift's wharf: Steamers City of Montreal, down; Dundurn, up; Aletha, down and up.

The steamship which the Davis Drydock company built for Hall Bros., of Ottawa, will likely be floated out of the dock, Saturday morning.

PROF. HUTT CRITICIZES

Macdonald School, City Parks and Queen's Grounds.

Prof. Hutt, landscape architect, of Guelph Agricultural College, while in the city, as well as advising regarding the beautifying of Queen's University grounds, made an inspection of some of the public parks, and also Macdonald school property.

Prof. Hutt regards it false economy on the part of the board in not razing the two houses on the Division street side of Macdonald school. He said that the new building should have faced Division street, instead of the position it holds.

Regarding the parks, Mr. Hutt is of the opinion that the trees are too much in abundance in the City and Victoria Parks, and the sooner they are thinned out the better.

On inspection of the new Queen's campus, he stated that, in his mind, the field would never be in a fit state until the clover was cleared out, and this would require harrowing and digging up.

The representatives to the Methodist conference sessions from the congregation of Brock Street Methodist church, were elected on Wednesday evening. The ballot resulted in the election of Messrs. W. Chapman, Dr. Day, A. E. Elliott, T. W. Gibson, John McBride, W. H. Sleeman and John Stage.

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Anniversary Celebrated at His Home in Perth.

Dr. R. J. Gardiner and Mrs. Gardiner attended the golden wedding event in Perth of Judge and Mrs. Senkler on Tuesday last. The couple were married on May 21st, 1862. Mrs. Senkler's father, the late Benjamin Teit, of Newboro, was in attendance at the parliament of Canada, which was then sitting at Quebec. Judge Senkler—at that time was practising law in Brockville in partnership with the late J. D. Budd.

In December, 1873, he was appointed judge of the county court of Lanark, when he removed with his family to Perth, where he has resided ever since.

A unique and happy feature of the occasion was the presence of all the children of Judge and Mrs. Senkler. The children are: Miss Senkler, living at home; Mrs. E. M. Morgan and her husband and son; Senkler Morgan, of Montreal, and E. S. Senkler and wife, of Bowmanville.

Many handsome presents appropriate to the occasion were received, also a shower of letters and telegrams of congratulations from friends at a distance.

In the evening a reception was held from seven to ten, the house being tastefully decorated with flowers. A constant succession of friends thronged the rooms anxious to personally tender their congratulations.

During the evening a beautifully worded and illuminated address was read by E. B. Malloch, K.C., county crown attorney, upon behalf of the bar of Lanark, and the officials of the court house, which was accompanied by a magnificent cabinet of sterling silver suitably engraved.

An address was also read from the rector and church wardens of St. James' church, Perth, of which Judge Senkler has been an active member during the whole of his residence in Perth.

To both of these addresses Judge Senkler replied in fitting terms.

HAD A BAD MEMORY

AND WAS REMANDED TO JAIL BY MAGISTRATE.

Joseph Aiken Told Magistrate He Could Not Remember One Day From Another, so Was Given Time to Refresh His Memory.

These are hard days, for some of the members of the "prohibited list." Joseph Aiken, is the latest to fall into the police nets. He was summoned Thursday morning, but when questioned by the magistrate, he said he did not know if he was guilty of being drunk or not. He appeared to be suffering from a very bad memory, and the magistrate remanded him until Monday, in order that he might have time to brush up his memory.

"In the meantime," remarked the court, to Aiken, "if you remember where you secured your liquor, you can tell the chief of police and no can let me know."

The evidence of Constable James Downey, went to show that Aiken was very much under the influence of liquor, Tuesday, but the accused said he did not remember anything about this.

He admitted having liquor in the house, but he did not know how it got there. According to his story, there was a deep mystery surrounding all the circumstances. Asked if he had been under the influence of liquor, on Tuesday, he said he could not remember Tuesday—that he could not tell one day from another. He could not even tell where he had secured his last drink. Owing to the fact that his memory was so bad, the magistrate decided that it would be better to give him time to think it all over, and for this reason, remanded him to jail until Monday.

Joseph Thornton, a stranger within our gates, was tipsy on Wednesday. He said he was not a drinking man, but that he had just taken a few drops of whiskey to relieve a pain in his side. Brockville is his next port, and the magistrate gave him a day to bid farewell to Kingston.

Gift to a Lad.

An enjoyable time was held at the home of Master Harry Parker, Tuesday evening, when some of his friends gave a farewell send-off. He goes with his sister to his former home in Merritta, Ohio.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT

A LITTLE BOY TRIED TO STEAL CHICKENS.

Armed With Hatchet, He Made Two Trips to Home on Barrie Street. But Was Discovered and Handed Over to Police.

His fondness for chickens got a little boy, about thirteen years of age, into trouble on Wednesday. The youngster has a particular liking for the chickens in the coop, in the back yard of James E. Purdy at the corner of Earl and Barrie street, for he made no less than two trips to these premises, to purloin a couple of birds.

Armed with a hatchet, not to kill the birds, but to break away the wire netting of the coop, the lad went to the home of Mr. Purdy, Wednesday, in broad daylight, and was about to make his way in after the birds, when he was discovered and given his walking ticket.

But like the cat, the boy came back, with hatchet in hand. And again he was foiled in his attempt. This time, he was handed over to the police, and was taken to the police station. He was kept at the police station for a couple of hours, but as the owner of the chickens did not care to prosecute, the youngster was allowed his liberty, and by the chief of police.

The youngster has been in trouble several times before, and it would appear as if he has a mania for stealing.

For some time past, reports have been received about chickens being stolen, in several parts of the city.

COMPLAINT IN OTTAWA

That Employers Will Not Let Volunteers Off.

A despatch from Ottawa says:—Ottawa soldiers are preparing for their visit to Kingston and the Barrieheld military camp. That their employers will not let them off to go to camp is the complaint of several of the men of the G.G.F.G. and 43rd regiments. This, however, is doubted by many officers, who believe that the complaint is only an excuse on the part of many in order to escape the arduous of camp drill. The officers point out that the business men of Ottawa are not so unparitric as to put any obstacle in the way of the better training of the militia. Steps will probably be taken by some of the officers to ascertain whether or not the claims of the men are correct. In the event of any business men being found who are preventing their men from attending camp it is likely that they will be canvassed by the officers.
