

OPPOSITION TO UNION WILL SOON DISAPPEAR

Declared Principal Gordon to General Assembly.

SPEECH OF THE DOCTOR WAS RECEIVED WITH CONTINUAL APPLAUSE.

The Need of a Simpler Confession of Faith is Apparent, said the Queen's Principal—Church Fails to Get What it Should From the Rich.

REV. D. M. GORDON, D.D., The principal of Queen's University who presented the church union question to the Presbyterian General Assembly.

IMMORALITY IN FASHIONS.

Immodest Displays of Forms Lure Men. Chicago, June 8.—Miss Mary Bartelme, the first woman judge in Illinois, made the statement that much of the crime and immorality in the world, and Chicago in particular, is due to the way women dress.

BAIL OF 100 YEARS AGO.

Reproduction of That Given at Brussels on the Eve of Waterloo. London, June 8.—The ball of 100 years ago, a reproduction of that given by the Duchess of Richmond at Brussels on the eve of Waterloo, was a great success at Albert Hall.

In the afternoon, when the question of the budget came up, Col. Brown, of Michigan, made a stirring appeal for the creation of better business administration, stating that the church was failing to get from the men of wealth in the denomination large gifts which ought to be obtained, and that the Methodist church was far more behind in this respect than the Presbyterian.

TAFT STILL SCORES IN THE COMMITTEE.

But Senator Dixon Declares That the Roosevelt Side Will Eventually Win. Chicago, June 8.—The coming of ex-Senate Senator William Flynn, of Pittsburgh, as ex-President Roosevelt's chief personal representative on the field of battle, has led to-day to varied comment in the Roosevelt camp, all to the effect that the president is dissatisfied with the political manoeuvring of Senator Dixon and Ormsby McLaughlin.

PITH OF THE NEWS.

The Very Latest Celled From All Over the World. George Kettle, aged eight, was killed by automobile in Toronto.

At Hamburg, the German aviator, Gottlieb Rost, was mortally injured while making an aeroplane flight on Friday.

Faedi Pasha, the Turkish commander, has sent an ultimatum to the business tribunes, in which he gives them forty-eight hours in which to cease fighting.

At Almeria, Spain, a general strike has been proclaimed at this port, as a protest against the government's failure to act on the demands of the railwaymen who work on the southern line.

Joseph Couillard, of Montmagny, has been appointed captain of the Canadian government steamer Arctic, which will leave in a few days for Hudson's Bay, where she will make soundings for the Canadian hydrographic service.

Canadians Wins Scholarship. Baltimore, Md., June 8.—The Edmund Law Rogers fellowship of the Johns Hopkins University, highest among the honors conferred by that institution, has been captured by Thomas Shearer Duncan, of Westport, Ont., for excellence in Latin.

The fellowship is awarded solely by merit, and is a highly coveted prize. Mr. Duncan has made a very enviable record at Johns Hopkins.

Kills Boarder Who Slipped Sister. Shreveport, La., June 8.—Resenting the abuse of his fourteen-year-old sister, Clarence Williams, nineteen, shot and killed C. N. Smith. The girl was waiting on the table at the Williams boarding-house when Smith slipped her because his coffee was cold.

O, You Panama Hats. Miss Mabel wore a Panama. And so did brother Joe. They purchased them together. From George Mills & Co.

DAILY MEMORANDA. See top page 3, right hand corner, for probabilities.

Don't forget the bugle band moonlight Monday, June 10th, 7:45 sharp. We guarantee a first-class excursion. 14th brass band on board. Watch for big street parade to-night.

Largest assortment of popular songs. Call and see at Dutton's.

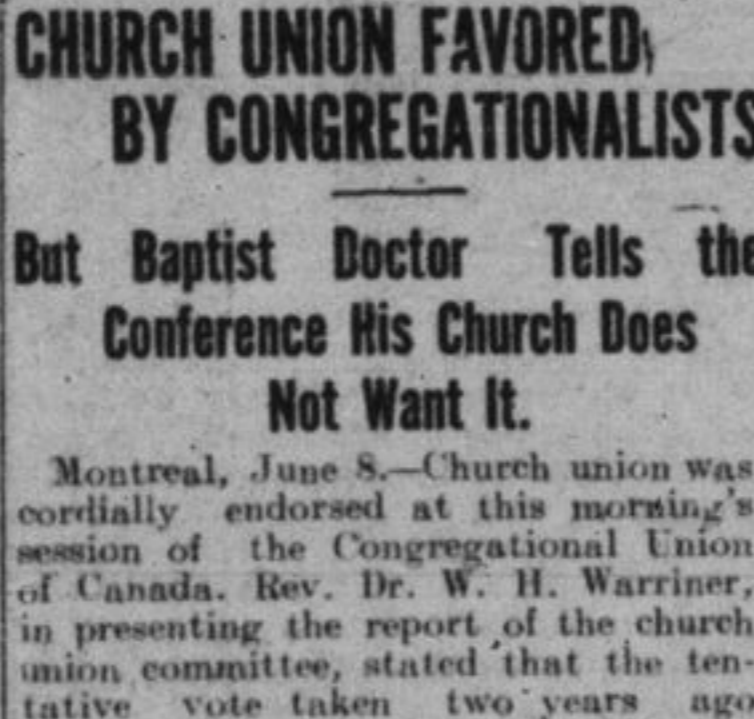

A CANADIAN LLOYDS.

Project Being Considered by Hon. Mr. Foster. Ottawa, June 8.—The proposal to establish a Canadian Lloyds has been taken up by the trade and commerce department as one of the subjects for investigation in connection with an attempt to recover Canadian trade now being diverted from Canadian ports.

SIX THOUSAND MEN ENGAGED. Large Force on C. N. R. Line West of Port Arthur. Toronto, June 8.—The C.N.R. has on its line from Port Arthur west the biggest construction gang working that ever went on construction work on one line in the dominion.

Chinese as Negroes. Philadelphia, Pa., June 8.—A United States commissioner here, yesterday, ordered deported five Chinese who it is alleged, were smuggled across the Canadian border, disguised as negro laborers.

UNIVERSITIES CHARGED WITH TEACHING HERESY. "Bible Crusaders" of Toronto Say the Teaching at 'Varsity is Poisonous.

COL. SAM HUGHES, M.P.

NO USE FOR WHINING PASTOR. Rev. Byron Stauffer Would Send Him to the Scrap Heap. Montreal, June 8.—At the session of the Congregational Union, yesterday, Rev. Byron H. Stauffer, of Toronto, read an obituary notice of the "whining pastor" who, he said, must be relegated to the ministerial scrap heap, as modern conditions demand the abolition of "mannerisms, snivelling, the pious draw and the effeminate carriage."

FOUND SKELETON BURIED. Bones Were in Remarkable State of Preservation. Brockville, June 8.—While excavating beneath an old ashery on a lot near Addison, John Murphy, who recently purchased the property from the J. I. Quinn estate, came upon the skeleton of a man in a remarkable state of preservation.

Canada is Winning in a Fair Fight. It is Believed That American Emigration to Canada Cannot Be Averted. Seattle, June 8.—The convention of western governors here to devise means to curb American emigration to Canada is very lightly attended.

King to Meet Kaiser. Berlin, June 8.—A special despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from St. Petersburg states that King George of England and the czar will meet during the summer and will personally discuss a possible alliance between Great Britain, France and Russia.

Bulgaria's Royalty at Berlin. Berlin, June 8.—The King and Queen of Bulgaria, Crown Prince Boris and Prince Kyryll and a large retinue from the Bulgarian court were warmly greeted at Potsdam, Friday, by the German emperor and empress.

Saxony's King Fell From Horse. Dresden, Saxony, June 8.—While Frederick August, the king of Saxony, was reviewing the cavalry during the army manoeuvres, Friday, he was thrown from his horse. His right leg was badly wrenched.

Campbell Bros', Panama Hats. From $3.50 up. See them.

SIR CHARLES WERNHER'S WILL. Leaves $1,250,000 to Establish University Near Cape Town. London, June 8.—The estate of the late Sir Charles Wernher, head of the De Beers diamond syndicate, was provisionally sworn at $25,000,000, about $2,500,000 is left in charities. Of this $1,250,000 is left to South Africa for the establishment of a university at Grootevlei, near Cape Town.

Quebec Sunday Selling. Quebec, June 8.—The opening of shops on Sunday will not be condemned in Quebec as long as the hundreds of small tobacco and candy shops are allowed to remain open. Such is the substance of a judgment rendered yesterday by Recorder Dery.

WILL NOT ACT

As Bartender to the Volunteers in Camp. MINISTER OF MILITIA.

DECLARES THERE WILL BE NO CANTENS. For Those Addicted to the Liquor Habit—Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes Confers With Officers at Niagara Camp.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, June 8.—"There will be no intoxicants sold in military camps so long as I am minister of militia. The government will not act as bartender to serve drinks to fellows who are foolish enough to be addicted to the habit. Canteens will not be established. The government is not responsible for any soldiers who patronize hotels outside the camp. The military authorities will see to it."

PROTESTS BEING MADE. At Delay in Appointing Railway Commission Chairman. Ottawa, June 8.—There is reason to believe that the government is receiving many protests from business organizations as the delay in the appointment of a new chairman of the railway commission to replace Hon. J. P. Mabee.

CREW WENT ON STRIKE. They Claimed That They Had Too Much Work to Do. Members of the crew of the steamer Wolfe Islander, regarded Thursday as their Jonah day, all right.

SUBMARINE WAS SUNK WITH TWENTY-FOUR MEN. Rescue Ships are Making Desperate Efforts to Bring It to the Surface. Cherbourg, France, June 8.—In a collision with the battleship St. Louis, to-day, the French submarine Vendemiaire was sunk, with twenty-four of the crew, in one hundred and eighty fathoms of water.

HOSPITAL TAG DAY. And the Ladies Were Very Busy on the Streets. General hospital tag day is here once more with its characteristic billet of winsome matrons and maids on every corner.

KING GEORGE REVIEWED. Thirty-five Thousand Ex-soldiers and Ex-Soldiers. London, Eng., June 8.—King George to-day reviewed thirty-five thousand of the national reserve, the new military organizations of ex-soldiers and ex-soldiers who are ready to serve again in an emergency.

The Late Dorris Hughes. A sad death occurred at the Hotel Eden, Friday morning, when Dorris, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, passed peacefully away after an illness of about two weeks.

Miss Kate Agnew, Earl street, left Saturday noon, for Toronto, St. Paul and Minneapolis, on a visit to friends.

CRUX OF THE SITUATION.

Rests Now With Col. Theodore Roosevelt. Chicago, June 8.—The crux of the entire situation in connection with the republican national convention, today, rested with Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON FOR ITS VERY PROMPT ACTION. The Cavalry to Beat the Bush for the Insurrectos—Four Army Transports Are Ready at Newport News. Washington, June 8.—The general staff of the army issued preparatory orders to-day for the dispatch of military expedition of 5,000 troops to Cuba.

United States to Aid in Restoring Order. THE CUBANS APPLAUD. WASHINGTON FOR ITS VERY PROMPT ACTION.

MAYOR HOAG GIVES ORDERS. To City Solicitor to Write Hon. F. D. Monk. On Saturday morning Mayor Hoag conferred with City Solicitor McHenry with regard to the toll charges on Cataract bridge, and requested him to write the minister of public works, Hon. F. D. Monk, as to what the government intended to assume control of the bridge which the city tendered it, and which Mr. Monk intimated would be accepted.

LIKELY LEFT THE CITY. Sneak Thief Who Charged Excessive Rent in Second-hand Store. The stranger who stole a gold watch from the store of H. Sugarman, second-hand dealer, on Thursday night, has evidently said farewell to Kingston. The police were not notified in time to take part in the chase, and Sugarman says that he has not seen the man around the city since the occurrence.

SNAP BRIM STRAW HATS. From 25c. up, at Campbell Bros'. "Eas Em" for hot, burning feet. Sold at Gibson's.

DIED. BYRNES—At Barriefield, on Friday, June 7th, 1912, James Byrnes, wife of Myles Byrnes.

BROPHY—In Kingston, Ont., at her late residence, 49 Wellington Street, on June 7th, 1912, Margaret Gallagher, widow of the late Wm. Brophy, aged 59 years.

HUGHES—In Kingston, on June 7th, 1912, Dorris Hughes, daughter of John Hughes, 51 Chatham Street. Funeral to take place on Monday morning at 10 o'clock, at St. Mary's Cathedral. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully requested to attend.

ROBERT J. REID. The Leading Undertaker. Phone 577. 280 Princess Street.

JAMES REID. The Old Firm of Undertakers. 254 and 256 PRINCESS STREET. Phone 147 for Ambulance.

GO-CARTS. A couple dozen of them. Will sell them at a reasonable price. Must be easy. Turk's. Phone 795.

Finest Fruits. In Tins and Glass. PEACHES. PEARS. RASPBERRIES. STRAWBERRIES. BLACK CURRANTS. RED CURRANTS. GREENGAGES. DAMSONS. CALIFORNIA CHERRIES. CALIFORNIA APRIOTS. Jas. Redden & Co.

And Case Against Him Disposed of in Police Court. Peter Connors, arrested for drunkenness, made good his promise that he would put himself on the "prohibited list," and the magistrate gave him a chance to make good. The case was disposed of in this manner in police court, Saturday morning.

Another case before the magistrate was that of a young man, arrested for vagrancy. He is of unsound mind and was removed to Rockwood hospital.

"Blanco for helmets," Gibson's.