MAY CHANGE BELT LINE And Run It Two Blocks Above Alfred Street.

In view of the petition from ratepayers Hugh C. Nickle, superintendent of the street railway, was asked by the Whig, to-day, if the company could re-open its line to Williamsville.

Mr. Nickle said that the company had been thinking about the matter, but had not been giving it serious consideration. He pointed out that the western part of the city was growing, and that this would have to be given some consideration. It would not be long before the belt line cars would have to be taken a couple of blocks past Alfred street, in order to fill the great need of a service, owing to the fact that this part of the city was growing so fast.

Sewage Disposal Tenders. The tender for the Napanee sewage disposal works and outfall service was on Monday awarded to the Construction Service Co., of Guelph, Ont., the firm which built the five blocks of permanent pavement in Kingston. IT MUST BE STOPPED

STONE THROWING MUST CEASE. SAYS THE MAGISTRATE.

Too Many Complaints About People Assaulted on Streets—Case Against Youth Was Enlarged—Fine Imposed for Cruelty to Horse.

Magistrate Farrell is out with a big stick, after youths who throw stones on the streets, so all offenders had better take warning, and be on their good behaviour. His warning, in hearing a case of assault, on Tuesday morning, stated that he had received many complaints about youths throwing stones, and that he intended to put a stop to the practice.

"Just yesterday a citizen complained to me about being struck with a stone while he was walking along the street on Sunday with his wife. The man was hit on the back of the head. We must put a stop to this practice."

The court made these remarks, after hearing a case in which a youth named James Flint, was charged with assaulting one Abe Fried. The latter claimed that Flint was one of a "bunch of boys," who threw stones at him, on Monday. Fried said that one stone hit him on the side, and another in the head. Flint claimed that he was in the company of some boys, but denied having thrown stones at Fried. Leo Tremblay and Philip Pedro, were summoned to answer to a charge of throwing stones, and as they did not put in an appearance, the magistrate had warrants issued for their arrest. The case against Flint was enlarged for a day.

George Watson was fined $3 and costs for having ill-treated a horse. The charge was laid by Constable Samuel Arniel, and the accused pleaded guilty. The horse was suffering from a lame foot and Mr. Watson was doing his best to make the animal work. Constable Arniel was called upon to shoot the animal. J. B. Walkum was on hand ready to conduct a prosecution but the evidence was not taken, owing to the fact that the accused entered a plea of "guilty."

James Smith admitted being drunk. He is a stranger and had a job to go to at the military camp but missed the wagon, which was to take him to his work. Then he got drunk. The magistrate gave him a chance but told him to tell all his companions in the camp that they must not run the risk of coming before the court as they would not fare as well as he had.

Herbert Keayon, a mariner, was also drunk. At an early hour Tuesday morning the police had a call for him. Keayon had been mixing his drinks and lost his way on King street, taking to some of the back yards in the vicinity of West street. One of these residents heard a noise in the back yard, had visions of burglars, and telephoned the police, and Keayon was gathered in. He was fined $1 and costs.

HON. MR. MONK PROMISES

To Expedite the Transfer of Catarqui Bridge.

On Tuesday morning City Solicitor McIntyre received the following letter from Hon. F. D. Monk, minister of public works, Ottawa:

"I have your letter of the 8th inst., with regard to the transfer of the Catarqui bridge, and shall have the matter expedited as much as possible. (Signed) F. D. MONK."

Last Saturday Mayor Hoag instructed the city solicitor to write minister about the bridge, the tolls on which will remain until the transfer from the city to the government takes place.

Stop Freight Vessel Outing Trips. Owners of lake freight boats fear that a recent decision by B. S. Cable, acting secretary of the United States department of commerce and labor, may compel them to refuse to carry as passengers their friends who heretofore have been taken as "members of crew" or under other effective guise. The decision is that passengers carried on lake freight vessels must be given the protection required for passengers on the regular passenger steamers, whether or not the passengers pay fare.

Still More Fighters. Still more summons have been issued for fighters to appear in the police court. Two young men, who had a lively "scrap" near the corner of Princess and Harris streets, have been summoned to appear before Magistrate Farrell on Wednesday morning.

JUDGE MADDEN OPENS The Court of General Sessions, Tuesday Afternoon. The court of general sessions of Frontenac opened in the court house, Tuesday afternoon, at two o'clock, with Justice Madden presiding, and a large number of the public present, owing, no doubt, to the number of criminal cases on the calendar. The grand jury was sworn in, with James Mallen as foreman. In his charge to the grand jury his honor referred to the fact that this was the eighth session of the Frontenac county court at which he had presided, said that at every other one, no cases had been on the criminal calendar. And another very remarkable thing was that this time six out of seven of the indictments were against prisoners in the penitentiary. This spoke well for the "good conduct" of the county, and yet, Procter was at a disadvantage, having the penitentiary within its bounds. His honor then reviewed the cases to be tried, and the jury retired. It was said that the charge against George Cluff, for poisoning horses, would be the first to be heard, and that the desperadoes at the "pen" will come before the court Wednesday. At time of going to press, it was understood that Vincent McNeil, one of the prisoners, had a lawyer from Peterboro to defend him.
