BRILLIANT JUNE BALL AT MILITARY COLLEGE

The Decorations Have Never Been Excelled.

LAST DANCE AT DAWN

TO THE STRAINS OF "HOME, SWEET HOME."

The Guests Were Received by the Commandant and Mrs. Crowe—List of the Guests and the Gowns of the Ladies.

On Monday evening the Royal Military College opened its hospitable doors to the friends of the commandant, staff and gentlemen cadets. For many weeks past out-of-town, as well as Kingston friends, have been anticipating with pleasure this long looked for event, and those fortunate enough to be guests found that in this case anticipation was not greater than realization. For the past week the cadets have been untiring in their efforts to transform the college into a place that spoke of work laid aside, that gaiety might rule. Nothing more beautiful than the result of their work could be imagined, a greater artistic triumph would be difficult to achieve, when the large assemblage of fashion and beauty entered the ballroom they received their first sight of a scheme of decoration that for dazzling magnificence has probably never been exceeded. All gasoliers and electroliers had been successfully hidden, and the ceiling reflected by a canopy of blue, through which penetrated stars soft rays of lights placed above and out of sight, a perfect imitation of the evening sky. This outdoor effect predominated throughout, the walls being banked with evergreens and pines. The fixed bay-

THIS BATHING SUIT CANNOT PART COMPANY AT THE MIDDLE.

New bathing suits for small folk fasten at the shoulder so that no matter how the little boy or girl tumbles about in the sand the bathing suit keeps its proper position on the figure. There is no jersey to ride up, and no trunks to slide down. The bathing suit fits trimly and is also attractive to look at with its bands of contrasting color at neck and arm opening. All sensible bathing suits for children have a touch of wool in the weave, for the child is constantly in and out of the water, and the bit of wool may prevent a chill.

Gowns of Debutantes.
 Miss Ruth Martin looked very fair and winsome in a gown of white satin en traine, the bodice veiled in shadow lace, panels of lace on sides of skirt edged with ball fringe crystal bandeaux in hair, and her bouquet was pink roses.

Miss Kathleen Carruthers made one of the prettiest of debutantes in a frock of white nixon over white satin, overskirt edged with crystal fringe, bodice and sleeves trimmed with lace, finished with marabou mount.

Miss Alleen Taylor, Windsor, debutante white satin en traine, overdress of white silk marquisette, ornamented with exquisite little French flowers. The skirt was made in panier effect, and the bodice was trimmed with lace, embroidered in pearls, and touches of green—white roses.

Miss Eleanor Minnes made a very sweet and dainty little debutante in her gown of white satin charmeuse, with trimmings of pink and white, some duchesse lace and nixon. The skirt was panelled with crystal trimmings and draped in nixon, and she carried an armful of Killarney roses.

Miss Freda Burns looked very sweet and pretty in her gown of white satin, en traine, the skirt draped in nixon, the bodice trimmed with nixon and handsome pearl ornaments; white and pink roses, and a mab cap of lace and pearls.

Miss Mary Bogs, of Victoria, debutante, white satin en traine, nixon edged with wide silk embroidery, white roses.

Miss Margaret MacLennan, Toronto, debutante, looked very lovely in a dainty gown of white satin, veiled in white nixon. The skirt was trimmed with handsome rose pointe lace. One side of the bodice was draped with nixon and the other with the same handsome lace used on the skirt; marabou plume in hair; lilies of the valley, orchids and roses.

Miss Florence Elliott looked very petite and dainty in her becoming gown of white satin duchesse, en traine, draped with white nixon, seeded with pearls, caught on train with tiny satin roses. Bodice trimmed with silk embroidered chiffon and broad bands of pearl and crystal trimming and fringe. Bandeau and osprey in hair. She carried American beauties tied with wide satin ribbon of same shade, and her ornaments were pearls.

Miss Dorothy English, Montreal, debutante, white satin duchesse, trimmed with handsome Princess lace. Pink roses.

Miss Phyllis Knapp, Prescott, debutante, white empire satin, overdress of white nixon, and pearl trimmings; pink roses.

Miss Rose Rogers was very becomingly gowned in white satin, the skirt was high-waisted with paniers of satin caught in with pearl tassels. The bodice was trimmed with white ribbons of nixon edged with crystal fringe. Pearl bandeau in hair, and marabou mount.

Miss Mildred Wormuth, debutante, was extremely pretty in a handsome gown of white satin en traine, the bodice was covered with nixon and paniers of nixon on the skirt were caught up with white satin roses. The panel of pearl passementerie down the front and sleeves were edged with crystal fringe. The skirt was finished in front with nixon roses, crystal trimming, and aigrette in hair; American beauty roses.

Miss Stiles, of Cornwall, debutante, white satin, veiled in nixon, with pearl and crystal trimmings. Juliette cap of pearls on her hair; dark red roses.

Miss Aida Nicolle, in her dainty frock of white satin charmeuse, en traine, never looked prettier. Pearl passementerie bandings and bugle fringe trimmed the bodice. Crystal bandeau and marabou mount were worn in her hair, and she carried American beauties.

Gowns of the Matrons.

Her Hair Commenced to Grow After Two Weeks' Use of Newbro's Herpicide.

Fever caused me to be entirely bald, I had given up all hope of again having hair when I was advised to use Herpicide. After two weeks my hair commenced to grow. I now have the most beautiful head of hair anyone ever saw. I raise to Newbro's Herpicide.

This writes Mrs. Howard Bailey, of Bellevue, Mich. We can put to thousands of instances where the proper use of Herpicide has been followed by a remarkable growth of hair.

Newbro's Herpicide is the original remedy which kills the dandruff germ and stops falling hair.
