The staff of the institute take this opportunity of announcing that, owing to the early closing of the school, and to other circumstances, it was not found practicable to issue the regular June reports this year. Pupils and parents are asked to accept, for the present, the promotion lists in lieu of a report.

Married in St. George's. A pretty wedding was added to the June list on Thursday when Miss Rose Payne, daughter of Henry Payne, of this city, was married to Arthur George Angel, in St. George's cathedral, at three o'clock. The young people were attended by Miss M. E. Litchfield, and J. F. Clarke. The bride was given away by her father. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Starr.

A Moonlight Excursion. Sydenham street Methodist church Epworth League held a successful moonlight excursion through the 1,000 Islands on Thursday evening. The evening was one of the finest this season and the sail was all that could be desired. The boat went as far as Gananoque and turned right around and came back, arriving in the city at about twelve o'clock.

School Book Covers Free! To public, separate and country students, at B. Uglow & Co.'s, T. McAuliffe's and the College Book Store on Saturday.

Spend Sunday in Watertown. Good going Saturday 5 a.m. or 2.30 p.m., Sunday 7.30 a.m. and 2 p.m., returning up to Monday night, $1.65 return.

John Gile received through Norman Leach a cheque for $100 from Dr. Hanna, of Perth, a gift to the Smith's Falls public hospital.

IN BASEBALL CIRCLES

VICTORIAS AND ATHLETICS PLAY ON SATURDAY.

How the Teams Will Line-up—The Rochester Team Will be Given a Game if it Comes Here Sometime Next Week.

For the second time this season Victorias and Athletics will meet on the cricket field. Vics, have quite a well-settled team and are confident of winning, but the Athletics hope to defeat them. The line-up cannot be given exactly but the latest probabilities place the teams as follows:

Victorias—Nicholson, c.f.; Pound, l.f.; H. Dick, a.s.; Duncan, c.f.; McCann, 2b.; Cotnam, c.; Walsh, lb.; G. Dick, 3b.; Gillespie, p.

Athletics—Gallagher, lb.; Hunt, c.; Gauthier, a.s.; Ewart, c.f.; Gratton, 2b.; Gauthier, a.s.; Ewart, c.f.; Gratton, 2b.; Coyne, l.f.

The game promises to be one of unusual interest.

The league has provided a snappy junior game for two o'clock so that there'll be something doing all the time at the cricket field on Saturday afternoon.

Sydenham Practised. Sydenham street junior baseball team had a good practice on Thursday afternoon at the cricket field.

There was nearly a full team out and the boys had a good work-out. They should be in fine trim for the opening game which takes place on Wednesday evening next, when the two Methodist church rivals, Queen and Sydenham, clash for the honors.

Advice to Rochester. The city league officials have answered the letter of E. R. Packard, of Rochester, who was looking for a game here on July 1st for his amateur team. They advise him to take a shorter out to the Canadian side than by way of Kingston, as by way of Port Hope, it will make a cheaper trip, but promise a game if they come here.

Baseball Record. National League—Brooklyn, 9; Boston, 8; New York, 4; Philadelphia, 3; Chicago, 6; Cincinnati, 1; Pittsburgh, 3; St. Louis, 2.

American League—Cleveland, 4; Detroit, 3; Philadelphia, 4; New York, 0; Washington, 8; Boston, 4.

International League—Providence, 6; Buffalo, 1; Newark, 3; Montreal, 0; Rochester, 6; Jersey City, 3; Baltimore, 2; Toronto, 1.

PEOPLE ARE PROTESTING Against Erection of Big Signs Near Their Property.

In some sections of the city there are, at present, "crowd" about bill boards being erected on the sides of houses and in vacant lots belonging to neighbors. The fact is that a bill board company, of Toronto, has been placing these large galvanized iron boards around the city, first asking, and in most cases, paying a yearly rental to the owners of the land or property on which they are placed.

On one place on Union street, one of these large boards has been erected in a vacant lot above Collingwood street. This obstructs the view of the street from the residence of G. Y. Chown, who does not take it in the kindest way. Not many hundred yards away another sign has been erected. One of these boards has been placed near the corner of Princess and Alfred streets, and it appears, at least, to the passer-by, that it encroaches over the street line. However, there is a dispute over this.

Those affected by these boards being placed in their neighborhood will, it appears, have to put up with it. Their neighbors, or those who give the company the permission to erect them on their lands, are the ones to speak to, and not the city engineer.

NEWLY-WEDS ON TRAINS. A Kingstonian Speaks About June Weddings.

"June brides are as numerous as the sands on the sea shore," remarked a Kingstonian to the Whig, who returned, yesterday, from a trip to the west.

He says that both going and coming back, his train was held up at the different stations by bridal couples. He had travelled a great deal, but he never before heard of so many weddings in the month of June.

Kingston has been in the van, in the matrimonial line, as outside of the many weddings in which local people were the principals, quite a large number of Americans have crossed the line to have a Canadian minister tie the knot. Kingston is a favorite place for weddings.

To Promote Patriotism. J. P. McMillan, Corvallis, Ont., has designed a badge to be distributed to the children of the schools of the dominion, which will be worn only on fitting and designated occasions.

The badge, which in itself is symbolic of patriotism, has the picture of the Duke and Duchess of Connaught stamped upon it, and is to be known as "Canada's Greeting," and is intended to express the universal sentiment of the Canadian people.

In reply to a letter to Lieut.-Col. Lower, military secretary to the Duke of Connaught, stating the purpose of the badge, and asking permission to use their pictures on the ribbon, Mr. McMillan is in receipt of a letter from Arthur Sladen, private secretary to the Duke, congratulating him upon the purpose and granting the desired permission.

Will Depend on Weather. Whether or no Sunday street cars will be operated this summer will depend totally upon the nature of the weather. If the Sundays are warm and close, then the cars will be run.

Gasoline Price Increases. Motor boat men were not overjoyed to learn on Wednesday, that gasoline had gone up in price from seventeen and a half cents to nineteen cents a gallon. The new rate went into effect on Wednesday and was an unpleasant surprise to the owners of gasoline burning machines.

Millinery Sale. Trimmed hats and flowers, at big reductions at George Mills & Co.'s, "the hat store."

QUEEN STREET PICNIC

HELD AT BROPHY'S POINT ON THURSDAY.

The Children Had a Fine Day—List of the Prize Winners—Those Who Led in Making the Day a Success.

Queen Street Methodist Sunday school held its annual picnic to Brophy's Point, and was favored very highly by the weather man, the day being exceptionally fine. Quite a large number of parents took this opportunity to attend and all thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The list of races and winners who received prizes, is as follows:

Girls, five years and under—Cassie Guild, Florence Harkness. Boys, five years; and under—Willie Dixon, Ronald Wray.

Girls, eight years and under—Florence Barry, Mabel Clark. Boys, eight years and under—Osborne Bearne, Corliss Williams.

Girls, twelve years and under—Jenny Beaupre, Vera Clark. Boys, twelve years and under—Albert Wright, George Bottrell.

Orange race, girls, ten years and under—Laura Peters, Vera Clark. Orange race, girls, fifteen years and under—Kate Angrove, Boris Williams.

Orange race, boys—Melville Mayell, Fred Clark. Girls, fifteen years and under—Arloia Hafner, Ethel Allen.

Three-legged race—R. Paynter and H. Nicholson, R. Jenkins and R. Clark. Slide race—J. Emery, R. Jenkins.

Back to back race—R. Clark and H. Nicholson, N. Edgar and G. Angrove. Teachers, ladies—Miss Donaldson, Miss Birch. Teachers, men—Mr. Skinner, Dr. Sparks.

Throwing baseball—H. Barnes, N. Edgar, G. Angrove, A. Peters. One incident in the day which created much amusement was a line suspended from two trees, on which mysterious bags were tied. Some contained candies and some flour, which burst on being grabbed by the eager children, who received quite a sprinkling.

Capt. Robert Crawford was in his element seeing that the little ones were supplied with candies, and was assisted in this enterprise by Mr. Skinner.

Much of the success of the picnic was due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Doherty, who was the busman of the day.

The party left the Point at about 7.30 o'clock, arriving in the city at eight o'clock.

RETURNS TO 1,000 ISLANDS After an Absence of Fifty-three Years.

Capt. Southwell, of Kalamazoo, Mich., who has returned after an absence of fifty-three years to the Thousand Islands, recalled the burning of the ship, Sir Robert Peel, in the Patriot's war, which took place along the northern frontier in 1847.

Capt. Southwell was only a boy when the ship burned. He and his father, Charles Southwell, were standing in the doorway of their home, which was a few miles below the present site of Clayton, when they saw the pall of smoke from the burning vessel. It was not until the following day, however, that they learned the true cause of the smoke.

The main street of Clayton in those days was a shipyard and many large boats were built there. The present site of the village was covered completely by pine stumps. Indians abounded in the region and it was no uncommon sight for a band of them to wander into the little frontier village.

The effect of half a century's absence also asserts itself among the islands. The change in them, said Capt. Southwell, was extraordinary.

In the old days they were covered with trees and great jagged rocks. There was no roads, but in the winter they used the frozen surface of the river for a highway and in summer sailed from place to place.

The captain took part later in the patriot's war and there had many stirring adventures. He was a personal friend of Gen. Winfield Scott, whom he met at the Thousand Islands during the war.

Few of Capt. Southwell's old acquaintances are still at Clayton. After a short visit he will return to his home in Kalamazoo.

AT LAKE ONTARIO PARK. A Fine Programme Given in the Pavilion.

Notwithstanding the various other attractions, there was a very large attendance at Lake Ontario park last evening. The programme was a new one and one which was a pleasant surprise to all who witnessed it.

The moving pictures consisted of "Family Jars Or The Episodes Of Newly Married Life," a beautiful comedy, "The Tide Of Battle," a scene in the late American war and a deed of daring by a young American girl to save her lover, and "The Triumph Of Right"—a pathetic drama.

The vaudeville was very entertaining. Bombay, the Sioux Indian, gave some excellent juggling feats. The musical Harringtons were very fine on the bells and their various instruments.

In addition, Mr. Harrington played on a piccolo "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and in response to an encore played on a one-string violin sweetly "Down By The Old Mill Stream," and received vigorous applause.

The same bill will be repeated for the balance of the week. On Dominion day the park will be open and free to everyone who desires to use the grounds.

A CASE NON-SUITED

DRESS WAS NOT THE SHADE ORDERED.

And Toronto Company Cannot Recover From Miss Madge Hepburn, of Picton—Judgment Given in Toronto.

In a judgment handed out, Thursday afternoon, in Toronto, Judge Denton dismissed the action brought by Boase, Limited, Toronto, to recover $195 from Miss Madge Hepburn, of Picton, for two dresses supplied to her in December last. The plaintiffs are ordered to pay the costs.

The two dresses were ordered by Miss Hepburn for a social function in Ottawa and she contended that one, of black satin, did not fit, while the other, an evening gown of peach chiffon, over lavender satin, was not the same shade as the pattern from which it was ordered.

At the time of the trial the plaintiffs offered to make the black dress fit if it did not already and the offer was accepted by Miss Hepburn, who has since accepted this dress and paid for it.

In the case of the other one, however, his honor found that the chiffon was not of the shade ordered and, holding that the young lady had a right to get exactly what she asked for, dismissed the action.

IN MARINE CIRCLES. Movements of Vessels in and Out of the Harbor.

The schooner St. Louis arrived at Anglin's wharf, with coal, from Oswego. The schooner Bertha Kalkins cleared for Oswego to-day.

The steamer Sowards arrived from Oswego, with coal for Sowards. The steamer Thousand Islander made an excursion trip to Ogdensburg, on Friday morning, and had a goodly number on board.

M.T. Co's elevator: The steamer Beaverton arrived from Fort William, discharged 71,000 bushels of wheat, and cleared for Belleville, to take on a cargo of cement for Fort William; the steamer Sackatoon arrived from Fort William, and will discharge 77,000 bushels of wheat; the tug Thomson arrived from Montreal, with three light barges; the tug Bartlett arrived, light, from Port Dalhousie, and cleared with the barge Augustus, to load coal, at Ashtabula; the tug Thomson cleared for Montreal, with three grain barges.

The steamer Nevada took on a pilot at the shipbuilding wharf, on her down trip Friday morning. Swift's wharf: Steamer Toronto, down and up; steamer Aletha, down and up; steamer Rideau Queen, from Ottawa; steamer Chas. V. cleared for Smith's Falls; steamer Dundurn, up.

The steamer Toiler, which has been in the dry dock for the past two weeks, is nearing completion. The government steamer La Canadienne is on the Port Dalhousie dry-docks. Two large holes were found in her bottom as the result of her locking accident in the Welland canal a week ago. Some sensational evidence concerning the handling of the boat may be given when the inquest opens to-day, on the three children who were drowned.

TO HAVE BIG WHIRL. A Grand Rennon is to be Feature of 1913.

Arrangements will be begun very soon for a grand re-union of the old boys and old girls of Kingston in this city, in July, 1913. The 14th P.W.O. Rifles, which will celebrate its jubilee year, will also participate in the home-coming event and it is hoped that four or five days choice entertainment will be provided. The prospects are that a permanent secretary will be engaged to work up the event and, possibly, utilizing his time during the winter in organizing Kingston Old Boys' Associations in various places in the United States and in Canada. The citizens intend having a grand whirl on the jubilee occasion.

TO HAVE GOOD SURPLUS. Both 1911 and 1912 Yielded Good Returns.

The King's Birthday Celebration committee had a meeting, Thursday evening, in the city hall, when the accounts were gone over. It was found that the receipts were in the neighborhood of $2,900, and that the final outcome will likely be that $1,000 will be in hand for future events. There was a surplus of $500 from 1911 and an additional $500 for this year. Another and a better celebration for 1913 is in prospect.

Serious Accident. George Brunt met with a serious accident in Clyde woolen mills last Thursday afternoon, says the Lanark Era. His hand got caught in the picker, was dragged into the cylinder and before he could extricate it he had lost the first and second fingers, the third finger at the second joint. Besides his thumb was badly lacerated. He was placing a cap over the cylinder of the machine, a thing he had had done a thousand times before (the machine is somewhat like a threshing cylinder) when in some way the teeth caught his hand.

Is a Queen's Graduate. Knox church, Milledosa, Man., has extended a unanimous call to Rev. J. Hodges, B.A., of Oshawa. The salary offered is $1,500, with free manse and one month's holidays. The congregation called Mr. Hodges because of his reputation as a preacher and pastor, as he never preached for them.

A Chicken Thief Busy. A chicken thief is doing business in the vicinity of Albert street. One resident was touched up for a few birds the other evening. Whoever the person is, he certainly has a unique way of handling the birds, as he cuts their heads off and leaves them behind.
