

ASQUITH AND CHURCHILL ARE LIKENED TO JUDAS

For Pledging Home Rule to Ireland.

SOME WARM SPEECHES

AT THE ORANGE DEMONSTRATION ON FRIDAY.

Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald Urges Protestants Not to Marry Roman Catholics—James Berney Deals Forcibly With the Irish Home Rule Question.

"I trust that mixed marriages will not take place. I say from this platform that I hope Protestants will not marry Roman Catholics. We don't want them to. I would advise Protestants not to make alliances of that kind. If such a union should occur, as occasionally does, and if I performed the marriage under the authority of license, I would challenge any Italian to step in and declare it illegal."

The above was one of the more striking utterances of R. W. Bro. W. F. Fitzgerald, grand chaplain of Ontario East, at the speeches of the Orange demonstration, from the pavilion in Macdonald park, on Friday afternoon.

The visiting Orangemen, according to lodges, with their bands, formed up in the park, and the addresses were delivered from the steps of the pavilion. All the visiting bands with that of the R.C.M.A., the 14th, and the local life and drum bands, were in attendance.

Among those who presented the different resolutions were some of the foremost Orangemen in Ontario, and indeed, Canada. Home rule for Ireland, and the Home Rule decree were the chief topics, discussed by the speakers, R. W. Bro. James Berney, P.C.S., of Kingston, striking out in his usual emphatic manner on the former question. R. W. Bro. Rev. C. W. DeMille, county master of Newburgh, also gave Home Rule, and Bro. E. H. McLean, K.C., P.M., of Hopeville, spoke upon the bilingual school question. The speeches throughout were punctuated with general applause.

On the platform, with Mayor E. J. Hoag, who acted as a direct link for part of the programme, as well as the speakers, were a number of the most prominent members of the order in this part of the country. During the afternoon, the bands played "The Maple Leaf Rag," "The British Grenadiers," and other patriotic airs.

The programme was opened with prayer by R. W. Bro. W. F. Fitzgerald, grand chaplain of Ontario East, followed by an official welcome by the mayor, who is a member of the order, to the visiting Orangemen.

"No Tenere Resolution."

The first resolution: "That, where as the battle of the Boyne was the culminating event in a long struggle for civil and religious liberty in Great Britain and Ireland, and whereas the hierarchy of the Church of Rome are again manifesting an intolerant aggressiveness by the promulgation and attempts to enforce medieval decrees of the Roman pontiff in the country contrary to its laws and to the laws of the British empire, we call on all loyal Canadians to join in celebrating the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne as a protest against the audacious efforts of the Roman Catholic hierarchy to stir up strife and discord in Canada by the promulgation of decrees which are not only cruel and unjust, but insulting, and a direct attack on the civil and religious liberties of the citizens of this great country," was proposed by the grand chaplain, the leading paragraph being a portion of his "sermon." He guarded against the feeling that Orangemen is out to fight Roman Catholics personally. "That is not the case, but they are prepared to defend the nation against the encroachments of the Roman hierarchy, or any other power, on the privileges of Protestants. Regarding another often misunderstood matter, Mr. Fitzgerald said he claimed to be Catholic, an English Catholic, a member of the Catholic church, which Christ founded.

"When you mean Roman Catholics, speak of them as such. Don't forget, for you are giving away all that is yours, from the great church." Mr. Fitzgerald mentioned the "principles of public ecclesiastical law," which was published in 1901, which declared that all who differed from the Roman faith, should be punished, and all that opposed it should have the death penalty meted out upon them. The 13th of July is the celebration day of an organization which is standing out against such tyranny, from the re-tenere decree, the grand chaplain drifted into some of the mistakes of the individual members of the order. "Don't voice your difficulties in the open," he said, "if you are a Methodist, Presbyterian, or a member of any other denomination, keep your affairs to yourselves, and especially away from our Roman Catholic brothers and sisters. No wonder the Roman hierarchy are often heard to remark, 'These are the rotten Protestants,' when they become acquainted with such affairs. The day has come for a united Protestantism. Come into the Orange order on such a platform as this."

The grand chaplain closed with an appeal to the members of the order to live up to its principles, and to conduct themselves properly during the celebration, and be a credit to the order. "I am a churchman first, and an Orangeman second, and loyal to the throne of England, which we defend. I beg of you to be a Christian, support your church, the Great Founder of which looks down on our actions here below," Mr. Fitzgerald said in closing.

Bilingual Schools.

The bilingual school question, as one of the encroachments which Rome had made in Canada, was taken up by R. W. Bro. J. Dealty Woodcock, D.G., of Brockville, in seconding the resolution. He voiced strongly the position of the Orange order regarding the existence of these schools in Ontario and Canada, and the immense crowd in the park testified its feeling in the matter. The Orangemen, and no person else, deserve the credit for investigating the state of affairs. Mr. Woodcock stated that, though at first, Sir James Whitney had "poo-pooed" the matter, he was finally obliged to appoint Dr. Marchant, whose report has been published, to investigate the matter. He promised to abolish these schools, with the exception of those in the primary grade, within a year, and it is "up to" the order to see that he does it. The speaker said the re-tenere decree question did not "hold a candle" in importance with the school matter.

"Who is going to win?" asked the speaker.

"We are," from a voice in the crowd.

"Not unless we stand together," was the reply. The work must be done for the individual in his home, neighborhood and life.

DREAMS OF THEFT, FINDS IT A FACT

Trousers of a New Jersey Clerk, Containing $200, Stolen from His Bedchamber.

Burlington, N.J., July 13.—Waking with the impression that he had dreamed of a thief stealing his trousers, which contained $200 in cash, Samuel Epstein, clerk of a local shoe store, discovered that the pants were actually disappeared from his room at the boarding house conducted by William Alpert.

He hurriedly dressed, and, running downstairs, found the lower floor of the house in confusion. His missing trousers lay on the floor beside an open window, the pockets turned out and empty.

A boy under suspicion was examined by the police, but later released for lack of evidence, and the police have no clue to the thief.

A MANUFACTURER'S VIEW.

He Believes West Has a Just Grievance.

Toronto, July 13.—G. Frank Beer, retiring chairman of the Toronto branch of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, included the following comment in his address at the annual meeting of that body:

"It would be useless to ignore the fact that the west (Alberta and Saskatchewan) is keenly disappointed over its failure to obtain access to the larger markets of the United States. So long as that feeling of disappointment prevails it cannot be said that reciprocity is dead. These provinces feel aggrieved with us in the east for the part we played in thwarting their desire. No amount of specious argument or flag-waving will-allay that feeling or satisfy the west that it has not been robbed."

The west, said Mr. Beer, must have wider markets, for its own good, and for the upbuilding of Canada, he hoped they would come through the development of diversified manufacturing industries west of the great lakes.

Mr. Beer advocated lower taxes on buildings and improvements, and increased assessments of ground sites, with a special tax on unearned land values.

WHY SHE GREW BUSY.

Jealous Wife Whips Husband's Office Girl.

Kansas City, July 13.—"She was a blonde when I entered the office, but before I was through with her she was a brunette," said Mrs. George C. Burrows, the pretty young wife of a dentist after she had lashed her husband's office girl, once across the bare neck and twenty-five times across the face.

"I had intended waiting until the office was full of patients, but when I entered and saw her kissing the doctor I thought it was time for my cue. I cut her over her bare neck. The doctor stood aside with a look of bewilderment and I let my whip get that office girl in the face. Off came the blonde hair. She got twenty-five lashes."

"Then my husband took the whip away from me, but before I was through, good and plenty. The girl understood, left for her mother's home out of town.

"I will not sue for a divorce. I don't want one, and, of course, I won't live with the doctor again. I'll whip that girl—say, she is taller and heavier than I am, and blonde—every time I see her."

ANOTHER POISON DROP.

Brockville, Ont., July 13.

With Mrs. Graham, who is spending the summer at their Brockville home, was asked his opinion as to the significance of the great liberal victory in Saskatchewan.

"It means just what Mr. Foster said about South Renfrew," said the ex-minister. "It is one more drop (yes a full bottle) of poison injected into the body of the Liberal government, that indicates the beginning of the end."

THE LATEST STANDING IN SASKATCHEWAN.

Liberal Victory Was Sweeping—Only Four Conservatives Sure of Their Seats.

Regina, Sask., July 13.—With conservatives hoping at best to secure only eight of ten seats, and the liberals only conceding four to their opponents, and with some uncertainty still as to whether Opposition Leader Haultain is elected in South Qu'Appelle, a victory, sweeping and decisive for Premier Scott in Saskatchewan, is beyond question. The situation as regards the Liberal party is as follows: Liberals, 40; conservatives, 4; doubtful, 6; deferred, 2; not heard from, 2.

Conservatives claim Lumsden, Maple Creek, Moosejaw City, Moosejaw County, Pipestone, Prince Albert, Rosetown and North and South Qu'Appelle.

BOMBARDED ICEBERGS.

Scout Cruiser Birmingham Demolished Several Monsters.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 13.—Weather and salt-streaked from her eight weeks' summer ice-berg patrol of the Northern Atlantic steamship lines the scout cruiser Birmingham has returned to the Philadelphia navy yard.

The Birmingham went out to find icebergs that were liable to shipping, and icebergs she found by the more attention caused the berg to heel over many degrees. After that the firing dislodged only small fragments of ice and did no serious damage. The largest berg attacked was about 200 feet long, 175 feet wide and eighty feet high above the water.

ARMING AGAINST PLAGUE.

New York, July 13.—Although strict watch has been kept by the health officers at this port for more than two weeks without the slightest trace of invasion of bubonic plague, the quarantine officials continue to fight vigorously against all possibilities. Over one thousand pounds of sulphur were burned in the hold of the steamships Antago from Havana and the Caracas, of the Red Star line, from San Juan, as they lay off the Statue of Liberty with the yellow quarantine flag flying.

It is estimated that thousands of rats, which may have been exposed to plague in West Indian ports, were killed by the sulphur. A few of the rats were caught and sent to the quarantine station for expert examination to determine if they were infected with the plague. Similar precautions are taken with all vessels from the West Indian ports.

The officials seem to agree that there is little danger of invasion of the plague, and think that undue alarm has been caused by the precautions taken, but they propose to keep them up.

Colonel Roosevelt's Characterization of Republicans.

Oyster Bay, N.Y., July 13.—"No honest man who was put up as a republican elector at the primaries last spring can fail to record his vote against Mr. Taft."

This was Col. Roosevelt's reply, yesterday, to the charge that the new party is violating its precept "Thou Shalt Not Steal" by the announced intention of having republican electors in certain states vote for him.

"There is always something refreshing," said he, "when a pickpocket seeks to distract attention from himself by raising the cry 'stop thief' with reference to the man whose pocket he has just picked. I have been immensely amused by the upholders of the fraud of the republican convention speaking about stolen presidential electors. Mr. Taft is not the rank and file of the republican party. Mr. Taft was honestly beaten. He is the fraudulent nominee of the Barnes-Penrose-Guggenheim machine which has nullified the wish of the great majority of the republican party."

"If any elector named at the primaries last spring is to act honestly he must either vote for me or not run for election at all. Mr. Taft is entitled to any elector nominated by Mr. Barnes, Mr. Penrose or Mr. Guggenheim. He is not entitled to any elector nominated by the majority of the republicans in any primaries. It is a flagrant act of dishonesty to ask any such elector to vote for Mr. Taft."
