TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

What Happened a Quarter of a Century Ago.

Chief Engineer Perley, of the public works department, Ottawa, in the city to examine sites for a dry dock. The Yacht Club collected $200 for prizes. The yacht Gracie covered the distance between Halliday's Point and the city in one hour and seventeen minutes. The county clerk forwarded a petition to the governor-general, signed by 1,000 ratepayers of Kingston and Frontenac, praying for protection at the railway crossings. A mare and colt struck by lightning at the outer depot and killed.

Something Crooked Here.

A man from the county was in the city, Friday, looking for the photographer who "took" his picture on July 12th, and who did not send the photos to him, as were the terms of his oral contract. The man who was "done" called at No. 436 Princess street, and asked if the "picture" man lived there. He was assured that he was in the "wrong pew" and then, upon further reference to his notebook, said that the number he was given was 446 on the same street. There is no such number on that street. The 12th of July visitor said that he had paid the photographer who "took" him on the street, fifty cents and postage.

For the Old Boys.

A meeting of the city council committee having in charge the reception of the Old Boys and the programme for the civic holiday, was held in the mayor's office on Friday afternoon. The programme announced two weeks ago was gone over and it was decided to add some aquatic sports for Monday morning, July 29th, in front of Macdonald Park, with Mr. Ross in charge. Various organizations will supply speakers for the flag-raising in the park. The labor unions will be represented.

Death of Michael Hogan.

Michael Hogan, who had been ill a short time, died Friday night. Deceased was fifty years of age, and an Irishman by birth. He was a butcher by trade, and had lived in this city for about twenty-five years, his wife and family now living on Clergy street west. The deceased is survived by his wife, two sons, and three daughters. He was a Roman Catholic in religion.

Drunks Were Fined.

Three drunks were fined $1 and costs in the police court Saturday morning. Two of them were sailors. One of these was arrested by Police Constable Filson, Friday evening, in the City Park. He had been "setting up" before the ladies playing croquet. When he saw the policeman coming his way, he started to "beat it," as best he could.

BOYS FOUND DRUNK

THEY HAD FOUND A BOTTLE OF LIQUOR

And Drank It—They Were Found Near Tete de Pont Barracks. Police Took Them to General Hospital.

A startling case was brought to the notice of the police on Friday afternoon when two boys from ten to twelve years of age were found "dead drunk" in front of Tete de Pont Barracks, on Ontario street. About four o'clock some of the battery men noticed a boy drop on the tracks in front of the barracks, and they brought him into the barracks. Dr. Bogart was called and the police were notified. Police Constables Filson and Armstrong came, and, finding the boys in bad condition, took them to the General Hospital in James Reid's ambulance. Policeman Armstrong was told that another lad had collapsed further down the track and he also was secured and taken to the general hospital in quick order by Roy Shaw, of the Hedley Shaw Milling company.

In one of the boy's pockets Policeman Filson found a pipe and a plug of chewing tobacco. When the lads recovered at the hospital they said they found a bottle of liquor and it tasted so good that they drank it. The boys appeared in the juvenile court before Police Magistrate Farrell Saturday morning, and told some of the details of the "carouse." They were liberated, after sound advice by the magistrate. It appears that two of the boys, one of them was the "tighest" a chum, of ten years of age, not found by the police Saturday evening, found the bottle of whiskey earlier in the afternoon, in a large sack of the Golden Lion block, wrapped in the straw cover. They were naturally inquisitive, and went down around Sowards' coal yard, where the cork was knocked in with considerable difficulty. As the boy crossed the day-market, they were met by the boy who had the tobacco on his person, which he told the police Saturday morning was for his father. Besides the ten-year-old lad, another boy was with the youngsters. The little fellow was also brought to the police station Saturday morning and told, as the others where the bottle was found, that it was not stolen. He said he had a "nip" at it but went home. Both the boys taken in charge by the police, Friday night, were feeling a little "under the weather" on Saturday. They vowed it would be the last drink of whiskey they would take.

HAVING GOOD TIME.

The Report That Comes From the Visitors.

The Y.M.C.A. boys enjoy fishing and swimming and the camp fire. On Wednesday the parents of some of the lads went to see them and a short time was spent at Rockport. That night the ice cream social was a happy event. The Whig's correspondent writes: "The Y.M.C.A. boys furnished most of the programme, and also the noise." On Thursday afternoon W. Birks came to anchor with his beautiful yacht Wanderer. After tea a concert was given by him, by means of his Victrola. After the concert, three dinners were given and the boys went to bed, but only to be roused by a heavy rain storm. The visitors to the camp were met at Rockport by Mr. Wilson and a number of the boys, and were conveyed to Grenadier Island in skiffs, where they were received with open arms by Rev. Mr. Churchill (the cook) and the boys. A number of the boys gave up one of their tents and soon had it in apple-pie order for the visitors. At the sound of the bugle, supper was served to visitors and boys. The cooking and service gave great satisfaction and all praise the weather. Rev. Mr. Churchill and his solicitude for their welfare. There was one item on the bill of fare which they loudly praised, and that was a caramel pudding served at dinner. Mr. Nichol, who has a cottage down the river, sent over ice cream and other delicacies to the boys, and other campers gave them outings on the water. Owing to the steamer on which the Y.M.C.A. boy campers were returning home, Saturday afternoon, from Grenadier Island, being temporarily disabled, they will not arrive until Sunday afternoon.

A UNIQUE BOAT.

Craft is Half Hydroplane, Half Displacement. Capt. Fitz Hunt, Alexandria Bay, assisted by his son, John D. Hunt, has just completed a new motor boat of a unique design. It is the Vlas, of Chicago. The boat is half hydroplane and half displacement. The hull is twenty-two feet over all, is but three feet six inches in beam, and has an 18-25 horse power Sterling engine. At her trial trip she made twenty-five miles an hour. The hull is somewhat of a freak, but Capt. Hunt claims that it is a most successful innovation in the line of boat building. In a short time he expects to have a larger one of the same design for demonstrating purposes. It will have a speed of fifty miles an hour. A patent on the design has been applied for. Capt. Hunt is the builder of many motor boats of note. He constructed in 1910 the Mitt II, owned by J. Harold Hayden, of New York, the present holder, of the celebrated gold challenge cup.

TRIED TO DROWN HIMSELF.

Rockwood Keeper Jumped Into Harbor, But Was Rescued. Great excitement reigned at Rockwood asylum on Thursday evening when a keeper tried to commit suicide. From what can be learned, the man in question had been drinking and on Thursday evening, being somewhat "under the weather," had been put in one of the water baths to try and cure him. He got out and ran down to the shore and jumped in the water, but was rescued. The keeper is an Englishman by birth, having been in this country for a short time.

BURGERS STILL BUSY.

Frontenac Milling Company's Office Was Broken Into.

There are no end of attempted robberies about the city, and all the facts point to their being the work of a local gang. On Thursday night Swift's coal and wood office on Princess street, above Barrie, was broken into and although nothing has been missed, the papers were ransacked and the place showed that the intruders were after cash. This is not the first time that this place has been broken into. The Frontenac Milling company office was broken into on Wednesday night and money and checks amounting to nearly $75 were found missing. This is the only successful robbery that has been reported but reports from all parts of the city show that amateur housebreakers are very active.

MILITARY NOTES.

R.C.H.A. Detachment Instructed Twenty-seven Batteries. The detachment of the R.C.H.A., which acted as a school of artillery instruction at Petawawa this year, instructed twenty-seven batteries of artillery in every phase of artillery work. Among those were five new batteries attending camp for the first time. The work done is without precedent in the history of the north camp, and the general efficiency of the batteries instructed shows that the instructional work was of the highest and best. The new Howitzer batteries recommended in the report of General French are being organized this year, and will be at Petawawa next summer. Q.M.S. Jordan has gone to Petawawa to take the place of Sergt. Major Gimblett, as camp sergeant-major. Mrs. Jordan also left yesterday for camp. Sergt. J. Harris, C.S.C., has returned from Petawawa, where he has spent a part of his holidays.
