

Save When You Can

Save in these good times when money is abundant.

Saving does not consist of making speculative investments in land or fluctuating shares. Savings means putting money in a good bank, where, though it may not earn so much as if placed elsewhere, it is absolutely safe, and is always at your command.

Start a savings account however modest. Choose for the purpose.

A CRUISE TO STELLA

BY THE FLEET OF THE KINGSTON YACHT CLUB.

Temeraire won the Big Yacht Class and the Little Nell won in the Small Class—The Yachtsmen Made Things Lively at Stella.

The fleet of the Kingston Yacht Club left on a cruising race, Saturday afternoon, the objective point being Stella, and a very interesting contest took place. The smaller yachts ran under a special handicap. The Baby Grand and Little Nell starting at 2.30 and the Harmony at 2.57. The two former boats had a hard fight for first place, the Baby Grand maintaining a lead as far as the Brothers, when the Little Nell slipped by and took the lead in the lighter wind, which was blowing then. The veteran skipper of the Baby Grand could not make out just how it happened. One explanation of it is that the Little Nell's first mate was a breeze sailor and supplied the motive power while the Baby Grand, not being a wind instrument, was at a disadvantage. Trouble might have arisen between the two skippers but the Harmony sailed in between them to second place, and the race ended peacefully. The boats reached Stella in the following order:

H. M. S. Little Nell 4 01 0
Harmony 4 54 45
Baby Grand 4 59 45

The large yachts started at 3 p.m., and sailed under L.Y.R.A. time allowance. The Isis sailed a fine race, finishing less than three minutes behind the big Temeraire, and won first place on time allowance. The finish was as follows:

H. M. S. Temeraire 5 1 30
Isis 5 3 0
Kathleen 5 15 45
Tejpa 5 22 30

A large crowd of the young yachtsmen went up with the yachts and in the evening made things lively in Amber Island's peaceful little village. They commended a small coal cart that was on the wharf and did a chariot race stung along the main street, with "Widdle" in the cart as the noble Roman, much to the wonder and amazement of the yachters. The cart was next used as a hand wagon. The "hand" was a mandarin in the hands of the skipper of the Kathleen.

One of the crew of the Baby Grand disappeared as soon as he got ashore and when he reappeared he said that he "happened" to drop into a friend's house when they were at dinner. He happened to do this "same" time about breakfast time next morning—consequently the remainder of the crew had enough to eat for the rest of the trip.

The Kathleen's crew was augmented by the addition of a mascot, in the form of a Black Kitten, which they got some boys to pick up for them in Stella.

It was intended to continue the cruise on Sunday to McDonald's Cove but the heavy rain kept the crews in their cabins until noon, when a start was made for home.

VESSEL WAS HELD UP

For Several Hours in Order to Secure a Fireman.

An example of the great trouble experienced in securing help, was given on Monday morning, in the case of the steamer Huron Cape, which was obliged to remain in port several hours after her time to go, in order to secure a fireman. Marine help is just as scarce as help in other lines. The fireman who was on the job, when the vessel pulled into Kingston, left work, and it was not very easy task to fill the position. After being tied up for a few hours, however, a fireman was secured to fill the bill.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS

By Blow on Head From a Pick Axe.

Samuel Dutton, Barrie street, while at work in an excavation on Saturday afternoon on Barrack street, was knocked unconscious by a blow on the head by a pick. The head of the pick flew off and hit Mr. Dutton, giving him a rather bad cut on the head. He was better on Monday.

Getting Road Pointers.

F. Carrel, proprietor of the Quebec Telegraph, was in the city for a few hours today. He has been covering Ontario roads and will visit New York state roads to secure information to discuss schemes for the improvement of Quebec roads. He found the best roads on the trip just outside of Kingston. The worst roads he found were in the towns and cities he passed through. "I do not wish to criticize," he said, "but the farmers can give the city pointers on road-making. Kingston streets are not at all good." Mr. Carrel left at three o'clock for Prescott.

Robert Mann in Toronto.

Robert Mann, who suddenly disappeared from his home a week ago, Saturday, has been at last located. He wrote his wife, that he was in Toronto with his father, and she will leave for that city to join him.
