The son or daughter who grows up with no knowledge of the value of money, or of thrift, or of a Savings Bank account as a form of thrift, is not wisely prepared for the battle of life.

Money deposited by a son or daughter in a Savings Bank is not lost or spent or misused money. It is always money. immediately available, and always earning interest.

Let your child open a Savings Account with

The act may be the beginning of the formation of a life-long habit of thrift. The experience will be a most useful one, of permanent value.

New York Sun. Something over twenty years ago a passenger train was rolling into Halifax, N.S., In one car was a young man who was to begin his law studies at Dalhousie University. He had already made his arts course there. To him the conductor, who knew him, said: "There's a young fellow in the next car who is all the way from Victoria, British Columbia. He looks tired and lonesome. I think he is going to the university. You had better see

Going to the next car, the prospective law student found a lanky youth coiled up in one of the seats. That was the beginning of a friendship that lasted all through the law course, With the studies over, McBride opened up a law office in British Columbia. The young man cast his fortunes in the far western province. To-day the McBride, of the first introduction is Sir Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia. The other is the Hon. William J. Bowser, the attorney-general of the province.
