WATER EVENTS HELD

BY GANANOQUE YACHT AND CANOE CLUBS.

A Large Crowd Witnessed the Contests on the River—Those Who Won Prizes—Dances Held in the Evening.
 Gananoque, Aug. 15.—Under the auspices of Gananoque Yacht Club and Gananoque Canoe and Motor Boat association, an excellent programme of aquatic sports was pulled off on Wednesday. The committee in charge of the programme comprised: Frederick J. Skinner (chairman), C. A. Watt (secretary), D. Ford Jones, C. A. Lewis, A. W. Taylor, George K. Taylor, C. C. Skinner, S. C. Taylor, to whose efforts the success of the day's doings is to be attributed. There was a large crowd on the river bank throughout the day, and the river was crowded with motor crafts, skiffs, canoes, etc.
 The new house boat built at the Skinner Co's shipyard for the G. Y. C., was anchored out at the starting point, and the Canoe Club float nearer the mouth of Gananoque river. Many excursion parties from surrounding resorts took in the day's proceedings. A goodly representation being in evidence from the A. C. A. at Sugar Island.
 Promptly at 9.45 a.m. the first race, single blade single canoe, was called, finishing—1st, E. C. Kelly, A.C.A.; 2nd, J. Allen, G.C.C.

 Rescue race—Smith and Ahrens.
 Fishing tournament—George Eselborn and F. W. Baldwin.
 Man overboard—1st, J. Allen, G.C.C.; 2nd, T. Cox, A.C.A.
 The prizes were presented at the B.Y.C. club house at 9.30 last evening. Dances followed at both G. Y. C. and G. C. & M. B. association club houses, both being largely attended, a large number of out of town guests and also from A.C.A. camp at Sugar Island and surrounding summer resorts were present. Lee's orchestra furnished the musical programme at both club houses.
 Gananoque fire brigade, in charge of Chief Sweet, left at 8.20 yesterday morning, accompanied by the City's band, to attend the big firemen's demonstration at Napanee. The boys of the old brigade kindly offered their services for the day in case of a call for the brigade's service.

FOUGHT HALF AN HOUR.
 Police Constable Had to Separate Angry Canines.
 Two dogs fought for half an hour in a yard on a street Wednesday afternoon, gave a dozen or more women in the vicinity quite a bad scare, and the animals were not parted until Constable Daniel McCarey, with a citizen, arrived on the scene. A bull dog and a collie figured in the mix-up, and it was with some difficulty that the two were separated. Constable McCarey succeeded in pulling the bull dog off and throwing him over a fence. This ended the "scrap."
GIRL FLOORS A HUGGER.
 Pennsylvania Maiden Lands Hard on Masher's Jaw.
 Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 17.—M. Silverfield, said to be of New York, was arrested here after having almost created a panic among women of certain sections of the city by entering the homes and without any formality embracing them.
 A young woman named Freda Shafer gave him a punch in the jaw that disabled him until the arrival of the police. The hugger said he was in search of a model for his New York studio.
Lives Without Stomach.
 Redding, Cal., Aug. 15.—Living two months without a stomach and never knowing that the organ was missing, was the experience of John Broadhurst, who died near here last night at the age of forty-five years. Broadhurst, who was an engineer, was taken to hospital a little over two months ago, suffering from cancer. Through an operation his stomach was removed and not to discourage the patient, attending physicians did not inform Broadhurst of the nature of the operation. Broadhurst immediately improved, living on fruit juices and a little solid food.
 That she had killed her husband of less than a week with poison to prevent him from changing his will, in which all of his property was left to her, is the theory advanced by the prosecution in the case of Mrs. Frieda Trost, of Philadelphia, Pa.

TUBERCULOSIS HOSPITAL.

A Board Meeting Was Held on Wednesday Afternoon.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Tuberculosis Hospital was held on Wednesday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms. Present—J. C. Campbell (president), B. W. Robertson, Miss Macdonnell, Dr. Kilborn, Col. Duff, Dr. D. E. Mundell, J. A. Minnie, A. J. Macdonnell and J. G. Elliott. Reports were submitted showing the progress made during the month. The expenditure for the month amounted to $5,243.14, with receipts of $85.40.
 The completion of the new building is now approaching. The plastering is almost finished and the carpentering and plumbing far advanced. The excavation for the cess pool has been finished and the drain opened up. The well boring has been discontinued. A valuable mineral well has been secured as a result of these operations. Application has been made to secure fresh water from another source. The extension of the electric line from the city is likely to be carried out by the first of October.
 The date for the formal opening has not been fixed but a committee, of which J. G. Elliott is chairman, will report at the next meeting as to arrangements for the event. The board was particularly gratified to learn of the plans of the ladies of Portsmouth to assist in furnishing the hospital. All the members of the board who are in the city will endeavor to attend the garden party at 2 1/2 last.
