DISSATISFACTION CONTINUES

With the Garbage Collection System -What Should be Done.

The garbage collection service is still the subject of much complaint among the housewives of the city. A citizen complained to the Whig on Tuesday that a neighbor with whom he shares his yard has become so disgusted try ing to get the attention of the gar bage collectors that he has given i up and now throws the garbage into the back yard where it makes a 'ter-While Driving Lady to the G.T.R tible mess. The man is so much in the right that I cannot complain. said he, "but I think something might be done to improve this gar bage system. We were much better of pefore it was started." The fault lies with the city by-law not giving one concern the sole right to collect the
