IN MARINE CIRCLES VERY SUDDEN DEATH

ENDEAVOR TO SECURE LONGER SEASON OF NAVIGATION.

Government Hopes to Come to Terms With Insurance Companies for High Rates After October 30th—Movements of Vessels in and Out of This Port.

It is possible that arrangements will be made with the marine insurance companies to secure an extension of the period in which insurance is granted to vessels on the great lakes.

Report says that the government is planning to have the period of navigation extended a month later than in former years. Marine insurance companies at present refuse to insure vessels after October 30th, owing to the extreme danger to navigation.

It is hoped by the government, however, to make some arrangements whereby, for very high rates, insurance can be secured, and it is thought that should the fall season be reasonably open, it will be quite possible to successfully carry out the scheme and thereby considerably lessen the possibility of a recurrence of the blockade which resulted in so much loss last winter.

Movements of Vessels.

Seven schooners, loaded with coal, a number bound for Oswego, were held up at Oswego, Friday afternoon, owing to a very heavy gale. The steamer Buena Vista ventured out, however, and made the trip to Kingston without mishap. The steamer Buena Vista is loaded with 125 tons of coal, and cleared for Westport, to discharge. This was the first trip of the vessel, since being made into a freight boat.

At Folger's wharf: Steamer Alexandria, up, Friday night; steamer Geyonia, down.

M. T. Co.'s elevator: Tug Emerson, from Welland canal, with two grain barges, cleared for Montreal.

The steamer Stormont, loaded with steel rails, from Sydney, passed, on her way to Fort William.

The steamer Ames passed down, and the steamer Gordon, up, on Saturday.

The steamer Toiler cleared Saturday, for Port Colborne, to load again for Montreal.

The steamer Sowards arrived from Oswego, with coal for Rockwood hospital.

The schooner Julia B. Merrill arrived from Oswego, with coal for Anglin's.

From a message received at Garden Island on Friday night, stated that the steamer Britannic is still ashore at Weaver's Point, below Morrisburg, in spite of nearly a week's efforts by the Calvin and Donnelly Wrecking companies. The plan of operations, which has been followed out this week to pull her off, may have to be abandoned, and another plan undertaken to free the stranded vessel.

The yacht Zafiro, with a party from Montreal, was at the shipbuilding wharf on Saturday.

The government tug Scout coaled at Swift's on Saturday morning, and moved up to the cereal company's wharf.

Swift's wharf: Steamer Toronto, down and up; north wing, down and up; Rideau wing cleared for Ottawa; Rideau King, down from Ottawa.

OF MRS. SAVARY, WIFE OF ST. JAMES' VICAR.

The Deceased Lady Passed Away During Friday Night—Her Home Was in Summerland, B.C.

The shadow of sadness was cast over the community on Saturday morning, when it was learned that Mrs. T. M. Savary, wife of the vicar of St. James' church, had died suddenly during Friday night, and sincere sympathy of many people who had met and learned to love Mrs. Savary during her residence here, extended to the bereaved young husband.

Mrs. Savary was removed to the general hospital late Friday night and gave birth to a child, which is doing well.

The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Neve, of Summerland, B.C. She was married in Winnipeg to Mr. Savary seven years ago, when the latter was serving in an incumbency in that city. Some time afterwards the young couple removed to Kingston, her husband being appointed to the vicarage of St. James', in which parish he had served as a curate before going to the metropolis of the middle west.

Mrs. Savary had entered upon a life of usefulness and blessing, a helpmeet to her husband—a true citizen's wife. She was a child of the Church of England, and had, in St. James', as always, been closely connected with the parochial work.

Besides her husband, and parents, in Summerland, B.C., four brothers and two sisters, survive: Frederick, Constance and Mary, at home in Summerland; Rev. in Calgary, Alta.; Edward, in North Dakota, U.S.A.; and Harold, in Dawson City, Yukon.

Duck Season Opens Sept. 15th.

Many people seem to be under the mistaken impression that the duck season opens on the first of September. The law governing the opening of the duck season provides for an open season for shooting from September in the northern district, which means all north of the C.P.R., in Ontario, and from the 15th of September in the southern, which is taken to mean all land in Ontario, south of the C.P.R., which includes land as far north of here as Smith's Falls. The law will be strictly carried out in this respect and ignorance of the law is no excuse.
