Letters of a Slim Male Woman to Her Fat Sister. First Letter: On the Fatness of "Trusting Down" to a Comfortable Size.

Dear Sis - If you could see me now you'd surely wonder what witchery had wrought the transformation - for you wouldn't recognize your Amazon sister in the gracefully moulded figure sitting here.

Yes, I have a surprise for you - that huge mountain of fat you once knew as a sister is no more - I'm as trim as a body now as you'd meet in a day's walk. And the change is due to a little just plump was so easy, and gradual, and natural, and perfectly harmless that I didn't realize I was taking place.

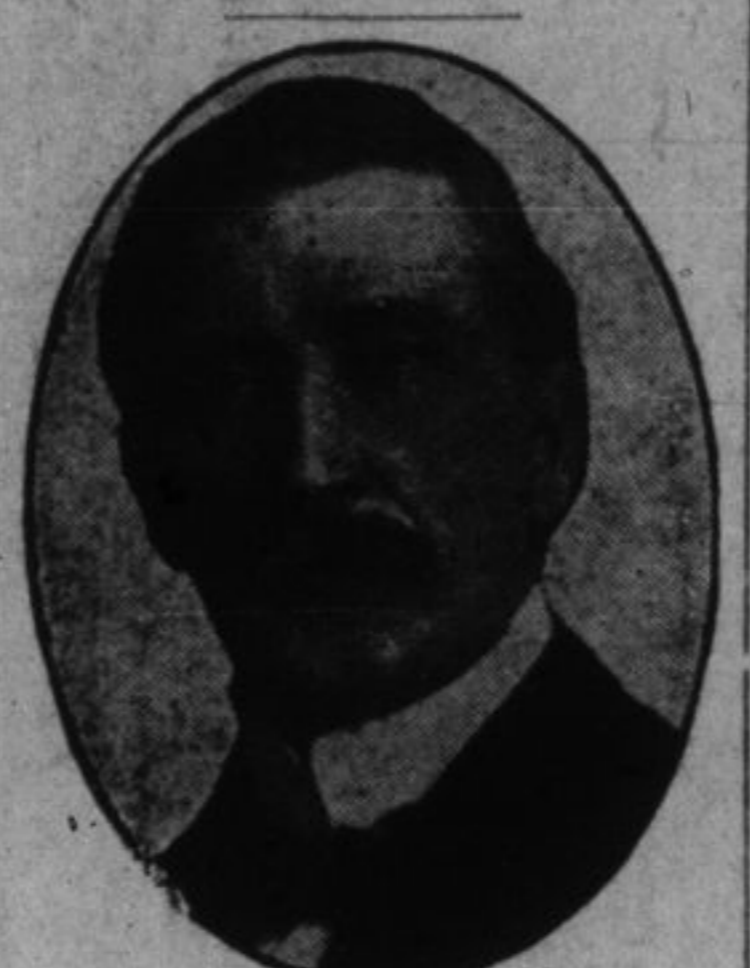

You remember that horrible nightmare that confronted me every day, the physician called it "exercise" - but as I look back on it now I can call it nothing but torture. Lying flat on my back and trying to kick holes through the ceiling with my feet into the air. Standing on my hands on a chair when nothing less than a serrick would lift my heels into the air. Standing with stiff knees and trying to touch my toes with my fingers - and other things as ridiculous. "Exercise"!

INCREASES OF SALARY

MADE BY METHODIST CHURCHES OF DISTRICT

In Response to Committee's Request - Report of Proceedings at District Methodist Financial Meeting.

The Methodist financial district meeting was held in Sydenham Street Methodist church on Thursday. In years past in the session, with one result that very few attended, so the very largely attended meeting on Thursday went to show that it is better to hold the sessions at this season.

The meeting commenced in the morning, with Rev. T. W. Neal, chairman of the district, in the chair. The work of the past year was reviewed, and everything in connection with work of the church had been a success.

The missionary committee, composed of T. F. Harrison, as secretary; Rev. J. Waddell, of Harrowsmith; Dr. C. C. Nash, and Rev. T. W. Neal, which was appointed in May last, has been doing good work. It was decided to add the following names to the list: Rev. M. Taylor, Rev. Dr. Ryckman, the four ministers of the city and a lay representative from each church.

It was proposed to hold a missionary and evangelistic conference in Sydenham Street Methodist church, on October 17th and 18th. If the necessary arrangements can be made, they will be a big banquet in the church hall on October 17th, at which a number of strong speakers will be present.

A year ago the committee considered seriously the subject of ministerial salaries, and at the Methodist conference held here, the same subject was discussed. At the conference a secretary for each district was appointed, Elmer Davis being the secretary for this district. Since that time, Rev. T. W. Neal has visited nearly every circuit in the district, and brought to notice the subject of the minister's salary.

Very nearly every church in the district has felt the great need of increasing the salary, and these following churches have added following amount to the present salaries of their pastors: Queen street, $200; Brock street, $100; Princess street, $100; Cataract church, $150; Varona, $500; Battersay, $300; Inverary, $250; Pittsburgh, $150; Perth Road, $100; Sydenham, $100; Hurrowsmith, $100; Parkin, $65; Portsmouth, $130.

Not the Deering Company. In the Whig's article on Thursday regarding the arrest of G. H. Arthur it was stated that the charge was laid by the Deering Implement company. The charge was, however, sworn to by W. C. Croome of the Barrie Carriage company of Barrie, Ont. Mr. Arthur is the local agent for the Deering company and his relations with that concern are quite free from complications.

Portsmouth School Board. The Portsmouth school board held its first session of the fall term, on Thursday night and arranged for some matters pertaining to the work of the year, mostly of a routine nature. The chairman, Thomas McCammon, presided, and the other members present were Trustees William Kerr, A. McIvor, Frank Nicholson and James McMaster.
