CORNETT-MCLEAN NUPTIALS. Took Place on Thursday Afternoon at Melbourne, Ont.

The residence of Gilbert McLean, Melbourne, Ont., was the scene of a pretty wedding Thursday afternoon, September 12th, when Miss Ethel May, was united in marriage to W. F. Cornett, B.A., M.D., of St. Thomas.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. D. Cornett, M.A., B.D., brother of the groom, in the drawing room, which was specially decorated with asters and autumn leaves.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was beautifully gowned in ivory charmeuse satin, trimmed with pearls and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Laura McLean, who acted as bridesmaid, wore a pretty girlish gown of pale pink satin with crystal trimmings, and carried pink roses, while John T. Findlay, St. Thomas, supported the groom.

The wedding march was played by Miss Edna McColl, of London, cousin of the bride. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served and the usual toasts were made and responded to.

The groom's gift to the bride was a superb pair of pearls; to the bridesmaid a pearl ring; and silver cuff links to the groom. The bridal couple were the recipients of many exquisite gifts.

Among the out of town guests present were: Mrs. R. J. Cornett and Walter G. Cornett, of Kingston, Ont.; Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Woods, Mrs. A. Wilkerson and Miss Nan Wilkinson, of Cheltenham, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Walker, Chatham; Mr. and Mrs. J. McKay, Erie; Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wright and Miss Lenore Wright, Mrs. K. Pepper and Miss Margaret Peart, of St. Thomas.

Dr. and Mrs. Cornett left for a short trip on the lakes, the bride travelling in a smart blue tailored suit and white felt hat. On their return they will reside at 150 Wellington street, St. Thomas.

CLOSE OF THE SHOW. Public School Children's Exercises on Exhibition.

The Horticultural show was brought to a close on Friday evening. The crowd present was larger than last year and altogether the show was a bigger success than ever.

During the evening a musical programme was rendered by the Sydenham street male quartette, J. D. Banker and Miss May Hinkley, the numbers being warmly applauded.

Children's books were on exhibition at the show. The books are an example of the movement work done by the public school children from day to day and certainly show that they are advancing under the able direction of Miss Barney, the writing teacher. No prizes were given to the children as the books were only placed there for exhibition.

The pupils exhibiting were: Gertrude Tolhurst, Doris Coward and Pearl Cassell, of senior first, Frontenac; Frank Chapman, Laura Wilson, Emma Bristow, of Frontenac II class; John Montgomery, of Louise II class; Marion Seale, of junior III, Frontenac; Harriet Karl, of junior III, Frontenac; Helena Weir, Russell Shea, Gladys Saunders, Violet Millner, Jessie Cattermole, Gertrude Peters, Jennie Bosprey and David Godman, of junior IV, Louise; Wilfrid Lockett, senior IV, Louise.

THE SPORT REVIEW

TORONTO WINS WHILE ROCHESTER IS DEFEATED.

The Maple Leafs Look to Have the International Baseball League Championship Clinched.

The Toronto baseball team won its third consecutive victory over Montreal on Friday, and has got a hold on the International league championship.

That Rochester will have hard work in breaking for Ganel's Hustlers lost to Buffalo, a team which, in the last stages of the league schedule, has been a stumbling block to both Toronto and Rochester.

Toronto has now a lead of four games, with eight more to play, and all at home. All it has to do is to win four of the eight and it will have the championship.

Baseball on Friday. International league—Toronto, 7; Montreal, 6; Buffalo, 5; Rochester, 3; Jersey City, 7; Providence, 3.

American league—Cleveland, 10; Philadelphia, 2; Chicago, 2; New York, 0; Boston, 6; St. Louis, 2; Detroit, 9; Washington, 8.

National league—Cincinnati, 5; Brooklyn, 4; Chicago, 3; Boston, 2; Pittsburgh, 6; Philadelphia, 5; New York, 3; St. Louis, 2.

Notes on Sports. A week from to-day the International Baseball League race is scheduled to close.

President John H. Farrell has decided the New York State Baseball League pennant controversy in favor of Utica against Wilkesbarre. His decision states that Utica has won a clean-cut victory.

"Tom" Clancy says that the Inter provincial games in Ottawa will be overshadowed by those of the Inter collegiate unless the troubles there are patched up immediately.

The Canadian Northern railway team, lacrosse champions of Winnipeg, who left for Vancouver on Saturday for the Mann cup, received a gift of $2,000 from Sir William MacBain to defray expenses.

The first real money in a big amount to be bet on the world series baseball games made its appearance when a Boston broker deposited $5,000 to bet that the Red Sox would not be defeated by the New York Giants.

The dates of the Minto cup lacrosse matches on the coast have been changed to October 1st and 3rd, instead of September 21st and 23rd. This announcement came shortly before the Cornwall team were ready to start and their journey across the country will be delayed in consequence until Wednesday next.

Ottawa Free Press: A new coach for the Ottawa Big Four team crop up in the person of "Jack" Williams, one of the greatest strategists the Canadian gridiron has produced.

William was approached on the subject and was favorable to playing and coaching in an honorary capacity. He says he has played as an amateur for so long a period he might as well remain actively interested in athletics.

HAD LEG TAKEN OFF. Robert Gates Met With Awful Accident on Steamer Alexandria.

The members of the crew of the steamer Alexandria, which was in port on Saturday morning, reported a very serious accident which occurred to one of the deckhands, Robert Gates, who lives at Erie near this city.

In a mix-up with the lines, on leaving Toronto, on Friday, Gates was caught, and as a result one leg was severed at the thigh. Gates is about thirty years of age, and is known to many Kingstonians.
