Aged Convict Seeks Revenge. Rome, Sept. 17.—In 1872 a barber was murdered in Rome by his assistant, whom he had dismissed. The assassin, Celestino Gregori, who was defended by the famous statesman, then an active criminal lawyer, was sentenced to life-long imprisonment, but after serving 40 years he recently received a free pardon from the king.

Although now 72 years of age and broken down in health, Gregori's first thought was to proceed to Rome in order to wreak vengeance on one of the witnesses who had procured his condemnation. After several days of patient stalking, he fell upon his victim with a dagger, inflicting wounds which were fortunately not fatal, owing to his excitement and great weakness.

On being arrested Gregori said that he would gladly have ended his days in prison if he could only have accomplished his vendetta.

ON OPERATING TABLE.

Man Betrothed to Girl Has Leg Cut Off.

Geneva, Sept. 17.—While in hospital awaiting an operation an interloper and with the surgeons actually waiting to do their work, a Swiss named Bauer was "officially" engaged to a wealthy young girl of the same town.

Heier, a handsome young man, while taking part in some open air acting, was thrown from his horse and his leg was so severely injured that the doctors decided to amputate it.

Bauer at the last moment expressed a wish to see a girl, with whom he had fallen in love and who reciprocated his feelings. The girl was sent for, and, before the doctors and nurses, the couple were "officially" engaged.

After the fiancée had been led away the surgeons operated.

Married at Enterprise.

Enterprise, Sept. 17.—We were visited with quite a heavy frost on Monday night. J. S. Miller, of Manitoba, Man., spent a few days in our midst. He was a former resident and cheesemaker of Centreville, having moved away over twenty years ago. Quite a number of the fair held at St. Tamworth and Centreville. W. H. Vaneast secured some first prizes. The quarterly meeting of the Fifth Lake and Enterprise circuit of the Free Methodist Church will be held in Keech's Hall, commencing on Friday night of this week, Sept. 20th, and continuing over Sunday, George Fenwick of this place, and Miss Edna Martin, of Strathcona, were united in marriage on Thursday of last week. They left for Chicago to visit the groom's relatives and were accompanied by Miss Beattie Fenwick, sister of the groom. Fred Harkness, a former resident of Tamworth, called here on Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Simmons and daughter, Helen, spent Sunday last at J. L. Louck's. Fred J. Smith has moved in Mrs. Huffman's house. Mrs. H. McWagar spent Sunday last at her daughter's, Mrs. A. Walker. Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Wagar and daughter, Ruth, spent Sunday at German Wagar's. Hugh Hinchey spent the last month visiting relatives at Tamworth. Joe Donaghy, and Miss McKeown, of Deshond, were married at Centreville last week. Dr. A. B. Carscallen, accompanied by his niece, Blanche Husband, went to Toronto, on Saturday last, to spend a few days. Herb Thompson, injured at Maribank in the spring, and who has been in the hospital since, has so far recovered as to be able to be brought home. He is now at his father-in-law's, Wm. Park's, of this place.

At Marysville, Tyendinaga.

Marysville, Tyendinaga, Sept. 16.—The many friends of Mrs. James Brickley will be pleased to hear that she is gaining as well as could be expected after the serious operation she had undergone in the Hotel D. Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. John Fahey arrived home on Monday of last week, after spending a few days in Toronto attending the exhibition. Owing to the recent rains the farmers are labouring under difficulties. Miss Lizzie Sheehan, of Westbrook, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John C. Meagher. Miss Marie Carroll, of Ottawa, recently visited her grandfather, John Drumme. A large number from here attended the Shannonville fair on Sunday last. A baby girl has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Reid.

Leo Lake Locals.

Leo Lake, Sept. 15.—Farmers have finished their harvesting and the whistles of the threshing machine can be heard. School resumed on September 3rd, with Miss Helena Hart, of Oates, as teacher. Robert Webb is attending the Ottawa fair. Mrs. I. Woods and son, Russell, who have spent the last few weeks renewing acquaintances, left for their home in Winnipeg. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Bower spent the week-end in Kingston. T. Donnelly, who has been visiting his old home, returned to Rochester; J. Keyes and Miss L. Murphy and Lena Joyce are visiting at A. Donnelly's; Misses Anna Forrester and Mary Ann Tierney, in Kingston.

Making Himself at Home.

Boris was radiant over a recent addition to the family and rushed out of the house to tell the news to a passing neighbor.

"Oh, you don't know what we've got upstairs?"

"What is it?"

"It's a new baby brother!" and she settled back upon her heels and folded her arms to mark the effect.

"You don't say so! Is he going to stay?"

"I guess so"—very thoughtfully.

"He's not his things off."

C. F. Robinson, Trenton, has taken over the Windsor hotel in Belleville. The former landlord is retiring, after thirty-three years' service.

"Buy Lax-a-Cold," at Gibson's. You may fail, but you might try to love your neighbor as yourself.
