Happenings in the City and Vicinity—What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

"Boy Castoria," at Gibson's. William Swaine, piano tuner. Orders received at McAuler's. Phone 564. Surely this is a new series of rain storms—equinoctial they call them. A. Cunningham, piano tuner, 21 King street. Leave orders at McAuler's book store. It is likely that Queen street Methodist church will have its re-opening services on Oct. 13th. "Four headache powders, 10c." Gibson's. T. H. Wilkinson of Hamilton, who is well known in this city, is visiting here for a few days. "Buy seditious powders," Gibson's. Fiske O'Hara, the actor, was entertained at the Knights of Columbus Hall by the Knights on Sunday. Buy Belladonna plasters, Gibson's. There are many visitors to the Nowat Memorial hospital. The work of fitting it up is progressing favorably. "Buy toilet waters," Gibson's. H. S. Morgan of the Ordnance Corps, will leave shortly for England, and will shortly for England to take a course. "Buy headache plasters," Gibson's. Mrs. J. S. McIntyre, Brock street, and Miss Nellie Scott, of Litchfield, Conn., have returned from a lake trip to Toronto and Hamilton. "Buchu kidney pills," at Gibson's. The equinoctial gale struck us on good time this year. Sunday was a very heavy day and Monday windy and rainy. "Buy toilet waters," Gibson's. Rev. Mother Farrell and Sister St. Charles of Hotel Dieu, left for Chicago on Saturday to visit the Sisters at St. Bernard's Hospital. "Buy toilet waters," Gibson's. It is said that Kingston will show a good increase in its assessment valuation this year. How do you think population will go? "Four headache powders, 10c." Gibson's. Only two cases of contagious diseases were reported to the medical health officer last week. Both were typhoid cases contracted outside the city. "Buy toilet waters," Gibson's. Rev. G. I. Campbell thinks, moving picture shows have a very helpful influence on the morals of young people. He would have them more rigorously censored. "Buchu kidney pills," at Gibson's. Brockville school trustees refuse to resort to modern methods of election, at the time of the municipal elections. They cling to the old form of open voting and on their own election day. "Four headache powders, 10c." Gibson's. The Toronto Star says: Sir Richard Cartwright has had to undergo another operation. The last previous one came a year ago when Sir Richard had his cabinet office cut out. "Buchu kidney pills," at Gibson's. The new Colborne Hotel at Thousand Island Park, to replace the burned structure, will not be ready for occupancy until the summer of 1914. It has been decided by the directors that the work shall not be started until next spring. Buy Belladonna plasters, Gibson's. In these days of the dictograph it is refreshing to find a story in which it doesn't work. Such a one is John A. Moroso's "Silent Mr. Forester." It is another exploit of that refreshingly humorous, detective, Bonthead Tierney. "Buy seditious powders," Gibson's. Donald Hamilton Haynes has an unusual story in the October Red Book Magazine. It tells the result of an error made by a workingman in a cartridge factory, who fails to put powder in the cartridges in three boxes, with the exception of one last cartridge. The story then follows the fate of the men who buy these boxes of cartridges and depend upon them to save their lives and their property.

Police Constable Called. There was a lively time, at a home on Russell street, Monday morning, and a call was made upon the police, to restore order. It was a family row in which certain furniture, etc., was claimed by members of the family. Constable Arnel was sent to the scene, and succeeded in having the matter settled, satisfactorily to both parties, and there will be no session of the police court.

Lad in the Toils. A lad, about nine years of age, living on Russell street, who ran away from his home, and was located at Glenburnie, was taken to the police station, by his father, and his case will be looked after by J. C. McConachie, of the Children's Aid society.

Cruise of the Yachtsmen. A number of the yachtsmen of the club took a trip to Clayton, and return, on Sunday, with the strong wind, making extra good time on the yacht Temeraire. The start was made from the city at 11.30 o'clock. Dinner was partaken at Clayton, and the "sailors" arrived at six o'clock, "in time for church."

Best's Short Stop, 15c. Rev. Father Murchan testified in Toronto in favor of the action of Rev. R. B. St. Clair in the immoral literature case. He said he would head a mob to burn down a certain Toronto burlesque house.

Best's Short Stop Cold Tablets clear the head and stop the cold in one day. Since Saturday 802 immigrants have arrived at Toronto.

Fifteen hundred schoolboys went on strike in New York because their favorite movies were transferred. Police arrested leaders. "Kodak supplies," Gibson's.
