Meeting of Epworth League.

Athens, Sept. 23.—W. G. Johnston has been appointed clerk of works on the new post office. He succeeds the late Robert Taber. Preparations are under way to construct more granite sidewalks. A company of English hand-bell ringers gave an excellent entertainment in the town hall on the evening of September 13th. The Hulme family entertainers are billed to appear here. The Epworth League had a social evening Monday night, when Miss E. Bottomley read a report of the Pointe-aux-Lacs summer school. There were other literary and musical numbers. Rev. W. Montgomery has been at Kemptonville, attending the sessions of the presbytery. Rev. W. Westell, pastor of the Baptist church, is announced to speak on "The Obligation of the Church." Rev. W. Westell spoke last night, in the Baptist church, on "The Obligation of the Church to Preach the Gospel to All Nations." Yesterday was Sunday school rally day in the Methodist church. The principal feature of the afternoon session was a talk by C. McLean, Brockville. There is to be a harvest thanksgiving service in Christ church on the evening of September 27th, also on the following Sabbath. Very Rev. E. J. Bidwell, D.D., dean of Ontario, is announced as speaker on that occasion. Rev. W. C. Giles, B.D., East Orange, N.J., was heard with pleasure and profit in two excellent addresses in the Methodist church recently. He has been an annual visitor to Charleston Lake for about thirty years and usually speaks in a local church at least once during his stay in Canada.

Wedding at Myers' Cave.

Myers Cave, Sept. 23.—School re-opened on the 3rd. Miss Quinn, teacher, has been engaged again. Owing to such long continued wet weather, the farmers in this vicinity are unable to harvest their late grain. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perry are taking in the Napanee fair this week and visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Perry, Centerville. John Curtis, who has been visiting friends in and around Napanee for the past few days, returned home on Thursday. Henry and Mitchell Dellyea left on Tuesday for Healy's Falls, near Campbellford. James Curtis, who has been working near Napanee for the past five months, returned home on Thursday last. The annual harvest home dinner, in connection with Harlowe Methodist church, was held in Miller's Grove, Harlowe, on the 10th inst. George Connor has completed the bridge across the river at Myer's Cave. The bridge is a fine piece of workmanship and adds greatly to the beauty of the locality. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, Lake View, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray, Harlowe, on Sunday last. W. Thompson, who has been spending a few days at Ivanhoe, returned home. Miss Maggie Salmon, youngest daughter of W. Thompson, was quietly married on Wednesday last, the 18th inst., to Alfred Page, a prosperous young farmer of Verona. Mr. and Mrs. C. McGregor are spending the week visiting friends in and around Napanee. Mrs. Edgar Bishop and son, Frank, spent Friday last at the Cave, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Perry.

A Desmond Bride.

Dundas, Sept. 24.—The Church of St. Anthony of Padua, Centerville was the scene of a happy event on Monday, September 24th, when Miss Catherine, daughter of Henry M. Brown, Desmond, became the bride of Joseph D. Donohue, Enterprise.

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Miss Evelyn Flanagan, of London. Rev. J. J. McKeown officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Margaret McKee, while Vincent Donohue, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony, the bridal party accompanied by friends and relatives, who witnessed the nuptials, drove to the home of the bride's parents, where a sumptuous repast was awaiting them. The bride was gowned in cream silk of the over cream tulle, with pearl ornaments, chonille fringe and rose Irish lace, with white picture hat to match. The bride's dress was blue mesaline silk with pearl trimmings and large black picture hat.

The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful gold band bracelet with time top; to the bridesmaid, a gold bracelet set with amethysts, and to the best man, a gold watch chain with a horn. The high esteem in which the happy couple are held, was shown by the many costly and beautiful presents received. After partaking of a dainty luncheon, the bride and groom left for a trip to Watertown and other points. The bride's going-away gown was of tweed with black silk and button trimmings, and black velvet hat with ostrich plumes.

Their many friends extend their best wishes for a bright and happy future. Guests were present from Kingston, Napanee, Marysville, London and North Bay.

Better Dinners

"Is dinner ready, Mary?"

"Yes, Madam—it is ready, and, I think, a great success."

"Your cooking is improving."

"Well perhaps it is, and I hope so, but really Mrs. Housewife, I think our new Gurney-Oxford is partly responsible for the success I have had lately. I was never able to cook roasts and fowl so well on our old stove, and as for bread and biscuits, I used to tremble when I went to take them from the oven—they were so often soggy and heavy. Now they are always light and beautifully brown, and, if I do say it myself, something to be proud of."

"That's true, Mary, my husband has said almost the same thing. I'm awfully glad you approve of my choice of a Gurney-Oxford. He approves because of the saving in coal since we got it, also because of the better meals he is getting."

"Indeed he's right Madam—and it requires so little attention."

"That's fine. Will you serve dinner in a few minutes please."
