HIGH SCORING DONE

AT CIVILIAN RIFLE ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEET.

Staff-Sergt. E. W. Skinner and Lieut. W. H. Swaine each made 102 in the All-Comers' Match.

The annual prize meet of the civilian rifle association took place on Saturday commencing at 8.30 in the morning and continuing until dark. The scores made throughout the day were very high, many possibilities being recorded, the weather conditions, while more or less unfavorable, did not seem to bother the marksmen very much as the high scores given below indicate.

Staff-Sergt. W. A. Johnston was the winner of the grand aggregate. A team from the 14th Regiment P.W.O. Rifles, won the first four places in the all-comers' match.

Staff-Sergt. E. W. Skinner and Lieut. W. E. Swaine attained 102 points, the highest reached on the Barrielfield ranges. Sergt. Skinner made this same score a few weeks ago.

The 14th Regiment won the team match, the civilian members of the K.R.A. second; R.M.C. staff third, and the second team of the K.R.A. fourth.

Women's Suits Above the Average

To raise the quality without raising the price that is what our aim is. To provide for women and young girls Winter Suits and Coats that will make them feel a little better dressed than the average when they wear them.

Working for years with this aim in view, it is not surprising that we should get interesting results.

And so we invite you to come To-Morrow and pick out your Fall or Winter Suit or Coat from a stock that is not only larger but better than we have ever shown,

Fall Suits, $15, 16.50, 18.50

And so on through a long list to $30.

New Coats In Smart, New Styles

$10 to $30.

You are at liberty to choose any Suit, Coat or Skirt, and if not ready to buy have it placed aside until required

CELEBRATED HIS RELEASE.

Frederick Verne, Ont., of Central Prison, Arrested Here. Frederick Verne, who claims Montreal as his home, was released from the Central prison on Saturday, after serving a short term. He celebrated his release in strong drink and while coming down on the train became so disorderly that the conductor telephoned to Kingston and had the police on hand to take him in charge. The magistrate gave the accused a chance, and asked him to try and keep from drinking liquor. Another drunk was fined $1 and costs.

"Pinol Cough Syrup." Gibson's.

Another effort is to be made to pull the steamer Britanic off the shoal at Weaver's Point, below Morrisburg. The Calvin Wrecking company will do the work.
