ITALIANS LAY BLAME THE GAME AT BOSTON

FOR BALKAN OUTBREAK ON SIR EDWARD GREY.

Leading Rome Papers Say That His Passion for Dangerous Intriguing is Endangering the Peace of Europe.

Rome, Italy, Oct. 9.—Leading Italian papers who are largely sympathetic with their erstwhile enemy, Turkey, in the Balkan embroglio, are to-day blaming Sir Edward Grey, British foreign minister, for failure to prevent actual hostilities in the Balkan states. They say his passion for dangerous intriguing in diplomacy is constantly endangering the peace of Europe. The feeling in Austria is that European diplomats will now have trouble in confining the war to the Balkans.

Will be Hideous War.

New York, Oct. 9.—A London cable to the Tribune this morning says that expert military opinion says the war in the Balkan states will be one of hideous and perhaps unexampled ferocity, and whichever side is successful, the peace of Europe will be definitely imperilled.

Garibaldi Offers His Services.

Athens, Oct. 9.—General Ricciotto Garibaldi, who fought for Greece against Turkey in 1897, has again offered his services to the government.

A General Conflagration.

Paris, Oct. 9.—A general conflagration in the Balkans is expected by officials here within forty-eight hours. Montenegro's declaration of war against Turkey is regarded merely as the beginning, it is believed the other units in the Balkan coalition will follow suit as soon as the mobilization of their armies is complete. There is only a faint hope now that the representatives of the powers will avert general hostilities.

Montenegro's move is considered in Paris to be all a part of a prearranged plan. It is asserted that Greece was first selected by the Balkan confederation to force the issue and inaugurate the war.

This could easily have been done by Greece by seizing in the Greek Parliament the deputies from Crete, which was certain to prove a causa belli to Turkey. Greece, however, declined to accept responsibility for starting the flame of battle.

Serbia and Bulgaria Allied.

London, Oct. 9.—That Serbia and Bulgaria are now officially in alliance with Montenegro in the declaration of war against Turkey was evidenced, today, when it was announced that King Ferdinand, of Bulgaria, with a well-trained army, was hurrying southward to take command of the allied Balkan troops. There was considerable skirmishing on the Turkish boundary lines.

KILLED AT GLENVALE.

Wellington Tottliff, of Glenvale, fell off a load of hay on Wednesday morning at eleven o'clock, near his home, and was killed. James Reid & Sons received word of the accident, and were notified to take charge of the remains.

It is understood that Mr. Tottliff suffered from heart failure, that he was taken with a weak spell, and fell off the load, receiving injuries which caused his death. He was dead when found. Deceased was fifty-six years of age.

GENERAL PLOT OF CONVICTS

To Escape From the Penitentiary at New Westminster, B.C.

New Westminster, B.C., Oct. 9.—An inquest into the death of Guard Johnson, killed by escaping convicts, revealed the fact that there was a general plot of the convicts, including several murderers, to make good their escape. This plot was frustrated by the courageous work of the guard who lost his life at his post of duty.

IN THE SECOND OF THE WORLD'S BASEBALL SERIES.

The Game Was Played at Boston, Wednesday Afternoon — Wood Responsible for Boston's Victory on Tuesday.

New York 0 1 0 1 0 0
Boston 3 0 0 1 0 0

Boston, Mass., October 9.—Snappy weather and prospects for a great crowd and a fine game in the world's championship at Fenway Park were assured this morning. Independent opinion this morning naturally favored the Red Sox for the series now. Manager John McGraw says he and his Giants are not at all discouraged. The fight has only begun. Manager Jake Stahl says his Sox can repeat yesterday's victory times enough to cinch the pennant.

"Christy" Mathewson and other New York veterans attribute their defeat yesterday to Wood's superb pitching. W. A. Hewitt, Canadian sporting writer, inclines to the view that Wood was practically responsible for the victory. With somebody else pitching, Mr. Hewitt seems to think the results will be different.

The weather at 1:30 o'clock was threatening, but it was believed the rain would hold off till the game was played.

This was practically a half holiday for old Boston and those who could not get seats in the ball grounds here took up their positions early in front of the newspaper bulletin boards to get fresh results of the game. The line-up will be:

Boston—Hooper, r. t.; Yorks, 2 b.; Speaker, t.; Lewis, l. t.; Gardner, 3 b.; Stahl, 1 b.; Wagner, s.; Carrigan, c.; Collins, p.

New York—Snodgrass, j. l.; Doyle, 2 b.; Becker, c. l.; Murray, r. t.; Merkle, b.; Herzog, 3 b.; Meyers, c.; Fletcher, s.; Mathewson, p.

Umpires—Klein, Evans, Rigler and O'Loughlin.

First Innings: Giants—Snodgrass batted second half pitched into left field bleachers for double. Doyle fanned. Becker was thrown out at first by Yerkes. Snodgrass going to third, Murray grounded out, Collins to Stahl. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston—Hooper scratched, hit between Doyle and Merkle, Mathewson defecing if. Hooper then stole second. Yerkes was rage when Fletcher dropped his fly. Speaker bunted towards third, catching the Giants flat-footed, and the bases were full. Lewis grounded to Herzog, whose quick throw to Meyers forced Hooper at the plate. Doyle retired Gardner at first, Yerkes scoring on the play. Stahl singled through Herzog, scoring Speaker and Lewis. Wagner flew out to Doyle. Three runs, three hits, one error.

Second Innings: New York—Merkle struck out. Herzog smashed a triple to deep right centre, sliding in before the return. Meyers' drive down third base line took a bad bound, striking Gardner in the face. He was almost knocked out, and lay on his face while Herzog scored. Hooper got Fletcher's fly. Mathewson forced Meyers. Yerkes to Wagner. One run, two hits, one error.

Boston—Gardner, Becker grounded out via Herzog. Carrigan grounded out via Herzog. Hooper doubled down right foul line through Merkle. Yerkes out, Fletcher to Merkle. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Innings: New York—Snodgrass batted to Hooper. Doyle fouled out, to Gardner. Becker grounded out, Wagner to Stahl. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Merkle jumped in the air to knock down Speaker's liner, and beat him to first. Lewis flied to Murray. Gardner grounded out, Doyle to Merkle. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Innings: New York—Murray tripped to right centre, over Hooper's head. Merkle fouled to Gardner. Herzog hit a sacrifice fly to Speaker. Murray scoring. Meyers' grounder was too hot for Wagner and it went as a single. Fletcher lined out to Hooper. One run, two hits, no errors.

Boston—Stahl, Becke, fanned. So did Snodgrass. Doyle flied to Lewis. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Collins batted. Hooper lined single to centre, his third to day. The sun came out and Murray and Snodgrass interchanged positions, the latter going to right. Fletcher dropped Meyers' throw and Hooper was safe at second. Yerkes tripped to centre, scoring Hooper. Speaker lined to Fletcher, who threw to Herzog, doubling Yerkes at third. One run, two hits one error.

Sixth Innings: New York—Becker grounded. Yerkes to Stahl. Murray again singled to right. Merkle flew out to Speaker. Murray was caught trying to steal second, Carrigan to Wagner. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Boston—Lewis singled to short, too hot for Fletcher. Gardner sacrificed, Mathewson to Merkle. Lewis going to second. Merkle dropped Stahl's high foul back off first, and gets an error. Mathewson threw Stahl out. Lewis going to third. Wagner was touched out on the base line by Mathewson. No runs, one hit, one error.

SHOT WHILE DUCK HUNTING.

An Accident to Richard McGeein, of Portsmouth.

Richard McGeein, a young man employed in the Locomotive Works, and whose home is in Portsmouth, was accidentally shot while duck hunting at the foot of Amherst Island, on Monday afternoon. He and George Wood, of William street, were together. The former was walking in front when the gun of the latter went off accidentally. Some of the shot entered the left hand of Mr. McGeein. The two young men returned to the city and Dr. Robert Bantry attended the injured hunter at the Hotel Dieu, where the shot was removed. Mr. McGeein returned to his home. He had a narrow escape from fatal injury.
