

Nerves and Success.

Your health, success and happiness depend upon the care you take of your nerves. Weak nerves cause worry, and worry is the father of fear, and worry falls on the face and bars the road to success.

Warner's Safe Nerve

is an efficient tonic of rare merit for overworked, run-down men and women. It acts directly on the nerve centres and has no equal for insomnia, nervous headache, neurasthenia, nervous dyspepsia, falling memory, etc.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

DISPOSED OF ROUTINE BUSINESS IN RECORD TIME.

Twenty-minute Session Cleared the Slate—Reports of Committees Passed—A Reduction in the Fees.

The board of education held a record session, on Thursday evening, disposing of all the business on the slate in twenty minutes. Apart from the reports of committees, there was very little business. The reports of committees were passed, with practically no discussion whatever. In the absence of Chairman J. B. Walkem, Robert Meek was voted to the chair, on motion of Trustee Craig. The other members present were Trustees Edward Linnett, James Craig, J. M. Farrell, James Henderson, F. G. Lockett, W. H. Macnee, A. W. McLean, William Peters, Dr. A. W. Richardson, William A. Sawyer, Robert Wallace, and W. J. Renton.

Lizzie R. Hughson asked for a position on the kindergarten teaching staff and her request was sent to committee. The secretary notified the members that he had received a cheque for $50 from B. W. Robertson, the amount to be used for a writing competition, as in former years. The management committee reported as follows:

That no action be taken on the request of Lily Mabae, public school teacher, for an increase of salary. A schedule regarding public school teachers' salaries was adopted by the board in January last.

That after the close of the present school year the board supply no text books to pupils other than readers, and that the finance committee be requested to reduce the fees accordingly. Readers are the only text books which are not passed on from pupil to pupil. The other text books are retained by the board and loaned to pupils, as required, year after year, until worn out, a system which is certainly unsanitary and a menace to the health of the children. In addition to these facts, it might be stated that the pupils can now buy text books as cheaply as they can be secured by contract, hence there would be no financial benefit in continuing the present system.

That the request of R. M. Chase, of the Collegiate Institute staff, that his salary be increased from $1,300 to $1,400 instead of to $1,300, as provided by the schedule, be granted, inasmuch as he is principal's assistant and his position involves duties not performed by other assistants; the increase to date from September, 1912. The maximum for Mr. Chase's position is $1,400. The property committee reports, as follows:

Your committee had a conference with an executor of the estate of the late J. Y. Parkhill, as requested in a communication to the board, regarding the leasing of the quarters now occupied by the board offices and domestic science department. The old lease, whose terms were for five years at a rental of $225 per year and taxes, expired on August 31st last. It is recommended that another lease for five years be taken at a rental of $230 per year, the owner to pay the taxes. Last year the taxes amounted to $63.

Regarding W. J. Savage's reference to the contract for school building the committee exercised its judgment in accordance with the terms under which tenders are invited, and the board accepted and acted upon its recommendation.

The property committee also reported that all the contracts connected with Macdonald school had been completed with the exception of the painting by T. Milo, and the accounts paid.

Trustee Lockett said it was most pleasing to know that the new school had been erected with but few "extras".

Trustee Macnee reported that the sum of $9,000 had been secured from the council, for the sanitary improvements at Louise, Cataragui and Rideau schools and that the sum of $8,692.45 had been used.

"And what about the balance?" asked the chairman. Trustee Peters suggested that the balance be devoted towards improving the grounds at Cataragui school. He declared that the grounds at the school were a disgrace to the board.

Trustee Richardson backed up Trustee Peters in the matter, stating that the "mud holes" at Cataragui school should be attended to.

Later on, a motion of Trustee Peters and Richardson was passed, which called upon the property committee to take up the matter of improving the grounds at Cataragui school.

Trustee Peters drew the attention of the board to the fact that some of the children at Cataragui school had been allowed to play on the fire escapes on the school. He felt that it was a very dangerous practice for the children to indulge in. No action was taken.

The report of Inspector Stuart for the month of September, showed a total enrollment of 2,328, and this 110 more than in 1911, and 168 above that of September, 1910. Exclusive of the kindergarten and Orphans' Home

READY FOR OPENING

QUEEN STREET CHURCH WILL BE OPENED ON SUNDAY.

Edifice Has Been in the Hands of the Decorators for the Past Few Weeks—Work Has Been Well Carried Out and With a Fine Effect.

Queen street Methodist church, which for the past few weeks has been in the hands of the decorators, will be open for the services on Sunday next. Workmen have been busy in the edifice and as the result of their labors the church has undergone an extensive change. The painting and glazing was in the hands of T. Milo, and the work has been finished in artistic style. Olive green was the color selected and it sets off the walls in exquisite taste. The pipes of the organ have also been touched up to match with the walls.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"The Three Twins" Produced on Thursday Evening.

The Three Twins presented at the Grand Opera house for the third time on Thursday evening, made, as it always has, a decided hit. The Freshmen in medicine treated the Sophomores to a theme party in preference to the usual amusement. The freshmen sang and college yells. The "Seven Ages of Cuddling" and the accompanying songs were well received and the Yama Yama chorus, in spite of its familiarity, brought rounds of applause.

The lively little leader of the "Yama Yama" chorus brought down the house with applause with a little piece of by-play all her own. She was called to the footlights again and again and finally when the audience through a fund of amusement about exhausted, she went over and bade good night to the bass player, "Are you a married man?" she asked, with a roguish smile, the player nodded "Yes." "Would you like me to kiss you?" said Yama Yama. Not to be outdone by a youngster, the bass musician agreed to accept a kiss, and the donation was made, to the delight and amusement of the whole audience.

Saturday Matinee and Night.

If a woman's devotion to a man in desperate straits, making a pure love story of unusual heart interest, as shown in Charles Klein's latest play, "The Third Degree," should interest playgoers, then the forthcoming production by the United Play company of this drama should be heralded as the dramatic event of the season.

"The Third Degree," a little over a year old, has already taken a firm hold on the public and bids fair to exceed the marvelous record of Mr. Klein's former work, "The Lion and the Mouse," on which the producer is said to have made a million dollars.

"The Third Degree" is announced for production on Saturday, Oct. 19th, matinee and night at the Grand.

"Everywoman."

The forthcoming appearance at the Grand Opera House, Kingston on Monday and Tuesday, October 21st and 22nd of Henry W. Savage's production of the inspiring dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," has aroused unusual interest; on account of the long run of the piece in New York and its recent sensational success at the famous Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, London, where it is the reigning hit. "Everywoman" combines the essential elements of drama, opera and spectacle, and its chief characteristic is its astonishing size. The cast number thirty-seven speaking characters, but the full dramatic ensemble is composed of more than one hundred and fifty people.

There are really three complete companies merged into one, and added to this is a complete symphony orchestra composed of skilled musicians. Nothing on this scale of magnitude has ever been taken on the road before.

"The Senator Keeps House."

William H. Crane's new play which he is to offer here at the Grand on Wednesday, Oct. 23rd, is called "The Senator Keeps House." It is a story of Washington life. Bachelors and widowers will be interested in some phases of it to the exclusion of other matters for at several points in the action Mr. Crane is seen busily engaged dogging the onslaughts of a charming young lady who has determined to marry him whether or no.

It is unwise and unnecessary to take an inferior article when you can get the best for the same price. The Liverpool-Manitoba Assurance company, a home institution and backed by a company of gigantic strength, offers you the best security to be had in the Fire Insurance world to-day. Insist upon getting its policy. C. W. Wright, and E. B. Thompson.

Quite a Nice One.

Edmonton Capital. It was the night of the departure of the royal party from Calgary, and several of us were discussing the city's guests and the right good time they were having.

"How would you like to be the duke?" asked a Calgary matron of her husband.

"Quick as a flash came the answer: "My dear, I would rather be your husband any day."

And that is one of the prettiest compliments I have heard for a long time.

The following family survive: Joseph and Francis of this place; Mrs. Sylvanus Geo. High Falls; Mrs. Chellens Card and Mrs. Zara Hall, Verona; and Miss Grace at home. Rev. C. W. Crane is holding revival services at Bethel. Miss Walroth, visiting her daughter for several weeks, returned home on Monday. A large party gathered Friday to help Miss Ruth Percy celebrate her sixteenth birthday. She was the recipient of many gifts.

NEW G.T.P. LINES

In the West Approved by the Railway Commission.

Among the new lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific included in plans recently approved by the Board of Railway Commissioners are the following: Revised location plans for Mile 12.71 to 18.40 and location plans from the latter point to Mile 21.86 of the plan from Harte to Brandon. The line from Regina to the international boundary near Portal, Sask., a distance of 134 miles, has been completed so far as the grading and building structures are concerned. It is reported that thirty-three miles of steel had been laid up to the end of August and that the whole mileage would be laid and ballasted by December. At the boundary the line will connect with a line of twenty-two miles being laid northward from Niobe, N.D., by the Great Northern railway. The board has also approved of location plans for its branch from Regina to Moose Jaw between Miles 40.01 and 47.74. The mayor of Moose Jaw has been informed by Morley Donaldson, vice-president and general manager of the company, that the right of way was being purchased through that town and that when this had been arranged construction would be continued. The opening for traffic of a further section of the Young-Prince Albert branch has likewise been authorized between Mile 45.5 and 67. This extension carried the branch to Wakaw, Sask., and the remaining fifty-seven miles are under construction.

THE EMIGRANT QUESTION.

Has England a Surplus Supply of Agriculturists?

London, Oct. 18.—In his evidence before the Dominion Royal commission Sir Clement Killoch Cooke, chairman Central Emigration board, said that emigration suffered from the apathy of the home government, also lack of continuity policy of dominions. He advocated the formation of an imperial board. Pressed by Sir Ride Haggard whether there was surplus agricultural labor here with which to supply the dominions, witness admitted there was not much further scope to exploit agriculturists for emigration purposes.

Captain Howard, of the Church Army, said money advanced by his society to young emigrants Cambodians came back very slowly, but Queensland lads repaid money to the last penny.
