Told in Twilight

Mrs. A. E. Snell, Johnson street, was hostess this afternoon at a very delightful girls' tea in honor of Miss Marjorie Duff of Guelph. The tea table which was prettily arranged with crimson carnations, was presided over by Mrs. H. Ramsay Duff and Mrs. P. G. Campbell. Miss Marion Redden served the loaves. The girls who assisted were Miss Jean and Helen Duff, Miss Christine Loucks, Miss Hilda Hague, and Miss Mary Strange. The guests included Miss Mary Horn, Misses Annie Giddings, Miss Edith Hague, Miss Sibbald Hamilton, Miss Aileen Polger, Miss Madge Taylor, Misses Hilda and Doris Kent, Miss Mildred Jonea, Misses Christine and Sylvia Cochrane, Misses Lillian Kent, Miss Lottie Kirkpatrick, Misses Mabel Dorothy and Marjorie Brownfield, Misses Nora and Helen Gordon, Miss Marlon Redden, Misses Emma and Marjorie Pense, Misses Aileen, May and Rose Rogers, Misses Phyllis and Charlie Shortt, Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Mamie Garrett, Miss Mabel Dalton, Misses Helen and Madge Groves, Miss Madeline Higgins, Misses Marjorie and Owen Merrick, Miss Madge, and Miss Lillian Mandell. Miss Marjorie Leslie, Miss Dixon, Texas; Miss Minnie Gordon, Miss Aileen Benson, Miss Marjorie Starr, Miss Dorothy Hooper, Miss Francis Sullivan, Miss Gertrude Power, Miss Etta Ward, and her two guests from Montreal, Miss Kate Craig, Misses Annie and Margaret Fairlie, Misses Edith and Hazel Massie.

The marriage of Miss Sarah Doris Suckling, to Mr. Roy Buchanan which takes place to-morrow in St. Simon's church, Toronto, will be interesting to many of the bride's Kingston friends. The bride will wear ivory satin dress, with court train, opening over a chauntilly lace skirt, which forms a panel in the front and the bodice trimmed with chauntilly lace. Her hat of black velvet is trimmed with yellow tulle bows and yellow roses, and the bouquets will be of yellow roses. The little flower girl will be Miss Persis Seagram and the best man Charles Hooper. The ushers will be Messrs. Austin Suckling, Heber Smith, Hugh Morroy and Teves Gooderham.

A very jolly surprise party was given by the younger boys and girls on Saturday evening for Miss Freda Burns, Frontenac street, and a very enjoyable time was spent. Anything in Your Eye?

Many people who come to us for eye examination imagine that there is some foreign substance in their eyes. It is sometimes hard to convince them that these gritty sandy, scratching, irritating conditions are symptoms and effects due to refractive errors which may be corrected by the use of proper Glasses.

Let Us Take the Grit Out.
