NUPTIALS CELEBRATED THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S CITY SOCCER LEAGUE

OF MISS ETHEL SLATER AND GEORGE WRIGHT

At the Home of the Bride's Parents on Barric Street, Wednesday Morning—Rev. Dr. Macgillivray, Officiated.

One of the prettiest weddings of this autumn took place Wednesday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slater, Barric street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Ethel Isabel Margaret, was united in marriage to George Clarke Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Wright, Colborne street. Rev. Malcolm Macgillivray, D.D., officiated, and after the ceremony Miss Jessie Slater sang "Because." Miss Francis Wright, who accompanied her, also played the wedding march.

The bride was given away by her father and looked very graceful and girlish in her becoming gown of handsome ivory satin duchesse, with court train. The draped skirt was caught at the left side and fastened to a panel of carriage-macross lace, with a spray of lilies of the valley. The front of the skirt was inset with silk mesh lace, embroidered in pearls. The kimono sleeves and bodice were also silk mesh and dainty little pearl butterflies held the train at the shoulders. The tulle veil was arranged on a pearl bandeau, and was fastened to the pretty dark hair with sprays of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley and wore the groom's gift, a pearl necklace, with peridot pendant.

Miss Lillian Slater, the bride's sister, was maid of honor, and looked very beautiful in a gown of the palest shade of green satin charmeuse with court train, and panniers of satin. The bodice was veiled in dainty dresden dewdrop chiffon, edged with pearls and trimmed with opalescent fringe. Her bouquet was pale mauve chrysanthemums and he gift from the groom was a pretty pearl and peridot pendant. John Wright, of Montreal, brother of the groom, was best man.

Miss Jessie Slater looked very sweet and charming in a gown of white satin with overdress of cerise and touches of black lace.

Miss Frances Wright wore a most becoming gown of pale blue flowered marquisette. Their gifts from the groom were gold bracelets.

Mrs. Slater, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of mauve satin draped with mauve striped silk voile.

Mrs. Wright, the groom's mother, was becomingly gowned in mauve satin, with overdress of handsome black Russian net.

After the ceremony, which was performed in the drawing room beneath an arch of pure white chrysanthemums and lilies, and banked with palms and ferns, the bride and groom received the heartiest congratulations of their friends. The wedding breakfast was served in the dining room, where the bride's table was arranged with white roses and lilies of the valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright left on the noon train for New York and Washington. The bride wore a smart travelling costume of black and tan, with maribou and ostrich mount. Good wishes and congratulations follow them from many friends who congratulate themselves that they will not lose this popular couple from their circle in Kingston.

DON'T SCOLD CROSS, IRRITABLE CHILDREN

See if Tongue is Coated, Stomach Sour and Bowels Clogged.

Children dearly love to take delicious "Syrup of Figs" and nothing else cleans and regulates their tender little stomachs, liver and thirty feet of bowels so promptly and thoroughly.

Children get bilious and constipated just like grown-ups. Then they get sick, the tongue is coated, stomach sour, bowels bad; they don't eat or rest well; they become feverish, cross, irritable and don't want to play. Listen mothers—for your child's sake don't force the little one to swallow nauseating castor oil, violent calomel or harsh irritants like Cathartic pills.

A teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs will have your child smiling and happy again in just a few hours. Syrup of Figs will gently cleanse, sweeten and regulate the stomach, make the liver active and move on and out of the bowels, all the constipated matter, the sour bile, the foul, clogged-up waste and poisons, without causing cramps or griping.

With Syrup of Figs you are not dragging or injuring your children. Being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics it cannot be harmful. Full directions for children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.

MEETING OF THE ARTS SOCIETY ON TUESDAY.

Elections on Saturday, Nov. 2nd—The English Bible Class—News of the Medical and Science Faculties.

The Arts Society met on Tuesday with President Matheson in the chair. There was a fair attendance, and considerable business transacted. It was decided to hold the Arts Society elections on Saturday morning, Nov. 2nd, instead of the previous Saturday, when so many of the students would be out of town for Thanksgiving. A motion was also carried for the appointment of a new Arts executive committee to replace the old committee elected last year, many of whose members had not returned to college.

H. L. Spinkie, the convenor of the old committee, will again be convenor of the new committee.

J. R. Lowery was appointed convenor of the Arts' dinner committee.

Nominations were received for the different offices in the Arts' society executive and the Arts' Concours. From present appearances there promises to be lively contests for the various positions.

Prof. Skelton was unanimously elected honorary president of the Arts' Society and R. M. Fisher was elected chief justice of the Arts' court. For the office of president of the Arts' society there are four nominees, Messrs. J. R. Lowery, S. A. Rutledge, J. G. Adams and R. F. Pirie.

J. S. Woodworth, superintendent of the "All People's Mission," Winnipeg, and author of "Strangers With Our Sates," will address the Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. on Thursday, at 1 p.m., in Convocation Hall.

The English Bible class, which is open to all students, will meet in the large English class room every Tuesday. The subject for the present term is "The Modern Interpretation of Ancient Narratives." A NEW SCHEDULE HAS BEEN DRAWN UP.

The One Arranged Last Spring Was Irregular, as the Queen's Club Was Not Notified.

The city soccer league, which organized about two years ago at the instigation of Queen's, held an irregular meeting without notifying Queen's, in the early part of this season; admitted into the league the team of the Shipbuilding company, drew up a season's schedule of games and after the business had been done, notified Queen's no later than Friday that it was to play the first game of the schedule on Saturday afternoon. It was too short notice for Queen's to get its team together and a meeting was called on Monday to re-adjust matters, which were not altogether satisfactory to Queen's.

P. T. Plikie, manager of Queen's soccer team, was present at the meeting and made a complaint against the proceedings of the three other teams. They had agreed not to admit a fourth team without the consent of all three teams of the league. Manager Plikie had no objection to the admission of the Shipbuilding company's team. The Shipbuilding Company's team was therefore admitted formally, and a new schedule was drawn up as follows:

Oct. 23—Queen's vs R.C.H.A.

Oct. 25—C.L.C. vs. Shipbuilding company.

Oct. 28—Shipbuilding company vs C.L.C.

Oct. 30—R.C.H.A. vs Queen's.

Nov. 2—Queen's vs Shipbuilding company.

Nov. 2—R.C.H.A. vs C.L.C.

Nov. 9—Shipbuilding company vs R.C.H.A.

Nov. 9—C.L.C. vs Queen's.

Nov. 16—C.L.C. vs R.C.H.A.

Nov. 16—Shipbuilding company vs Queen's.

Nov. 23—R.C.H.A. vs Shipbuilding company.

Nov. 23—Queen's vs C.L.C.

All games with Queen's will be played on Queen's lower campus. The other games will be played on the cricket field.

The Saturday games will begin at three o'clock sharp. A win is to count two points and a draw one point for each team.
