ABOUT PROBABLE DEVELOP-MENTS IN BALKANS.

The Opinion in France is Pessimistic-Turkish Victories Would be Preferable for the Peace of Europe - Russia Mobilizes Through the Caucasus.

London, Oct. 24.—England nervous about the probable development of the near Eastern war, following her declaration of neutrality. The third battle squadron, which was under orders to proceed at the end of the month to the Mediterranean for a twelve weeks' cruise, started yesterday unexpectedly.

Orders had been given for the ships to coal and leave on Sunday. but it is now, stated that they will start without taking on coal or oil fuel, and put in at Gibraltar to replenish their bunkers before proceeding to the Levant

Advices from Constantinople state that Turkey's disposition of its milltary resources is governed not only by the attack of the Balkan allies. but by the menace of Russian aggression in Asia Minor.

The whole Ottoman army in Asia cannot be transferred to Europe lest the two Russian army corps at Kars and Ardeghan cross the Turkish frontier.

Herein lies the Turkish explanation of the Turkish retreat along the lieved to be an attempt to evade the extended line of war. The pathetic appeal of Kiamil Pacha to Europe to prevent Russia from striking Turkey in the back, while it is fighting for its life in Macedonia arises from the Grand Vizier's knowledge of the concentration of Russian troops near the Armenian frontier.

Grain Export.

Montreal, Oct. 24 .- That the prevaent lack of ocean tonnage is a men ace to Montreal's grain exporting trade, was the statement made b James Carruthers, one of the leading grain exporters of Montreal. So scarce has the tonnage grown, he states, that freight rates are impracticable to grain men. This year the rate on grain to big British ports from Montreal is six cents higher than it was last year, or practically doubllast year a rate:

He said that he had been informed that the farm products booth, at the Festival of the Empire, had raised more money than any of the others. He pointed out that the agriculturists and dairymen of this district were of some benefit, and he was of the oninton that the cheese board should receive better treatment at the hands of the city council. During the past two years the board felt that they had been taxed too high for their accommodation at the city hall and also felt that the city council and some of the citizens were giving the board a rather cool reception.
