SAVED FROM AN OPERATION

How Mrs. Reed of Peoria, Ill., Escaped the Surgeon's Knife.

Peoria, Ill.—"I wish to let every one know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. Forty-two years I suffered. The doctor said I had a tumor and the only remedy was the surgeon's knife. My mother bought me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today I am a well and healthy woman. For months I suffered from inflammation, and your Sanative Wash relieved me. I am glad to tell anyone what your medicines have done for me. You can use my testimonial in any way you wish, and I will be glad to answer letters."—Mrs. CHRISTINA REED, 106 Mount St., Peoria, Ill.

Mrs. Lynch Also Avoided Operation. Jessup, Pa.—"After the birth of my fourth child, I had severe organic inflammation. I would have such terrible pains that it did not seem as though I could stand it. This kept up for three long months, until two doctors decided that an operation was needed. Then one of my friends recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and after taking it for two months I was a well woman."—Mrs. JOSEPH A. LYNCH, Jessup, Pa.

Women who suffer from female ills should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one of the most successful remedies the world has ever known before submitting to a surgical operation.

THE SPORT REVIEW

NOBODY SEEMS TO PICK QUEEN'S AS A WINNER.

McGill Expects to Defeat Coach Slicer's Team in Kingston—Ben Simpson Thinks Argonauts Have the Strongest Interprovincial Team.

There are many admirers of the Ontario rugby union who think the winners of their series will walk off with the Dominion championship, says the Toronto News. "Jack" Williams will play centre half for Ottawa in Saturday's match against the Montreal team, Gerard moving to left half, his former position.

It is expected that Mallett, the star kicking back of the Hamilton Tigers, will be whipped into shape in time to jump into the game against the Argos on Saturday.

In Ottawa they look for a clash between McGill and Ottawa for the Canadian honors, for the Montreal university has almost as many supporters in the capital as have the Ottawas.

Montreal Gazette—The McGill team will no doubt defeat Queen's at Kingston on November 2nd and Varsity should win both games against the Presbyterians, which will make it a tie at the end of the season, so that Varsity and McGill are likely to meet once more and it will be on neutral grounds. Ottawa will likely be the chosen battlefield for the final game.

Toronto Telegram—Hamilton Tigers are sore as pups because a protest went against them, but to their credit it is said they took their medicine and kept on playing. They're better sportsmen than some other people whom we hate to mention.

That the Argonauts have the best team in the interprovincial union is the opinion of Ben Simpson, the veteran Tiger centre-half, who officiated at the Argonauts-Montreal game last Saturday. Simpson has warned the "Tigers" that they have got to play the game of their history to save themselves from defeat on their own ground on this coming Saturday, when they try conclusions with the Torontonians. He thinks Argonauts will beat Ottawa and make a three-cornered tie between Tigers, Argonauts and Ottawa.

General Sport. Scouts for the maritime provinces hockey league are already on the trail. They are offering big money down east this year.

Leslie Patrick declares that no contract jumpers will be allowed to play on the coast. He is advocating a commission and an annual world's hockey series.

"Kid" McCoy, once the neatest and prettiest prizefighter in the ring, has decided to become an evangelist. He has had enough of the great white way.

Winnipeg will remain in the Canadian baseball league. They have succeeded in raising sufficient money to encourage President Mahoney.

Christy Mathewson wants one more chance to win the world's baseball championship. He says he would have retired had he been successful in the last game at Boston.

Maryland citizens are planning a big reception for Herzog, the batting hero of the world's baseball series. Last fall they had the pleasure of honoring Frank Baker.

SOME AMUSING LETTERS.

Exchange of "Bluffs" Between Sultan and King Ferdinand.

London, Oct. 24.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent sends the following story: When the sultan of Turkey gave orders for the mobilization of the troops he sent to the king of Bulgaria a sack of millet with the following letter: "Ferdinand, I send you a sack of millet, but be assured there are as many soldiers in Turkey as there are grains of millet in this sack. Now, if you wish, declare war. The king of Bulgaria's reply was in kind. He sent a very much smaller sack filled with tiny grains of the most virulent red pepper of the country. With it went the following declaration: "Dear Sultan, the Bulgarians are not numerous, it is true, but be assured that to stick your nose into their affairs is like sticking it into our national confinement. Try it and see. They'll sting you so sharply that the whole of Asia will not be able to save you."

A BABY PLAINTIFF.

The Youngest on Record Sues For $5,000 Damages.

Rochester, N.Y., Oct. 24.—Anna Nolan, youngest plaintiff on record, pleaded, primarily on the edge of a chair in supreme court and gazed with wide-eyed interest of two years and ten months at a jury. Her action against seventy-seven-year-old Elton Bryson for $5,000 damages for assault and battery. Nowhere does the procedure tell what a lawyer is to do when the young lady he is opposing hypnotizes the jurors with interesting places from big Irish blarney and Charles E. Boston, representing Mrs. Bryson, is stumped. Anna's father and Mrs. Bryson are neighbors. The complainant alleges that the defendant turned the stream from a garden hose on the child as she was being wheeled past the Bryson house, that the baby had convulsions and could not talk for six weeks. The defence is that Mrs. Bryson was sprinkling the lawn and a few drops fell on the baby.

Should Read Some.

That peripatetic platform performer, Dr. Coleridge, of Ingersoll, accuses Mr. Rowell of trying to introduce the single tax. Dr. Coleridge should read "Progress and Poverty" and then read the bills introduced by liberals and conservatives to permit local option in assessments. Apparently he has read neither. "If he had he would see there is no relation between them. Either he is talking in ignorance or is wilfully bearing false witness."

TIDINGS FROM OUTLET.

The Late Michael Fodey Who Died in Kingston.

Outlet, Oct. 22.—The farmers in this locality are nearly through threshing and corn cutting. A new iron bridge is being built here. It was very much needed. G. Turkleton of Calstown, is foreman of the employees. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Slack and daughter, Vera, returned home on Monday, the 14th, from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. William McCready, Francis, Sask. Mrs. Edward Vanderburg returned home last Tuesday after nursing at Brewer's Mills for the past eight weeks. Miss Ethel Ross, of Montreal, is visiting here for a short time. G. A. Bradley and B. Slack of Athens and Mr. Kelsey of Charleston, were guests at J. Reid's on Sunday last. Mrs. John Fodey returned home on Sunday after spending a week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Milne, Brewer's Mills. Wilfrid Fodey made a trip to Kingston on Monday, the 14th. John Fodey of Idaho, who has been absent from this vicinity for the past nineteen years, will spend the winter with his mother, Mrs. Michael Fodey, and family. Mr. James Fodey was the guest of Mrs. Monica Slack and sister, Hazel, of Sand Bay, visit to friends at Woodville on Sunday. Miss Roxey McCready is holding a few days at Josiah Running's.

The people of this community were shocked and saddened when word reached here on the 6th of this month that death had claimed a friend and neighbour at five o'clock this morning in the person of Michael Fodey, who passed away at the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, where he had undergone the second severe operation in a few weeks. It came as a great blow to his family and friends as he was thought to be gaining nicely, until a few minutes before he expired, owing to heart failure. The remains were brought to his home here on Sunday night, and on Tuesday the funeral took place at St. Patrick's church, Lansdowne, where a requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Kehoe. The body was then taken to the vault at Lansdowne, followed by a large concourse of people to pay the last respects to a much loved and respected man, who had spent his whole life in this neighborhood. The body was left in the vault that his children, who hurried home from the north-west, might look once more upon the face of a beloved parent.

PURDUE FROM ATHENS.

Views of the Churches Laying Granolithic Walks.

Athens, Oct. 22.—The contractors are laying new granolithic walks. Work on the new post office is progressing nicely. Abel Kavanagh has purchased the residence occupied by the late W. H. Boulton. Arden Lillie has purchased Charles Wing's house on High street. Mrs. Holtzman has leased the George Brown house on Church street. The students of the model and public schools enjoyed Thursday and Friday as holidays, the teacher being at Rockville attending the Teachers' Institute.

Field day at the high school was observed on the 11th inst. There was a good programme of games and sports during the day, followed by a concert given by the students in the evening.

His Pasting, Toronto, has been engaged as fifth teacher at the high school. An extra teacher was required owing to the record attendance this term.

Preparations are in progress for an inter-denominational Sunday school rally on world's temperance Sunday.

Rev. George Edwards, pastor of the Methodist church, conducted anniversary services in his church here on the 13th inst. In the evening Revs. Messrs. Montgomery, Westell and Lake, resident pastors of the Presbyterian, Baptist and Holiness churches, conducted the men's choir rendered excellent music. Last Friday evening Rev. W. Trotter, formerly a pastor of the Holiness Movement church here, gave a talk on his experience as missionary or several years in Egypt.

On Sabbath last, Rev. S. Burns, D.D., pastor of St. John's church, Brockville, occupied the pulpit of St. Paul's Presbyterian church here, the occasion being anniversary services. In the evening services in the sister churches were withdrawn, so that the building was taxed to accommodate the congregation. On the Monday evening following a tea was served by the ladies, followed by a programme which consisted of musical numbers and addresses by resident ministers.

Anniversary services in the Baptist church are announced for next Sabbath. The Methodist Sunday school and Epworth league have undertaken the purchasing of a piano. Mrs. William Johnston, Mrs. C. C. Black and Mrs. W. L. Mackie attended the W.C.T.U. convention last week in Gananoque. The district Sunday school convention is to be held here on November 7th and 8th.

Improvements to Church. Cataracts, Oct. 22.—Christ Church is having a new furnace installed. The Methodist church has new metal sangles on the south side. Rev. Will Perley has returned from Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Ward are home from New York. Mrs. Alfred Knight is ill in Kingston general hospital. B. Kish has sold his farm to W. Gordon of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Breiner, Kingston, has been the guest of Mrs. T. Green. Miss Elleda Bennington has accepted a position in Kingston Business College. Mrs. McOy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) Cassidy. Miss Gretta Haycock, who has just returned from the continent, was here for a short time, before going to her home at Glenora. C. A. Adair has a fine new shed in course of erection. Mrs. J. Gibson has returned from Chicago where she spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. R. Elberbeck. Mrs. Currie and family have sold their farm and moved to the city. Miss Iva Cousin, Collins Bay, has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. Ward. Cooke Bros. are building a new granary.

Sunbury Items. Sunbury, Oct. 21.—Farmers are now busily engaged in ploughing and housing their fall crops. The Presbyterian society will give their annual concert in the hall on Wednesday, October 23rd. Ben Jackson has sold his dairy farm and may return to the city. The Methodist Sabbath school will hold their rally day on Sunday, October 27th. A number of new silos have been erected this fall and the majority of them are now well filled. A. Jackson, who has been here for some time, remains in about the same condition. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews of Battersea spent Sunday with friends in the village. Pasture continue good and milk is above the average for this time of year. P. Marshall, who underwent an operation at the Kingston general hospital some days ago, is slowly improving. Mr. Henry wife and family moved to the city last week.

A piece of lead pencil an inch and a half long was removed from the brain of two-year-old William Talley in a Rochester hospital. The baby fell while playing and the pencil penetrated the frontal bone above the left eye, entering the brain.

AFTERNOON FROCK IN SATIN AND LACE.

Given a well made and absolutely simple frock of a becoming shade and it can be made into a more effective toilette with the addition of handsome and unique attachable accessories. The effect of this little frock in tobacco brown satin has been absolutely changed and elaborated by the sash end and neckpiece of embroidered white silk, inset with pieces of embroidered file, outlined with Irish beading and bordered with flatly applied baby Irish edging. The sash end, tucked ed under the girdle belonging to the frock, is weighted at each corner. Weights also hold down the points of the collar at back and front.

FORMER KINGSTON GIRL HAS CHANCE ON STAGE.

Miss Grace Lyon Engaged to Understudy, Leads in Gilbert and Sullivan Productions.

Believing that he has made a genuine "find," F. C. Stewart, business manager of the Gilbert and Sullivan Festival company, has engaged Grace Lyon, Winnipeg, and a former Kingstonian, a daughter of H. V. Lyon.

For a season with his company, to understudy Blanche Inghill in Pinaflore, Patience, The Mikado and The Pirates of Penzance. Miss Lyon is eighteen years old, has received all her vocal and musical training in Winnipeg. She was seen in the part of Josephine in an amateur production of Pinaflore at the Walker theatre last winter. She will not play in Winnipeg with the company, but will go with them to Duluth, Chicago, Minneapolis, St. Paul and Kansas City. It is understood that her first appearance in the ordinary course of events, will be in Minneapolis.

W. G. Stewart, stage director of the Gilbert and Sullivan Festival company, is enthusiastic over the possibilities that have opened for Miss Lyon. He was, when interviewed by the Winnipeg Free Press, a little averse to giving his opinion on the grounds that Miss Lyon is inexperienced in professional work. He stated, however, that she possessed a soprano voice of good quality and range. "I do not know who has taught her," said Mr. Stewart, "but she has been most trained. Her voice is well placed, but is perhaps a little dulled at times. If I am any judge, Miss Lyon should prove to be a veritable find. Of course, she is inexperienced in stage department and that sort of thing, but she has confidence and ability, and is almost bound to succeed."

A find, such as we are confident we have made, is an illustration of the value of amateur theatricals. In a company like ours, it frequently happens that understudies are required. It may not be very long before we require a tenor, or a bass, and after this experience of ours we shall know where to look."

No Trouble in Navigating. Les Pas, Man., Oct. 21.—J. P. Gordon, assistant chief engineer of the Hudson Bay railway, states that there should be no trouble operating the grain route to Port Nelson. He believed there would be no trouble from ice, and navigation would be open eight months in the year.

The farmer is now informed that the safety of the country depends on his vote.

"NO-BODY LOVES A BALD MAN" Every day we see YOUNG men and women, who have grown prematurely grey. They immediately fall into the "Old Age" class, because grey hairs are so closely associated WITH OLD AGE.

It is extremely discomfiting and humiliating to be bald—to be grey when the years do not justify it. The girls laugh at the young men so married—the young men soon learn to discriminate between natural hair in its full bloom of health and NATURAL COLOR, and shabby looking grey and faded hair.

Give nature a chance. If she is encouraged, stimulated, assisted, she will give you a head of hair that you will be proud of. Give it to her. Use HAY'S HAIR HEALTH
