THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S

FINAL EXAMINATIONS OF ONTARIO MEDICAL COUNCIL.

Dr. W. T. Connell One of the Examiners—Too Much Work in the Combined Arts and Medical Course.

The College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario will hold its final examinations next week, beginning on Tuesday, November 5th. The timetable of the written examinations is: Tuesday, November 5th, surgery in the morning and Theory and practice of medicine in the afternoon; Wednesday, November 6th, midwifery, and disease of women. These examinations are commonly known as the Ontario council examinations and must be passed before a graduate may become a practitioner in the province.

An agitation has been made by the members of the profession to have a Dominion council rather than a provincial which will license the doctor to practise in any part of Canada without being necessary to buy a different council in each province which he desires to practise.

Dr. W. T. Connell, of Queen's, is one of the examiners in theory and practice of medicine. He will leave shortly to attend the examinations results will be posted Tuesday, Nov. 19th.

Students on the combined Arts and Medical course have been complaining about the pressure of work involved. The preliminary honour chemistry has been especially the cause of trouble so that the students taking it have decided to petition the senate to withdraw that class from those prescribed or at least lessen the different branches of it.

A great many students took advantage of the Thanksgiving holiday and visited their homes. As the excursion tickets are good until Wednesday, lectures were very sparsely attended on Tuesday.

Sent to Asylum.

Chester French, aged seventy-five years, of Westbrook, who threatened to kill his wife and is now confined to the Rosedale Jail, has been medically examined and pronounced insane. He will be sent to the asylum. It certainly is very hard for the old couple to be separated after living together for the past fifty years during which time Mr. French has been a very faithful husband.

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES

HELD FIRST ANNUAL MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

Work Done During the Year—Addresses Were Delivered by Dr. A. E. Ross, M.P.P.; Dean Bidwell and Robert Meek.

The first annual meeting, since organization, of the Associated Charities was held in the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday evening. The report of the general secretary, J. C. McConachie, for the twelve months of its infancy, shows that during this time a very considerable amount of efficient work has been done along the many lines pursued by the Charities, and bids for greater activity in the future. In part, Mr. McConachie reported that 177 cases had been investigated during the year. About one-third of these had been found worthy, and in need of relief. The Poor Relief Society and the Home for the Aged had called upon the services of the general secretary more than any other. Work had been done for individuals, the churches of the city, Y.M.C.A. and the Victorian Order of Nurses, St. Vincent de Paul Society, the two city hospitals, and the police department. Through correspondence, Mr. McConachie carried on work with two Associated Charities societies in London, England; one in Brooklyn, N.Y., and one each in Toronto and Montreal. Through the Charities, undesirables had been deported, and immigrants were prevented from coming to Kingston.

Dr. A. E. Ross, M.P.P., president of the Associated Charities, presided at the meeting, and speeches were also given by Dean E. J. Bidwell and Robert Meek. Dr. Ross treated the matter, in part, from a provincial point of view. He spoke of the institutional care in London, England, and emphasized the fact that prevention of social evils is most important, on a par with alleviation. Dean Bidwell expressed his appreciation of the value of the work done by the Charities, of the assistance given his work, and his belief that the society would, in time, accomplish all that its founders had hoped for. He pointed out that the Charities was not intended to take the place of personal work, which would always have to be carried on among the poor. The general secretary was chiefly called upon to investigate and give expert information regarding details. Allowing for this, for such an official the city was fortunate in having, benevolent individuals were expected to do the personal work, as always, when things were not in a satisfactory condition.

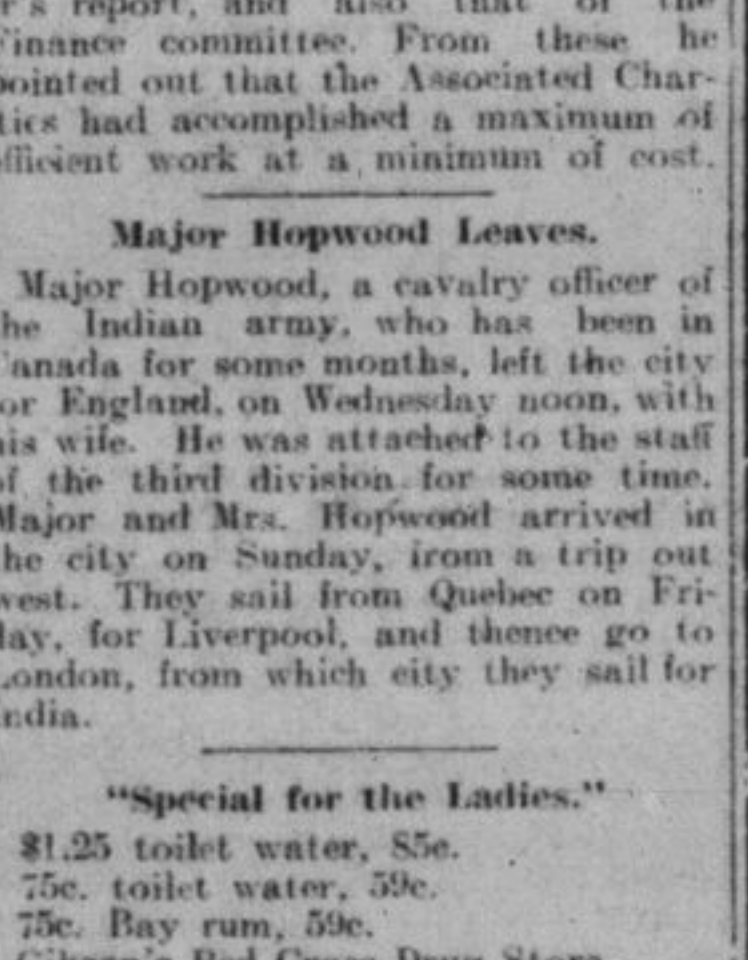

Robert Meek presented the treasurer's report, and also that of the Finance committee. From these he pointed out that the Associated Charities had accomplished a maximum of efficient work at a minimum of cost.

Major Hopwood Leaves. Major Hopwood, a cavalry officer of the Indian army, who has been in Canada for some months, left the city for England, on Wednesday noon, with his wife. He was attached to the staff of the third division for some time.

Major J. H. Hopwood arrived in the city on Sunday, from a trip out west. They sail from Quebec on Friday, for Liverpool, and thence go to London, from which city they sail for India.

HAS GIVEN $15,000 E. R. HOLDEN CONTRIBUTES TOWARDS REBUILDING PARK.

Sum of $10,000 For Chapel—Remaining $5,000 Will go toward Fire Protection System—L. A. Johnson Donor of Completion of Hotel. E. R. Holden, of New York, one of the most prominent summer residents of Thousand Island Park, has given the sum of $15,000 to the Park Association to further building operations now under way. Of the total amount $10,000 will be devoted to rebuilding the chapel and schoolhouse, the remaining $5,000 being applied on the cost of the fire protection system now being installed. The work of rebuilding both the chapel and the schoolhouse has been started. Both buildings will be of concrete. Progress is also being made on the new concrete structure, which when completed, will contain six stores. The block will be of solid concrete and will be made as nearly fireproof as is possible. Several cottages are being built. L. A. Johnson, proprietor of the burned Hotel Columbian, had a conference with the association in reference to the rebuilding of the hotel. Mr. Johnson is anxious that a structure be erected for next summer's use, but he admits that up to the present time, the outlook for a hotel replacing the Columbian in time to handle next summer's business was not bright.
