The following officers were elected: President, Clarence C. Skinner; secretary, Miss Hattie Conner; treasurer, Mrs. W. F. Martin; executive committee, Messrs. R. B. Britton, William Allan, W. J. ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.
Some Verses by Member of the K. S. B. Club.
By E. A. Cooke.
Oh! while others shout and are hollering out
Their favorite sports by name,
I'll sing you a round of the football ground--
The "Association Game."
It's a rare old sort of a winter sport
From the "Land of the Hills and Heather,"
And it's played by lads of the manly kind,
Who are strong of muscle and sound of wind.
As they "foot" the bounding leader,
Some like the sport of the tennis court,
Of pyramids or pool;
And "box ball" play, the American way,
Is a good game as a rule.
And the mild ping-pong suits the weakling through
That can scarcely wield a fether.
But Oh! for the joy of the football green,
When the lads are out in the fresh air keen
A'footing of the leather.
It takes courage to play in the rugby way,
Where arms and legs are at stake,
And the hockey's fleet, as the skaters' feet
Skim over the frozen lake.
And all honor and fame to the baseball game--
Oh! they're great games altogether;
But for skill and courage and pluck
And go, just watch our fellows with health aglow,
A'footing of the leather.
Then, good luck to them all, that follow the ball,
The association way;
It's the best game out, and there isn't a doubt
It's a game that has come to stay.
For the "kids," you bet, will go strong on it yet.
And defying the wind or weather,
Their blood all a-tingle and senses keen
They will skillfully foot on the football green,
The association leather.

Death of "Bennie" Cook.
Lanark, Ont. -- There died suddenly at the home of his parents last Saturday evening, Benjamin Cooke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooke, Drummond township, "Bennie," as he was familiarly known in and around Lanark village, was 37 years and 11 months old. He was born on the Drummond homestead and grew up with a family of four sisters and one brother, of whom only Mrs. W. W. Echin of Perth survives. Six years ago "Bennie" was stricken with paralysis, which affected his right side, and the immediate cause of death was also a stroke on the left side. He was wheeled to the house when he fell, noticed by his mother. Father was summoned from the field and he carried "Bennie" into the house and in a short time the young man died. Deceased was well known in this district. He was the son of honor, and it passed as a by-word among the people of Lanark that "Bennie" Cooke's work was as good as gold. The funeral took place on Tuesday at two o'clock at St. Paul's church, Lanark, thence to the cemetery, Rev. T. L. Aborn officiating. It was a very large funeral.

YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD
In St. Andrew's Hall on Thursday Evening.
On Thursday evening St. Andrew's Young Women's Guild held a reception to students of Queen's and Loyal Millitary College cadets. Of the invitation issued over 450 were accepted, and the young people enjoyed a pleasant social evening. The students and cadets were made to feel at home in the church and with its people.
The guests were received by a committee of the guild. The chairman of the evening was Rev. S. J. M. Conroy. In opening the programme, Mr. Conroy gave a short address, expressing his pleasure at seeing so many present. He recalled the fact that Queen's University was born in St. Andrew's church in 1839, and the interest on the part of the church to ward the college was as keen as ever. He hoped that in St. Andrew's many students would find their church home, and would receive a benefit from their association with it.
Later in the evening a hearty welcome was extended to the students of Queen's and Loyal Millitary College. Mr. Conroy said he knew how lonely it was possible for a student to be during his life at the university, and how students often came to church Sunday after Sunday without a kindly word or a welcome from anyone. He assured them that the people of St. Andrew's were anxious to get to know personally every student who attended the church. He would like them to have definite places in the church as gifts of the pew holders, and feel that they were welcome.
Vocal and instrumental numbers were rendered by Miss Arlette Eldee, Miss Bissette, Miss Fairlie, Miss MacInnes, Miss Olive Boyd, Miss Marjorie Hopkirk, Miss Jean Craig and Mr. Arthur Craig.
Refreshments were served from 9.30 to 10 o'clock and the evening was brought to an early close by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King."

WAS BEEN IN JAIL.
John F. Owens, Sailors' Missionary of Kingston, Admits This.
Speaking to a meeting of men in Bethel church hall on Thursday evening, John F. Owens, steward of the sailors' mission of this city, in relating many of his experiences, admitted that he had been confined at periods, for drunkenness, in many of the jails between Montreal and Winnipeg, and for fifteen years of his life served as a sailor on deep waters, largely sailing on the old "wind-panner." He has been in a number of shipwrecks, in the Indian ocean and elsewhere, and he gave an interesting account of his career, varied as it has been.
In Canada, for some time he lived, as the "low-down bum." As he says, " booze" was his downfall. He was a knight of the road in the true sense. About four years ago he was trapped in the direction of Port Arthur, little realizing that he was enacting the role of the prodigal son. He stumbled into the opening meeting of the sailors' mission in that town, heard J. S. Potter, superintendent of the missions, preach a sermon, calling for converts, and there his life was changed.

This woman was a neighbor of Mrs. Lithgow and took the child, impelled by motives that are a mystery to the police.
