THE HALLS OF QUEEN'S

THE DRAMATIC CLUB'S CASTE HAS BEEN CHOSEN

For "You Never Can Tell"—Arts '14 Held a Social Evening on Friday—Arts '14 Defeated Arts '16 at Rugby.

The caste of the play "You Never Can Tell," which will be put on by the Queen's dramatic club in a few weeks' time, has been chosen, but not without much difficulty, owing to the keen competition for parts, and the abundance of talent shown. The principal members of the caste are:

- Valentine, a young dentist, H. L. Spankie.
- Bohun, a lawyer, R. M. Spankie.
- Philip Clauden, G. B. McCallum.
- Gloria Clauden, Miss C. Watt.
- Dolly Clauden, Miss Gilhooly.
- The Waiter, Charles Gridler.
- Crampton, George Clark.

Practices are being held daily and undoubtedly a treat is in store for the public when the play appears in the Grand Opera House.

The address which was to have been given before the dramatic club on Thursday last by Dr. McNeil on "The Plays of Bernard Shaw," has been postponed till Monday next.

Arts '14 held a very successful social evening on Friday in the new Arts building from six p.m. to ten p.m. After enjoying the following excellent programme dancing was indulged in for the rest of the evening. Address by Prof. Mitchell, honorary president; recitation, Miss Bigelow; vocal, H. S. Donnelly; recitation, J. McNab; piano-duet, Misses MacAllister and Leighton; vocal, P. Macdonnell.

The programme of Philosophical Society this term is as follows:—Nov. 18th, "Some Meditations of Nature," Prof. Gwillim; Dec. 2nd, "The Philosophy of Nathan Arnold," Prof. J. F. Macdonald; Jan. 13th, "Tolstoy," Prof. A. S. Ferguson; Feb. 10th, "The Ben's Work," Dean Cappon; Jan. 27th, Bergson's "Theory of Humor," Prof. Campbell.

Arts '14 defeated Arts '16 in a rugby game in the Mitchell series on Friday afternoon in the athletic grounds by the score of 19 to 0. The ground was very slippery and the going heavy. Fourteen's team proved itself superior to the freshmen in every department of the game and won on their merits.

Arts '12 held its first regular meeting on Friday at five p.m., President North presiding. The year has secured the night of November 22nd as a date for its social evening and the following members were appointed as a general committee to conduct this event:—Messrs. M. M. Bright, McCru and McCrae and the Messrs. McLean, Redmond and Roney. This committee will have the power to choose subsidizing committees. Steps were also taken at the meeting to prepare for the Alma Mater elections. There was a large attendance and the meeting was a great success.

The Queen's brass band met Saturday at one p.m. in convocation hall to proceed to the Varsity rugby game. The Routers' Club met Friday at seven p.m. to make preparations for the game.

A joint social evening of the years Arts '16 and Arts '15 will be held in the new Arts building on Monday at five p.m.

Mr. Snider, Arts '13, who has been teaching in the west, has returned to Queen's.

T. M. Walsh, B.A., has been appointed tutor in political science.

J. P. Leacock, M.A., of the Dominion Archives Department, Ottawa, is engaged in research work for the Toronto Historical Society.

Miss Nellie Spooner, B.A., is expected to return to the city to-morrow from the west.

Dr. George Cook, who has been practicing near Cornwall, is in the city for a few days on his way to Northern Saskatchewan, where he will set up as a medical practitioner.

Isaac Ellenson, Arts '13 will not return to Queen's this year, but will complete his course extra-murally from Toronto.

The Medical College. Medicine '16 held its regular meeting on Thursday afternoon. A committee was appointed to select men from the class for representation on the rugby practice games in order to select men for the inter-faculty games which will be pulled off shortly. A musical committee was appointed for the purpose of supplying a programme during the meetings of the year. Several new members were voted into the year. The medical drama committee did not hold its meeting yesterday as was expected on account of Dean Connell being away at the Ontario council examination in Toronto, consequently the committee were unable to select a date and thus start preparations. The various sub-committees are working earnestly to make the dinner a huge success.

The Anacopian Society held its regular meeting on Friday at four p.m. The report of the dinner committee stated that seventy tickets had already been sold and that a full orchestra had been engaged for the occasion. The report of the club of the Inquisitoria Concursus Court was given. The petty fines collected last session from this court amounted to $2.75 while the fines levied upon students for misdemeanors amounted to $1.25. The expenses of hiring hacks, pictures and so forth exceeded this amount by two dollars which sum was granted by the society to the court.

A student who commenced the medical course this year, wrote to the society stating that on account of his inability to continue the course he desired that the society should refund his fees amounting to five dollars. The society voted to retain the initiation fee of two dollars and to refund the remaining four.

The Alma Mater elections are beginning to stir up the medicals and it is believed that several of the officers of the Anacopian Society of last year will be in the competition for certain offices in that body. A committee has been appointed to consider the best men to run for the different positions. The programme rendered at the Anacopian Society meeting by the final year was heartily enjoyed by the numerous and appreciative members. Mr. Dewar, of Bermuda, played several piano solos, J. U. Smith several masonic pieces and together they sang "Down by the Old Mill Stream" accompanied by S. Dixon. The first year will have the honor of rendering a programme next meeting, and as there is a great deal of musical talent in the year a treat is expected.

The total registration in medicine up to to-day amounts to 238. M. M. Farnham, B.A., a graduate of '06 has returned to college and started on a medical course. On account of certain classes in the faculty of education which he is attending, Mr. Farnham fears he will be unable to continue his studies in medicine.

They succeeded in landing a great deal of game, Constable Armstrong carrying off the honors of bagging a deer. The party captured some fine partridges and rabbits. Although the party was away in the woods they were not at all lonesome, as "Larry" was there with the bells, and there was plenty of good hard wood at hand for exercise.
