An Experience During the Riotous Times of the Commune.

DEATH STALKED THE ROADS.

An Unarmed Procession Bearing Banthe Streets-A Woman's Adventure.

In Harper's Mme. de Hegermann-Lindencrone tells of her experiences in Paris during the commune. One day's adventures are typical. On March 20, 1871, she writes:

"A young fellow named Henri de votes away from him. Pene thought if he could collect enough

Probably you don't know that we make a Burroughs so arranged that you can print from 1 to 9,999 automatically without depressing any keys. Particularly useful where you want to keep track of the number of items that you are putting into a machine; where you are dealing with the certain rotation of subjects and want to be able to identify the 999th item without going back and counting them, and you don't want to put yourself to the expense of printing a special form. Just a little bit in advance in this that is the Burroughs way. We would be glad to show you some of this kind of work to see whether it applies to something you have in mind.

"BEAVER FLOUR" is the unfailing friend of the housewife. It saves her the trouble of keeping two kinds of flour-one for bread and another for pastry. Being a perfect blend of Manitoba Spring wheat and Ontario Fall wheat, it gives to bread the rich, nutritious properties of the former and the lighter qualities of the latter, making a large white loaf of delicate texture and exquisite flavor.

Pastry, biscuits and cakes, made with BEAVER FLOUR cannot be excelled.
