POINTS CROP UP IN Mc-GRAPVARSITY GAME.

Why McGill Will Not Play Any some improvements, as he did in Ca-More Rugby This Season-Notes padian football. on Rugby and Hockey.

Toronto Star. Two peculiar points cropped up in the McGill-Varsity rugby game at Ottawa on Saturday. In the last quarter McGill had the ball three yards out from their own goal line, when Lorimer, of Varsity, broke through the line and intercepted a pass. He was behind the goal snocked it forward and then fell on it for what looked like a Varsity touch down. Referee Hendry ruled that Varsity had to suffer for the foul, even if it was unintentional, and gave McGill the ball on the spot where it was last scrimmaged, viz., three yards out.

On another occasion Varsity was in the same predicament, with a scrim-mage just outside their own goal line. Gonter's kick went into his own line of scrimmage and bounced back behind the goal line, a Varsity player kicking it to the dead ball line. The ruling was a salety touch, two points,

Neither of these points was covered by the rules, and required quick decision on the part of Referee Hendry.

Why McGill Objects.

Montreal fans have seen their last football game this season. The Me Gill Football Club, Intercollegiate champions for 1912, have decided not to enter into a play-off for the do minion championship with the Argo nauts, of Toronto, the holders of the Interprovincial title, and the Alerts winners of the Ontario championship The decision was reached after severa of the players pointed out that two weeks more of training might cos them their year, for, what with dails practices and week-end trips during the regular season, the men are al ready far behind in their college work.

In Rugby Teams.

Varsity was beaten both ends, from the middle, and clean out into the hack yard, says the Toronto Star. Varsity will not play any exhibition games, either with Argonauts or To rontos. Bad Varsity won they would would have competed for Canadias honors, but are through now. Laing, the fleet outside wing of the McGill team, has scored a touch-down in every game in which he has played

The Western Intercollegiate Confer ence, known as the "Big Nine," com posed of Minnesota, Wisconsin, Chi cago and other middle-western uni versities, has been won by Wisconsin. The latest thing in Saskatchewar rugby is a team composed of the stars of the Saskatchewan League to go on what might be termed a barn storming tour of Eastern Canada. Ottawa College, who won the Intercollegiate championship in 1907, refused to play off for the Canadian championship, and Montreal, winners of the Interprovincial, then met Pe terboro, winners of the O.R.F.U. The score was : Montreal, 77; Peterboro, 6. The present rugby season has beer the veil. me of the most complicated years in
