DEATH AT MONTREAL

OF VICTIM OF HAY OF QUINTE WRECK.

Joseph A. Laberge, a well-known traveler, passed away—He was one of the chief witnesses at the inquest held here.

Joseph A. Laberge, who was injured in the recent wreck on the Bay of Quinte railway, near Sydenham road, is dead at his home, in Montreal. Although his death was not directly due to the injuries he received in this accident, it is stated that he never fully recovered from the effects of the shock.

Deceased was well known in Kingston and was employed as a traveler by the James McCready company of Montreal. His business brought him here many times during the year, and in this way he made many friends. He was one of the oldest travelers on the road having been employed with this concern for a quarter of a century. At the time of the accident Mr. Laberge received some severe cuts on his head and face. At the inquest which was conducted by Dr. A. E. Ross, he was one of the principal witnesses. He had been in the city three times since the accident, and on both occasions had remarked to friends that he was not feeling well. He made his last visit here three weeks ago. In addition to his wife he is survived by two children.

It will be remembered that in the Bay of Quinte railway wreck one man was killed and another died a few days later of injuries he received, thus the death of Mr. Laberge makes the third death.

KINGSTON STREET MARKET.

The Prices Asked on the Market on Thursday.

A number of sleighs were on the market on Thursday morning. The farmers reported that in most places in the country a good deal more snow had fallen than in the city during last Sunday and Tuesday night. Closer to the city the wheels run easier. Partly owing to the difficulty to deliver their loads in the city there was a falling off in the number of loads of hay brought into town this week. The price is $14 to $15 a ton.

There was an especially good island market on Thursday. A number of the housewives bought quantities of butter, the price being 30c a pound. Some was held for 30c and 32c a pound. Eggs remained at 35c and 40c a dozen. For strictly fresh ones 50c a dozen was asked.

There was a good quantity of poultry. Turkeys were bought for $1.25 to $1.75 each; large ones going higher. Ducks sold at $1.25; fowl from 90c to $1, and chickens from 70c to 90c a pair.

The other prices were: Potatoes, 90c to $1; apples, 80c to 90c a bushel; cabbage, 50c a dozen; beets, carrots and turnips, 20c a peck; parsnips, 25c a peck; onions, 35c and 40c a peck; pumpkins, 10c to 30c each.

Beef sold for 6c and 7c, front quarter. Lamb was bought for 13c and 15c, and pork for 12c and 13c.

BELLECHASSE'S TRIAL TRIP.

New Steamer Made Twelve and a Half Miles.

The steamer Bellechasse arrived back in the city at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, after her trial trip up the Bay of Quinte. The new government steamer, with the officials of the department and those of the builders on board, made her trials in the vicinity of Bath. She was run over the measured mile twelve times, eight for the satisfaction of the government officials, and four times for the shipbuilding company. It is understood that the Bellechasse will go down the river on Saturday. The steamer Dollard, also, for the government service, which was launched a few days ago, will take the place of the Bellechasse at the wharf outside the dock and the work on her will continue.

The steamer in her full power trial made a speed of 13 1/2 knots per hour, whilst the other tests were highly satisfactory. Messrs. Duguid, Forneret, McLean and McNab, representatives from the department at Ottawa, were well pleased with the boat in every way and felt it was a decided acquisition to their fleet and a credit to the builders.

THE NOTRE DAME BAZAAR.

An Operetta Was Presented on Wednesday Evening.

On Wednesday afternoon the bazaar of the Congregation of Notre Dame, at the city hall, was well attended. The afternoon was made interesting by the children's entertainment called "Fairyland," which takes place every afternoon.

In the evening a pleasing operetta was given by the girls of the Notre Dame Alumnae. The operetta was called "Daisy Dell." The leading parts were taken by the following: The King, Miss Bessie Dolan; the queen, Miss Carmel Crowley; which Miss Marion O'Connor, leader of the Fairies of Fun, Miss Bessie Simpson; star fairy, Miss Kathleen Ryan; herald of fact, Miss Norma O'Connor.

The opening dust was sung by Miss Agnes Martin and Miss Kathleen Ferguson. Miss Manie Tierney, at the piano, and Edward Ryan, violinist, supported the singers.

Meetings for Farmers. J. B. Quinn, secretary of the Farmers' Institute, was in the city on Thursday, and left for Hastings, to attend a special meeting called to hear speakers on important topics. On Friday a meeting will be held at Wolfe Island. A good attendance of farmers is desired.

AM. Bailey for Mayor. It is reported that Am. Samuel H. Bailey, the representative of Victoria ward, will be a candidate for the mayoralty as a citizens' candidate. The rumor says he will announce himself in the course of a few days.

Liability to Stay.

Dr. A. P. Knight, of Queen's stated to the Whig on Thursday afternoon, that, if the general rule is followed out, the snow is here to remain for the winter. According to this rule, if the snow lies on the ground for a week (as it will be on Sunday) the dew point is kept low, by this snow. Any fall later is generally in the form of snow, rather than rain. On Thursday morning the temperature was twenty-two degrees above zero.

TRAVERS HAS EASY TIME

HOW HE SPENDS TIME AT TORONTO JAIL.

Regular Hours for Meals and Between Times He Can Play Checkers, Read Books and Chat With Prisoners.

Since W. H. Travers, former manager of the defunct Farmers Bank, was sentenced to Kingston penitentiary, he has spent but a short time in that institution, says the Toronto Telegram. In fact, most of his time has been spent in little jaunts to Toronto, a stay of a few weeks, and then back again to Kingston, only to be brought back here again to give evidence in the trial of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt.

While in Toronto he has a fairly good time for a convicted criminal. He has no work to do, and except when in the witness box he can enjoy himself as he likes, except that his liberty is taken from him. This time he has less liberty than on the other trips.

Except when he is taken in a cab to the city hall to give his evidence, he is restricted to the jail courtyard for fresh air. When not wanted at the trial he occupies a room in which there are five beds, and that many prisoners. Some of these are waiting to give evidence here, while others are awaiting trial.

The men are allowed to play checkers, read and chat. Cards are forbidden them, although once in a while they are allowed a pipe of tobacco. No one interferes with them, and the only visitors they see are the governor, his deputy or some of the guards.

Travers remains to do the day breakfast about seven o'clock, lunch at noon, and supper about five o'clock. His meals are eaten at the jail, except when he is at court. Then he dines at a hotel, but the county officers are in charge of him.

Travers seems to be in good health, said Governor Chambers in the telegram this morning. "He is in the same room with four other men, and they entertain themselves when they are there."
