ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY

HELD ITS DINNER IN THE FRON-TEXAC HOTEL.

In Commemoration of the Day of Scotland's Patron Saint—The Seventy-second Anniversary of the Society.

In the spacious dining room of the Frontenac hotel, St. Andrew's Society, celebrated its seventy-second anniversary, at dinner on Friday night. The menu and service tendered by Mine Host Phenix was of the best.

Among those present were: President, George B. McKay; Dr. A. W. Richardson, Principal D. M. Gordon; Profs. J. L. Morleion, William Morgan, W. L. Grant, William Newell, Robert Laird, Principal Laird, J. D. Watson, W. F. Nickle, M.P.; Mayor Hoag, James Stewart, Prof. Ira E. Martin, Rev. J. W. Melnea, C. A. Macpherson, W. D. Taylor, Prof. James Small, Angus Orr, J. G. Hutton, W. G. Craig, O. F. Tolmann, J. W. Fraser, J. B. Waite, Dr. James Third, David Marney, Colonel G. Hunter Ogilvie, Lt.-Col. H. R. Duff, Lt.-Col. James Massie, R. D. Sutherland, R. H. Walker, M. G. Milligan, A. Hendry, W. Dunnett, W. D. Cotton, and William Hamilton, Gananoque; J. V. Stephen, A. J. Wolff, D. G. Scott, Dr. R. G. C. Stewart, Perth Road; Dr. F. Waugh, W. G. Ferguson, John Ramsay, W. Bryant, A. McGregor, W. Chapman, L. W. Williams, G. E. Searle, A. MacLean, R. J. Robinson, H. S. Robinson, W. A. Newlands, D. M. Spence.

The "Haggis" ("Aboon them 've tak your place") was brought steaming into the dining room in charge of John Ramsay. David Scott, the old war horse of the society, said grace.

George B. McKay, the president of the society, carried out the duties of toastmaster, and commenced the toast list by calling upon the company to drink to the "King," which was responded to by the singing of the national anthem.

Messengers of congratulations were read by J. McI. Stephen from other societies and individuals.

Among them were J. McD. Mowat, past president, Vancouver, B.C.; societies at Albany, N.Y., Hamilton, Cornwall, St. Catharines, Montreal and Quebec.

Prof. William Morgan, the newly elected chaplain of the society, responded to the toast, "The Land o' Cakes." He made interesting reference to the land across the sea, and the characteristics of its people home and abroad, spicing his speech with stories. The speaker reminded his hearers that though endowed with the canniness of his race the Scotsman possessed other obvious characteristics, and he believed the most prominent of these were independence, generosity and boldness. The Scottish race had not deteriorated under native skies, and her sons and daughters who had roamed abroad, had become nation builders wherever they had cast their lot.
