J. Ernest McArthur, Bloomfield, has been engaged to operate the Bethel cheese and butter plant for 1913. He is a graduate of the Kingston Dairy School.

It looks very much as if Renfrew would have a lively local option fight at the coming municipal election.

The death occurred on Saturday of an esteemed resident of Smith's Falls when Edward Grandin passed away.

INCIDENTS OF THE DAY

LOCAL NOTES AND ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST.

Happenings in the City and Vicinity —What the Merchants Offer to the Readers of the Whig.

John Shea, Barrie street, has been seriously ill, but is now showing improvement.

W. F. Nickle, M.P., was home for the week-end and returned to Ottawa at noon on Monday.

The last two blocks which were paved, Clarence and Brock streets, from Bagot to Wellington streets, were opened for traffic on Saturday noon.

Dean E. J. Bidwell went to Odessa on Sunday. He preached in the church there in the evening, and will hold a parish meeting on Monday evening.

City Comptroller M. E. Monahan and bride, Syracuse, N.Y., returned home, on Saturday, after spending Thanksgiving Day with the bride's mother, Mrs. Catherine Ryan, Wolfe Island.

Sunday was the beginning of the third year's ministry of Rev. A. P. Mershon at Bethel church. The minister preached at both services. In the morning there was a largely attended communion service.

A resolution was adopted in the senate declaring vacant the seat of Senator Michael Sullivan (conservative), of Kingston, who has failed to give his attendance in the senate during two consecutive sessions.

December 2nd, being the Queen Mother Alexandra's birthday, a royal salute was fired from all stations in the empire. "A" battery, Royal Canadian Horse Artillery, fired twenty-one guns from Macdonald Park on Monday noon.

Frederick V. Warren, son of W. H. Warren, Brock street, has been advanced to the position of accountant at the branch of the Bank of Montreal, at Castleton, Alta. Mr. Warren went to Saskatoon about eighteen months ago, serving with the bank in that city.

YOUTH ACCUSED OF THEFT

Believed to be of Unsound Mind and Will be Examined.

George Washburn, the youth arrested on a charge of entering the home of Charles Noble, Bagot street, and stealing a gun, is believed to be of unsound mind, and will be examined by a doctor. He is a charge of the Children's Aid Society, but the agent, Rev. Mr. Smart, who was in court, told the magistrate that it appeared as if the society had been unable to look after him.

Washburn was also accused of stealing a wheel from John Kelly. The wheel was recovered and handed over to the owner last week.

The other case before the magistrate also had to do with a youth, Albert Dixon, who was before the court, last week, on a charge of stabbing Benjamin and Frederick Morris, schoolmates. All the evidence was taken in the case, at the time, but an adjournment was made. Monday morning, the case was further enlarged, in order to give the accused time to pay all the costs of the case, which included medical attendance.

DEATH IN GENERAL HOSPITAL

Of Charles Fuller—His Family is in England.

The death occurred in the general hospital on Sunday evening, of Charles Fuller, after a brief illness. The deceased was employed at the locomotive works until Wednesday evening. On Thursday morning, he was stricken with pneumonia and was removed to the hospital. The deceased had been in this country only a short time, having come to this city from Dover, England, where he had been employed in the Ashford Iron Works. One of the sad things surrounding his death is that his wife and child are in the old land, making preparations to come to Kingston in the spring. The deceased was thirty-eight years of age, and was a member of St. James' church choir.

INDUSTRIAL CLASSES.

Question Will be Taken up This Week by Committee.

There will be a meeting of the management committee of the Board of Education during the week and the most important matter to be taken up will be that of establishing the industrial classes.

It was stated to-day that the committee looked upon the idea most favorably and on this account steps along a progressive line are expected to be taken.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO.

What Happened in Kingston and Elsewhere in 1887.

The Bay of Quinte is frozen over.

The Portsmouth Band of Hope was re-organized under the direction of Miss Dobbs. To make it more attractive several novel military movements will be introduced by Capt. A. H. Von Straubenzie.

Capt. Dix is arranging for a first-class skating rink in the cricket field.

Visiting His Native City.

Richard Pigion, of Redwood City, California, who left here twenty-six years ago, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Peter Hunter, Montreal street. He has not been here in all that time, and is delighted to return. If the climate agrees with him he may settle here. Mr. Pigion has been in the undertaking business in California with his uncle. Lately he has travelled a great deal, having taken a trip to China.

Death of Woman Doctor.

A despatch from Boston says that Dr. Elizabeth Mitchell, a medical practitioner, died suddenly at Nashua. The deceased was a graduate of the Woman's Medical College, Kingston (affiliated with Queen's), in 1888. Her home was in Montreal, and for some years before she crossed to the United States, she practised her profession in that city. She was looked upon as one of the cleverest students of her year, and of an estimable disposition.

CITIZENS' CANDIDATE.

Having been requested by a large number of citizens to offer myself FOR THE MAYORALTY I have consented to accede to their wishes and therefore ask the ratepayers for their VOTES AND INFLUENCE to elect me as CHIEF MAGISTRATE OF KINGSTON for the year 1913.

SAMUEL R. BAILEY

CARD OF THANKS.

The Sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame wish to extend their most cordial thanks to all the ladies and gentlemen who aided in making their bazaar a success—to the designer of the stalls and the carpenters who gave their time to their erection, to the lady convenors for the different booths and their able assistants, to those in charge of the lunch room of the euchre, as well as to all who patronized the fair, donated gifts or contributed in any way towards its success.

Kilbourne News.

Kilbourne, Nov. 30.—People are taking advantage of the snow to get out their wood. The cheese factory closed this week, after a successful season. Mr. Cunningham, the genial cheesemaker, has gone to his home in Gananoque. The mail boxes are all ready for rural delivery. Mrs. Clark is improving, after her serious illness in the general hospital, Kingston. R. Eaton and son, George, are working in Kingston. A little girl has come to stay at the home of T. Baker. Miss Lottie Counter and Miss Edna Edwards spent the past week at C. Cowan's. The people are sorry to lose the teacher, Miss Robin, who has resigned to accept a school at Ida Hill. R. Donaldson is renewing old acquaintances here. Miss A. McAdoo is visiting her brother, W. McAdoo, Wolfe Island.. Miss Nettie Cowan is on the sick list. W. Patterson had a telephone put in last week. Visitors: Mrs. W. J. Blacklock spent last week at H. M. Blacklock's. Mrs. Lloyd is visiting at J. Burnash's. Miss K. Cashman, Glenburnie, spent the week-end the guest of Miss Annie Redmond. N. Patterson and sister, at H. Blacklock's. Mr. and Mrs. A. Barnes, at Mrs. Terthenay's.

Record Price for Milk.

New York, Dec. 2.—Farmers supplying milk to New York now get the highest price ever paid by dealers for milk in this city since the civil war. This was announced by members of the Milk Exchange, who stated they would offer farmers $1.80 per forty-quart can, an advance of ten cents a can over the previous price.

The increase in population and a shortage of cows were given as reasons for the advance.

The retail price, however, it was stated, will remain the same as before at nine cents a quart.

Wedding Bells in Cataraqui.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Black announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence E., to Samuel H. Knox, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knox, Kingston Junction, the wedding to take place quietly in Christ church, Cataraqui, the latter part of December.

Fall and Winter Importations.

Prevost, Brock street, has received all his fall importations for his tailoring department, consisting of suiting and overcoating in great variety of patterns to choose from. Also large stock of ready-made clothing and gents' furnishings.

Castro Sails for England.

Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Dec. 2.—Cipriano Castro, former president of Venezuela, sailed for Southampton, on board the steamer Windhuk. He was booked under another name and took precautions to avoid being recognized.

Jeremiah C. Terwilliger died at Picton, on Nov. 21st. He was aged eighty-three years. He was a long time ill. He was an intelligent, cheerful evangelical and practical Christian man.
