BALKAN ALLIES FEAR CAMPAIGN IN THE SNOW

Peace Negotiations to Begin in Switzerland.

THE POSSIBLE TERMS OF THE PEACE CONDITIONS ARE OUTLINED.

Bulgaria Shows Greed—Seeks Dis- proportionate Share of the Spoils, and is Offending Greece—Servian Ambition Still Threatens Euro- pean Peace.

London, Dec. 3.—The work of charting a new map of what hitherto has been European Turkey will begin immediately after the signature of the armistice by the plenipotentiaries of Turkey and the Balkan allies at the village of Haghtcha on the lines of Tchnatala to-day. If the allies are able to agree among themselves as to the portions of the spoils they are to receive there seems no possibility of a resumption of hostilities.

The comparatively favorable terms which from all accounts have been offered by the allies to Turkey are so different from the original proposals that they seem to suggest the idea that the governments of the Balkan league realize that with winter gripping the country Turkey has gained an ally which will prove more fatal to the armies fronting Adrianople, Scutari and Tchnatala than have been the Ottoman cannon.

No adjustment of the Austro-Serbian disputes is yet visible. Vienna continues to show pessimism and the newspapers there maintain their threatening attitude, but in spite of this, official relations between St. Petersburg and Vienna seem to have become somewhat more cordial and less fraught with diplomatic questions than they were. It is eventually expected that a small mercantile port on the Adriatic Sea connected with Serbia by railroad.

The Possible Terms.

New York, December 3.—The American correspondent at Constantinople says: It has been decided to make the present conditions of a practical armistice cover the time of the duration of peace negotiations. If these fail, war will recommence forty-eight hours later. The blockade established by the Turkish and Greek fleets are to be raised during the armistice, and the opposing armies are to retain their present positions.

The Bulgarian peace conditions have undergone considerable modifications. There is the best authority for stating that the allies and Turkey will most likely agree upon the following terms:

First—The Bulgarian frontier to be moved forward so that the area will be ten miles north of the northern boundary of the Vilayet of Adrianople, leaving Adrianople and Kirk Killiseh—the fortifications of which are to be demolished—within Turkish territory. The frontier lines will then follow the Valley of the Maritza River.

Second—In place of Adrianople and Kirk-Killiseh, Bulgaria receives Kavala and Deagatich on the Aegean Sea, a new western frontier running from a line beyond Kavala, northeast to Bulgaria's present border.

Third—Turkey agrees to the autonomy of Macedonia and a large section of Albania.

Fourth—The Servians will retain Ushib.

Fifth—The Ottoman government has no objection to ceding to Serbia a strip of the Adriatic littoral adjacent to the Montenegro coast.

Sixth—The Greek frontier will be extended northward some hundred miles to Monastir.

Bulgaria is Greedy.

London, Dec. 3.—A British despatch to the Telegraph says: Bulgaria is growing. There is no partition treaty between the allies, and Bulgaria is trying to magnify the result of her victories, while minimizing those of Serbia and Greece.

"Bulgaria is now claiming disproportionate aggrandizement in the conquest territory. Ferdinand wishes Bulgaria to be as large as Greece and Serbia combined, but his anxiety to claim the lion's share of the spoils jeopardizes the successful termination of the war. He kept idle for sixteen days 60,000 troops at Saloniki, while his victorious legions arrived before Tchnatala too weak to force the lines."

"Taking up rather late to the danger, King Ferdinand asks Greece to send transports for his idle troops, with the double purpose of conjuring the danger he created and enhancing Bulgaria's share. Through a private representative in Constantinople he suggests to the grand vizier to ask Bulgaria for an armistice, thereby stopping the ports from prosecuting the negotiations opposed with Greece."

"The Greek and Servian armies lost no time, though needing rest badly. The Greeks after taking Saloniki, started for Monastir, the two armies on the war as true allies. But Servian hands' are given by a secret anti-Austrian treaty with Bulgaria."

PEMBROKE AGREES.

Land Damages Alone Quarter of Million Dollars.

Pembroke, Dec. 3.—The council's committee was waited upon by the railway and transportation and also the mercantile sections of the Board of Trade, both of which, while they have not yet reported, are said to be in complete accord with the committee in favoring the C.N.R. route through the town.

The purchase of the right-of-way alone will cost $250,000, and possibly more, while the bridge work will be most expensive. Three streets—McKay, Pembroke and Mary—will be crossed overhead, while at William street the road will be carried over the company's tracks at the company's expense.

The station which it is proposed to build here will be the same as that at Belleville—a fine structure, the equal of the best to be found in any of the smaller cities.

PAID FOR REGISTERING.

Communicable Diseases Will be Reported Better as Result

Toronto, Dec. 3.—During the next session of the Ontario legislature a bill is to be introduced under which medical men will receive a fee of fifty cents for the registration of all communicable diseases. Under present conditions about forty per cent. only of the cases of tuberculosis are reported to Dr. John McCullough, chairman of the Provincial Board of Health, and deputy registrar-general.

Dr. McCullough says he knows nothing about the bill. However, if doctors are to be paid a fee of fifty cents by the municipality in which the registration is made it is not too much. It would help matters much and be very much in the interests of the municipalities.

CASE WAS DROPPED AGAINST HON. A. G. MACKAY

The Chief Witness is in Toronto Asylum and Suffers From Hallucinations.

Toronto, Dec. 3.—The prosecution of Hon. A. G. Mackay by W. H. Haines for alleged alienation of his wife's affections was dropped when the case was reached before Justice Leitch at the Milton assizes yesterday. Mrs. Haines, who is an inmate of the Toronto asylum, had been subpoenaed to give evidence, but the asylum authorities would not consent to the lady doing so.

Dr. Bruce Smith, inspector of lunatics and Dr. Forster, superintendent of Toronto asylum, testified that Mrs. Haines was laboring under hallucinations and had been in that condition for some time. They maintained that it would be utterly wrong for her to give evidence in the case.

The court, after hearing Dr. Smith, Dr. Forster and Dr. H. Clark, agreed that it would not be right to ask for Mrs. Haines' testimony under such circumstances and the prosecution was then abandoned as the whole case was based on the experts' state were Mrs. Haines' hallucinations.

THREE LIVE ELSEWHERE.

Justice Leitch said that in the face of the evidence he could not allow such a charge to hang on any man.

Court Makes Father Provide Support for Children.

Corunna, Mich., Dec. 3.—Burr Bentley, aged thirty-two years, of Perry, Gds himself in a very unusual position. Several years ago he was married. His wife died and one son was left. Bentley remarried a few years later, and his wife, Emma Bentley, sued for a divorce in July of this year. She was allowed $2 for the care of a child until fourteen years of age. Bentley has since married a third time, and his second wife has given birth to a second child. The court has ordered that Bentley increase the amount paid his second wife.

EGYPT TO BE PROTECTORATE

Such is Report Swiss Banking House is Circulating.

Geneva, Switzerland, Dec. 3.—A British protectorate over Egypt is likely to be announced shortly, according to the Egyptian representative of the Swiss Popular bank, one of the largest financial institutions in Switzerland.

He telegraphs from Cairo: "It is considered in official circles here that a British protectorate over Egypt has been definitely decided on, and it is understood that it will be proclaimed in January."

He adds: "This step of the British government will affect business favorably."

A HANDLESS THIEF.

Specialty Was Picking Pockets and Handbags.

Philadelphia, Pa., Dec. 3.—"Patsy" Wendell, twenty-one years old, was sent to the county prison for six months by Magistrate Gorman. "Patsy" is a handless thief, whose specialty is picking pockets. He was caught in the crowds along Broad street early in the morning. He was carrying in his hands a number of handbags and a rubber suction device attached to his mouth, which appeared as though he was vending toy balloons, and with a tube running into the armpits. Three wallets, $20, and two messbags were found in his coat.

Premier Promises Consideration.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—That the policy of the government was to encourage and build up transportation facilities in every possible way, was the statement of Premier Borden, to-day, to a deputation of residents from towns along the line of the Trent canal, from Midland, on the Georgian Bay, to Trenton, on Lake Ontario, asking for the immediate construction of that portion of the Trent canal between Lake Simcoe and the Georgian Bay, and to provide one end of the system for quicker shipment of Canadian grain. Premier Borden promised deepest consideration.

Washington, D.C., Dec. 3.—President Taft, to-day, announced to congress that the powers and the appropriation of the International Waterways Commission be extended for an indefinite period, until the work of marking the boundaries and determining as to a dam at the outlet of Lake Erie is completed. Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg's declaration of the solidarity of the triple alliance, which it is reported has been renewed for another term of years, and his announcement of Germany's determination to pursue a policy upholding Turkey in an economic sense, is likely to influence the delegates of all the countries concerned to discuss peace conditions in the spirit of moderation already shown in the armistice negotiations.

Combination Effected by Harriman Violates Anti-trust Law.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The great Harriman merger, created when the Union Pacific Railroad company bought 56 per cent of the stock of the Southern Pacific railway system, was split asunder by the supreme court of the United States as a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Then, with the end of the merger before it, the court sent forth its portentous declaration that "while the law may not be able to enforce competition, it can reach combinations which render competition impracticable."

TWO BURNED TO DEATH IN NEW YORK FIRE

Jewish Rabbi and Another Man Lost Lives in Fifth Avenue Department House.

New York, Dec. 3.—Louis Levy, a Jewish rabbi, and William Day, were burned to death in fifteen persons were hurt in a wild panic following a fire at a five-story apartment house on the upper part of Fifth avenue, early this morning. Twelve families were quarantined on the flat and there were many thrilling rescues by firemen carrying inmates down long ladders. Day, the second victim, was roused from his bed, but refused to leave the building, saying he did not think the fire would amount to anything. The origin is believed to be incendiary.

STORING MUCH GRAIN

In Switzerland's Government Storehouses Before Winter.

Geneva, Switzerland, Dec. 3.—Six hundred carloads of wheat and Indian corn are now on their way to government storehouses, in pursuance of the Swiss plan to fill all the storehouses before winter. Most of this grain is from Canada and the United States, as Russia is retaining all her grain, fearing the possibility of war.

George H. Bradbury, of Selkirk, Ontario, declared that the men arrested in Macdonald were "caught red-handed, but the conservative party was good enough to let them off," a statement received with jeers and ironical laughter. He accused Sir Wilfrid Laurier of founding his charges, that the temporary reduction in cement duties was made to affect the Saskatchewan elections, on the "statements of a disgruntled manufacturer."

Liberals Adhere to Trade Policy.

Dr. Neely turned his attention to the minister of finance, Mr. White, he said he has evidenced "a great deal of mental anxiety and worry" over the liberal position in relation to the trade policy. "Let me tell him," said the member for Humboldt, "that the liberal party does not propose to depart from its ideal of larger markets for Canadian products. The member for King and Albert found that out the other night. While the particular pact or arrangement of reciprocity is dead, the principle which underlies it will never die. Liberals propose to consistently proceed on progressive lines for the betterment of the people, the opening of wider markets for Canadian products and the cheapening of the cost of living."

W. F. Maclean followed Dr. Neely. Speaking from the front row of the government benches, he evoked liberal cheers and an eloquent silence from his own side of the house by declaring that he has been greatly shocked by the serious charges in regard to the Macdonald bye-election irregularities, and that he believed they fully warranted full investigation by a committee of the house. He believed that every step should be taken to guarantee purity of election methods and British fair play to every elector in this country.

While Hon. Robert Rogers still continues to confine his activities to perambulating the country—a practice he has adopted continuously since Mr. Carvell's charges drove him from the House—Dr. Neely last night arraigned premier Borden as Mr. Rogers on the character of the civil service "reform" they had introduced throughout the west.

LIBERALS CONTINUE ATTACK ON GOVERNMENT

Expose Prostitution of Justice in Manitoba.

W. F. MACLEAN FAVORS A FULL INVESTIGATION OF THE CHARGES.

Unequivocal Reaffirmation of Policy of Larger Markets Through Re- moval of Tariff Obstructions— Firm Stand for Laurier Naval Policy.

Ottawa, Dec. 3.—There was no let-up yesterday in the continued liberal attack on the government in exposure of the prostitution of justice in the Macdonald bye-election, and of the Forget-Rogers attempt to bribe the electors of Richelieu with promises of public works conditional upon the election of the ministerial candidate. There was again an unequivocal advocacy of the liberal policy of larger markets through removal of tariff restrictions. A firm stand was again taken for the Laurier naval policy. This will be the order of the day for probably the rest of the week, and the final division on the amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne is not now expected before Monday. On the government side there was still practically no defence to the Macdonald and Richelieu bye-election charges. The only attempt at justification was merely to the quoque argument—which, as was pointed out, was a significant commentary on the political morality of Premier Borden and his associates.

Sir Rodolphe Forget at midnight moved the adjournment of the debate. It is expected that when Sir Rodolphe resumes the debate tomorrow he will deal with the statements which he made, as he stated, on the assurances of the present minister of public works during the Richelieu bye-election.

Rogers Convicted of Untruth.

When Hon. Robert Rogers endeavored to defend the arrest of J. J. Sullivan, the young liberal who was arrested by his officials in the Macdonald bye-election and released after their failure to persuade him under threats and promises to plead guilty of offences of which he was innocent, by telling parliament that he was a nephew of "Cap" Sullivan of Ontario, the minister of public works told the house an untruth, according to the statement of Dr. Neely of Humboldt, who criticised the debate this afternoon. Dr. Neely was fortified with a telegram from Mr. Sullivan, who stated that he was no relative of the famous "Cap," and he severely scored the absent minister of public works for endeavoring to mislead his constituents with a "defence" which was in direct variance with the truth. Mr. Rogers was not in the house. He has not appeared in his seat during the debate since Mr. Carvell's charges drove him ignominiously from the chamber last Thursday.

David McNeil resumed his speech in French when the house met. He stated his opposition to any money contribution to England in connection with the navy, and adhered to the position that the Laurier policy was "the only true Canadian policy."

Not Likely to Accept.

Washington, D.C., Dec. 3.—It is unlikely that Andrew Carnegie will be accepted by congress. There is a prevailing opinion against it on all sides of the house.
