"MY STOMACH IS FINE
Since Taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets"

Mrs. J. Merkhuger, Waterloo, Ont.,
enthusiastically recommends Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets. Her experience with them, as she outlines it, explains why.

"I was greatly troubled with my stomach," she writes. "I had taken so much medicine that I might say to take any more would only be making it worse. My stomach just felt raw. I read of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, and a lady friend told me they were very easy to take, so I thought I would give them a trial and really they worked wonders. Anyone having anything wrong with his stomach should give Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets a trial, they will do the rest. My stomach is fine now and I can eat any food."

One of the many good features of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets is that they are so pleasant and easy to take.
The relief they give from heartburn, flatulence, biliousness and dyspepsia is prompt and permanent. Try one after each meal—they'll make you feel like a new person.

THE COCAINE FEINE

DRUG REPLACED MORPHINE AND OTHER AMONG YOUNG WOMEN.

Much Easier to Obtain—Peculiar Effect Continuous Use of Cocaine Has Upon Victims.

Paris, Dec. 3.—Cocaine has replaced morphine and other as a favorite drug among young women who frequent the Montmartre cafes, says Dr. Briand of Sainte Anne's women's lunatic asylum, in a report read before the Medical-Psychological society. The report goes on to say that the use of cocaine has become epidemic, and so many sufferers have reached St. Anne's that Dr. Briand sent his colleague, Dr. Vinchon, to make an investigation. Dr. Vinchon found that the vogue for cocaine was due to the fact that it is easy to obtain, easy to take, and does not need a syringe, as morphine does. It is merely snuffed in crystallized form. Continuous use of cocaine, says the report, seems to give a love for speed, and as a result the victims of the habit take long drives in taxicabs for which they are unable to pay. The result is they are arrested.

NOT FAREWELL VISIT

Says Sarah Bernhardt on Arrival in New York.

New York, Dec. 3.—"This is not my farewell to your beautiful America," were the words of Sarah Bernhardt, as she stepped off the La Savole from Europe with her company, for a vaudeville tour of the United States.

The noted French tragedienne carried with her her usual large personal equipment, which this time includes two Pomeranian pups, tucked snugly under her arm as she crossed the gang plank cheered by the liner's crew.

Mrs. Bernhardt left immediately in a special car for Chicago, where she makes her first appearance. Her tour will extend to the Pacific coast.

CAUGHT UP BY AEROPLANE.

Professional Nurse Awarded $875 Damages Against Aviator.

London, Dec. 3.—The sad tale of an involuntary flight was told in the Leeds county court last week, when the jury awarded to Miss Ellen C. Pimlott, a professional nurse, $875 damages against R. I. Isaacson, a Leeds engineer.

The plaintiff's story was that she was sitting on the sands at Filey when she saw an aeroplane coming straight toward her. She tried to get out of the way, but was caught and picked up by one of the wings. She remembered seeing the sea, and then lost consciousness, awakening later to find herself in a hospital.

HORSE MEAT IN SAUSAGES.

Chicago Manufacturer Charged—Patrons Get Them.

Chicago, Dec. 3.—Hundreds of unsuspecting Chicagoans have been eating horse meat recently, according to investigators of the City Health Department. Assistant Health Commissioner Koehler will ask for a warrant for the arrest of a Chicago sausage manufacturer.

Most of the sausage with horse meat as an ingredient has been sold to saloons for use on free lunch counters.

MICHIGAN HUNTING FATALITIES

Seventeen Men and Boys Have Lost Their Lives.

Calumet, Mich., Dec. 3.—Seventeen men and boys were shot and killed, drowned or died of exposure while hunting in Northern Michigan woods during the season which closed Saturday. Several were victims of hunters who shot at "moving bush," and four of the victims were clad in flaming red coats.

The number of victims is slightly lower than the average season.

To Support the Turf.

London, Dec. 3.—A London cable to Toronto says: "As a reflection on the tolerance of those who kill and race in New York and forced American owners of thoroughbreds to seek new fields to conquer in the old world, Sir John Thursty, speaking at a dinner at the Gimcrack Club, announced that King George V. did not intend to withdraw from the turf, but would in future, so far as his kingly duties allowed give his effective personal support to one of the greatest sports in the world."

Nicholas Shaver, aged sixty-one years, died at Heckston, after a lingering illness. He was a Methodist and a conservative.

LUTHER'S LECTURE.

Study Hours Too Short, Says College President.

Boston, Dec. 3.—Later study hours and shorter vacations for school children were recommended by President Flavel S. Luther, of Trinity College, in an address at the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Teachers' Association.

"The public is an easy mark, because school teachers have convinced them that the schools are giving all they ought in education," said President Luther.

"Let's teach more than twenty-five hours a week. Let's have our schools going a longer part of the year. Let's make children take school life more seriously than we have formerly. Let's be a little more in earnest. It is preposterous that we need so much vacation."

THE WOMEN OF AMERICA

Will Have the Franchise Before British Women.

Toronto, Dec. 3.—Sir William Meredith, chief justice of Ontario, is home. On behalf of the Ontario government he has been studying in Britain, Germany and other European countries, the operation of the "workmen's compensation laws" in vogue in those countries.

On learning from reporters that suffragettes had been tampering with the mails and mail boxes, Sir William expressed the opinion that the woman heading the movement in Britain must have taken leave of her senses. He remarked that the women of America would have the vote in every state and province long before any women in Britain got it, if such tactics as those now used by the militant suffragettes were continued on the other side.

CUTS DOWN HYDRO BILL.

Toronto Expert Says London Should Pay $19,000, Not $30,000.

London, Ont., Dec. 3.—Some time ago the city council objected to the Hydro-electric department's bill of $30,000 for street lighting, but the figures were sustained by the Hydro Electric commission. Prof. Angus of Toronto was then engaged to make a report, which he presented Saturday. He places the amount that should be charged at $19,000.

To Preserve Fort Edmonton.

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 3.—Mrs. Arthur Murphy, president of the Women's Canadian club of Edmonton, is at the head of a movement to bring before the provincial legislature next spring a plan to preserve for the people the buildings known as Fort Edmonton, formerly owned and occupied by factors and traders of the Hudson's Bay company, organized in 1670.

"DRY" HOTEL PAYS 6 P.C.

Local Option Experiment in Newmarket Very Successful.

Newmarket, Dec. 3.—The success of the venture of running a "Local Option" hotel to which about fifteen of the leading citizens of Newmarket pledged themselves during the temperance campaign three years ago, was celebrated Friday night, when the directors of the Newmarket Hotel company gathered at the festive board in the parlors of the King George hotel to hear the annual financial statement and receive congratulations on their conduct of the project.

That the hotel had won the reputation among the travelling public of offering better accommodation than licensed houses in towns of much larger population and that at the same time it had been run on a paying basis were sources of considerable gratification. The financial statement submitted by Dr. F. H. Wesley, showed that the company was in a position to pay a dividend of eight per cent. It was decided, however, that the usual dividend of six per cent. should be declared and a large surplus could then be carried forward.

The dividend which was distributed came as a pleasant surprise, considerable expense having been undertaken during the year. Altogether the building cost about $200,000, nearly ten per cent, has been written off for improving the equipment and building. The installation of a modern dining room had cost $12,000 and new furniture for other parts of the building had cost several thousand dollars.

DID GOOD SERVICE

And General Regret Expressed at Her Retirement.

Miss Annie Walsh, of this city, who has been assistant superintendent of the Sherbrooke Protestant hospital, has retired and will return to Kingston. Her retirement occasioned general regret and the medical board of the hospital tendered her a testimonial expressing their sorrow at her retirement but wishing her most sincere wishes for success in the future. She so administered the hospital that little criticism could be made of her management. They said, "You have always shown a gentle and Christian spirit towards the patients, rich and poor alike, and a cheerful disposition on all occasions."

Wolfe Island Waifs.

Wolfe Island, Dec. 2.—Sincere sympathy is offered to William Taggart and family in their sad bereavement by the death of his beloved wife. Deceased was around striking her household work when driven by the dire messenger about nine a. m. A hurry call for both priest and doctor was sent, but when they arrived she was beyond medical skill. The funeral took place on Saturday morning at the Church of the Sacred Heart, where a solemn requiem was sung by Rev. Father Spratt, after which her remains were placed in the vault to await final interment. Hiram Carvin, a lifelong friend of Mr. Taggart, attended the funeral. Hon. William Harty has donated $100 to the building fund of the new Catholic church. A two-manual organ is being installed in the church for the present time, to be used later in the new one. Harry Garland and Oliver Hawkins, who have an auction sale of American-bred horses, have arrived home. The dance held on Friday night in the C. M. B. A. hall, owing to the inclemency of the night, was a failure. Our ferry was billed to make a special trip for it, but as the wind was high she did not venture out. Purser Rattary states that Saturday evening a large number crossed to the city. The Phelps with her consort the Acadia cleared last Thursday for Oswego for a cargo of coal for Belleville.

STEWART WITH CAPTAIN.

A Local Veterinary Student Was With Captain Smith.

A. J. Wardle, a veterinary student with G. W. Bell, V.S., Clarence street, had the honor of making six trips across the Atlantic ocean with the late Capt. Smith, who went down with the steamship Titanic. In conversation with a Whig representative, Mr. Wardle stated that he had always found Capt. Smith to be a very fine man. For some sixteen months Mr. Wardle acted as steward to the captain. It will be remembered that nine years ago the late captain, then in charge of the steamer Cedric, was lost for some twenty-eight days, and it was then thought that the boat would never be seen again. During that time the captain remained for some twenty days at his post and never left it, so much as to get something to eat. Mr. Wardle was on board that trip.

MAY END IN DEATH.

Hurled From Auto His Back is Broken.

Rochester, N.Y., Dec. 3.—John F. Burke, aged twenty-eight, engaged in the brick brokerage business in this city, was injured in an automobile accident early Sunday morning, that may result in his death.

He was returning with Walter Smith, a business friend, and two young women after a trip to Avon, when the car skidded on a hill near Henrietta, throwing the party into the ditch.

Burke, who was on the rear seat, was hurled violently into the road and when picked up it was found that his back was broken. He was removed to the Homeopathic hospital, this city, where it is said he will not recover. The others in the party were merely bruised.

Bringing Down Garage Costs

HOW many floors do you pay rent for? How many do you use? Is each floor equally valuable to you?

These are questions which every Garage owner should ask himself.

A Freight elevator puts all floors on the same level; makes every square inch of floor space equally valuable. It enables you to arrange your tools, machinery, parts stock, and accessories in the most convenient order to ensure economic operation; so that useless hauling, shifting and moving are eliminated and their unnecessary cost goes to fatten your profit account.

An Otis-Fensom Elevator, suitable for your requirements, will cost you very little in proportion to what it will pay you. If you are using more than one floor you will find that it will double the value of every dollar you have invested in your building, or which you pay interest, and will save you a large sum every month in labor charges. Don't think an Otis-Fensom Freight Elevator necessitates a large investment.

You will probably be surprised how little the right kind of an equipment will cost you.
