Half of Amount for Treatment of the Sightless.

Philadelphia, Dec. 9.-Dr. William J Nealon a blind physician, has just inherited $30 000 by the death of a man whom he befriended years ago and announced to-day that he would give half the amount for the erection of a building in which the blind may have the services of skilled masseners.

In 1898, before he became blind, Dr. Nealon became acquainted at Atlantic City with Philip Sheridan, of California. Sheridan's eyes were troubling him and Dr. Nealon advised him to go to the Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia for treatment. Sheridan did so and was cured. Later he went to his Cal'fornia home where he died four
