

Another Leading Novel, THE HOLLOW OF HER HAND

GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON.

Author of "Granstar," etc.

With Full Page Illustrations, in Color, by KELLER. Instantly, from the start, from the first situation, tense, dramatic, unique and powerful, you realize that this is away head and shoulders above the average novel; and as you go on, the first prediction is more than justified. "The Hollow of Her Hand" does not flatten out, does not pall, does not hang fire; on the contrary, the first striking situation is developed with masterly handling of plot, suspense, surprise, clear through to the end of the story.

EVENTS AT CHURCHES

TEAS AND SALES AT ST. LUKE'S AND CHALMERS

On Wednesday Afternoon—Both Were Well Patronized—A Concert Was Given at St. Luke's in the Evening.

The ladies' Guild of St. Luke's Church and the ladies of St. Agnes' Guild jointly held a successful tea and sale on Wednesday afternoon and evening. The proceeds amounted to about $150.

Mrs. J. Saunders, president of the Ladies' Guild, received at the door, assisted by Mrs. E. Reynolds. The tables were very prettily arranged and stocked with all kinds of bargains. Over the tea table presided Mrs. J. Simpson and Mrs. J. McCammon, assisted by Mrs. H. Lyons and the Misses N. Scrivens, E. Lucas and R. Compton. St. Agnes' Guild fancy table was under the charge of Mrs. James Schofield, Mrs. W. Carroll and the Misses N. Scrivens, E. Lucas, V. Hartman and Elva Paek. The home-made table was in care of Mrs. Scrivens and Mrs. Connors. Those at the Fish Pond were Miss Lottie McCammon and Miss Melissa Goff. A table was also provided and cared for by members of the Sunday school. This table was in charge of the Misses E. McDonald, Thelma Carroll, Ruth Lyons, Flora Lyons, May Ferris, Lila McCammon and Marjorie Watts. In charge of the fancy work table were Mrs. J. Caldwell and Mrs. J. Birmingham and at the apron table were Mrs. J. Marsh and Mrs. E. Chalkley.

In the evening a splendid concert was given with the assistance of the 14th band and a number of the young people of the church. Several selections played by the band were greatly enjoyed. Songs were sung by Miss C. Forner, Miss R. Compton, Mr. Pardo, Mr. Saunders and Bandmaster Webb. A duet sung by the Misses Johnston varied the programme.

A dramatic sketch, which added greatly to the entertainment of the evening and was warmly received, was put on by the young people of the church. The piece was entitled "A Noble Man in Disguise." The parts were taken by the following: Mr. Kershaw, James Saunders; Mrs. Kershaw, Miss Fannie Johnston; Julia Kershaw, Miss Gladys Caldwell; Dick Kershaw, Miss Daisy Johnston; Aunt Polly Grimes, Miss Edith Bermingham; Mr. FitzBoodle, Alfred Compton; Mr. De Smith, Nicholas Sharp; the policeman, Nicholas Timmerman.

An Event at Chalmers.

On Wednesday afternoon the Sunday school hall of Chalmers church was the scene of a tea and sale by the young women's society of the church.

Miss Macdonnell was in charge of the tea table, Miss E. Richmond was convener of the home-made table, assisted by the Misses A. Matthews, J. and J. Slater and M. Fenwick. Those who attended at the display of fancy work were Miss M. Ioss, convener, Mrs. E. H. Young and the Misses Bellhouse and H. Driver. The affair was well attended and a neat sum was realized.

THE CHRISTMAS WHIG.

The annual Christmas number of the Whig will be issued on Saturday, December 14th, and will be superior to anything hitherto published by the Whig. The illustrated section will consist of 32 pages, printed on fine coated paper. There will be several colored engravings, and a large number of new views of Kingston and vicinity. Christmas stories, miscellaneous articles, and attractive advertisements will make up a very excellent number. It is an issue, we are sure, the public will appreciate and send on to their friends. The edition will be considerably larger than last year, when all copies were sold before six o'clock. However, the only way to make sure of extra copies is to order in advance.

Married at West Toronto.

The marriage of Miss Evelyn Edith Thompson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson, Manvers Station, Ont., to William Howard Cooke, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooke, Kingston, Ont., quietly took place in the Victoria Presbyterian church, West Toronto, on December 10th. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. D. T. L. McKerrill. The bride wore a travelling suit of water blue whippoor, a corsage of roses, and mink furs, presented by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Cooke after the ceremony left for Detroit, and on their return will reside at Manvers Station, Ont.

The Beauty of Health.

There is no beauty so attractive as the beauty of health. It is a kind of beauty almost any one can have. Don't endure pimples, blotches, etc. They not only mar personal appearance but are signs of dangerous blood disorders. Wade's Iron Tonic Pills (Laxative) cure the blemishes and remove the cause. They are a great nerve strengthener and blood purifier. In boxes, 25c, at McLeod's Drug Store, 53 Brock street, one door above King street. Money back if not satisfactory.

Played at Rockwood.

The Kingston Dramatic Club, presented "Dandy Dick," at Rockwood hospital, on Wednesday evening, and the play was given with fine effect, the different parts being in able hands. The club will put on this play at Cobourg, on Friday night, and at the Grand, in Kingston, Saturday, matinee and night. The proceeds for the production here, on Saturday, are to be given to Christmas charities.

CLOSE OF NAVIGATION

NEARLY ALL THE VESSELS HAVE BEEN LAID UP.

Mariners Are Busy Placing the Boats for the Winter Months—All the Ships Filled With Vessels—Good Trade in Grain and Coal This Season.

The marine season at this port is practically ended. The last cargo of grain has been received from Fort William, nearly all the coal schooners have been laid up, and mariners are leaving for their homes for the winter. The steamer Wanderer, on the Cape Vincent route, and the Wolfe Islander, running to Gardien Island, will now have full way until the weather man sends along the ice and hinders up navigation. Just how long that will be remains to be seen. Both these vessels keep the line open as long as they can.

The harbor, at the present time, is filled with vessels, all getting placed into their winter quarters. A half dozen or more were near the steamer Sowards, damaged by fire on Wednesday morning, and it was indeed lucky they escaped. Had there been a windstorm, like that of Tuesday morning, at the fire at Swift's wharf, it would have been a very serious matter for the fleet of vessels quartered there. The French would have had about the toughest proposition they ever had, in fighting the fire.

Nearly all the barges of the Montreal Transportation company have arrived to go into winter quarters. The barges and tugs have had a very busy time plying between here and Montreal with grain. All the vessels of the R. and O. company have been laid up with the exception of the Wanderer on the Cape route. The season now closing has been a very busy one, both in the grain and coal-carrying trade. Vessels have had all they could do.

The average person has no idea of the work entailed in the placing of vessels in winter quarters, and getting them out again in the spring. The vessels have to be given the best of attention—in fact, they have to be looked after all the time, and the expenditure in keeping them up is great. Every spring it means a great deal of time and money to get them ready to start out, and as the season is so short, all this makes a big cut in the earnings of the boat. From Portsmouth bay down to Swift's wharf practically everything has gone into winter quarters. However, at the yard of the shipbuilding company, one vessel is following the other into the dock for repairs, and will be until the ice takes. And the work is progressing on the government steamers. The last of the Calvin company's fleet, the steamer Simla, came up from Montreal last week. All are laid up.

The steamers Rapids Prince and Pierpoint are laid up at Folger's wharf, the steamers Newshay, America and St. Lawrence at Crawford's; the Ramona and Jessie Bain at the foot of Princess street, and the Thousand Islander at Anglin's. A large number of mariners are returning home. Among those noticed to-day are Capt. Charles Martin, Capt. James Martin, Capt. W. Sughra, Capt. Walter Collins, Capt. Joseph Murray, Capt. James Kirkwood and Capt. James Oliver.

Capt. Thomas Murphy is holidaying at Chalmers. Capt. Patrick Sullivan, of the steamer Prince Rupert, has returned to his home in St. Catharines. The C. G. S. Scout sailed at Swift's on Thursday morning before going to Nine-Mile point, and from there down to Prescott. The latter place will be her winter quarters. Navigation is practically closed on all the river and the buoys and dykes are nearly all picked up by the government steamers. This work has been completed in the American channel.

The house boat Wenona, owned by W. H. Nicholson, Brooklyn, N. Y., is being remodelled at Davis' dry dock.

The yacht Morning Star, owned by Hon. Clifford Sifton, Ottawa, is also in dry dock undergoing repairs. The Davis Dry Dock company is expecting shortly to close a contract for the building of a gasoline motor tug which will be a part of the winter's work.

The ice on Anglin's Bay took for the third time this fall on Wednesday night and was still holding at noon on Thursday. The wind has broken it up every time it formed, and will probably do so again before it becomes solid enough for the winter.

Had an Arm Broken.

Frederick Paynter, aged twenty-seven, living at No. 7, Devonshire Terrace, Sydenham street, employed as a machinist, at the Lockport Works, had his left arm broken, as the result of an accident at the works, on Wednesday morning. He was removed to the general hospital.

Still No Quorum.

The Property committee was called to meet on Wednesday afternoon, but only two members turned up, so the meeting had to be called off. The faithful two were Aldermens Litton and Armstrong. It is over six months since there has been a meeting of this committee.

A Physical Wreck

Suffered Tortures from Nervousness. Miss Marguerite Lees, 21 Robert St., Hamilton, Ont., writes: "I was a wreck, reduced in body and despondent, suffered tortures from nervousness, and was totally unfit for work. A friend recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I commenced taking it and in the time the second bottle was consumed I knew that I was mending. Gradually I grew well. I have used Hood's since, I would not be without it on any account, and do most enthusiastically endorse every word in its favor." Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today. Sold by all druggists everywhere.

ABERNETHY'S

OLD-TIME REMEDY DARKENS THE HAIR

Gives Color, Lustre to Faded and Gray Hair—Dandruff Quickly Removed.

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays, almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories. An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and thin weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a fifty cent bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur from your druggist, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

KINGSTON STREET MARKET.

There Will be Lots of Turkey for Christmas.

"There will be any amount of turkey for Christmas," declared a local dealer to the Whig on the market, Thursday morning. "We already have plenty on hand for our customers. The price will range from 13c to 18c a pound."

However some of the poultry raisers are getting prices a little in advance of this now. Eggs sold for 40c, and a dozen.

One lady on the square, after judging the weight of a pair of fowl, asked the farmer, "There are ten pounds in them. If you think not, I will have them weighed." From 80c to $1 a pair was asked for fowl, and chickens ranged from 70c to 90c a pair. Ducks sold for $1.25 and $1.45 a pair.

"Your apples look good this morning," was addressed to a farmer.

"How much are they?" "Well, I'm getting $1 a bushel," he replied.

The other prices were: Potatoes, 90c to $1; cabbage, 50c a dozen; beans, carrots and turnips, 20c a peck; parsnips, 25c a peck; onions, 35c, and 40c peck; pumpkins, 10c to 30c each.

Beef sold at 6c to 8c, front quarter. Lamb was bought for 13c, and 15c, and pork for 12c and 13c.

Hay came into town in greater quantities this week. Up to Thursday there were forty loads weighed at Place d'Armes. The price was from $12.50 to $14.30 a ton.

AN AGED MURDERER

Enters the Provincial Penitentiary For Life Sentence.

Another life prisoner has entered the provincial penitentiary, in the person of John Bateman of Whitby, who was brought to the city on Wednesday by the Sheriff from that county. He did not appear to mind his position very much. It will be remembered that some time ago the old man killed his wife and was sentenced to be hanged. A petition was presented to the minister of justice, Hon. C. J. Doherty, who, after considering the matter, had the sentence commuted to life imprisonment. The murderer is said to be eighty years of age, but to look at him one would not take him for that age.

Bateman is the oldest prisoner at Portamouth, but under the close confinement it is not likely that his years will be many, unless he is pardoned as was Farquhar MacRae, the aged Lancaster slayer.

The Late Daniel McGillicuddy.

Daniel McGillicuddy, editor, who died in Toronto on Wednesday night, once lived with his parents in Kingston. His father belonged to the Royal Canadian regiment stationed here in the sixties, and the son Daniel worked for a year or two in the old Whig office, on Bagot street, as a printer. The family removed to St. Catharines after that.
